NOTE: This is a Blended/Hybrid course.

NOTE: This is a 16-week course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Lecture, power point presentations, class discussions, student presentations, outside reading assignments, article reviews, exams, videos and guest lecturers.

CRIME IN AMERICA

CRIJ 1307_75

- A. There will be a Quiz due the Sunday of each week that will cover the chapter that is to be covered that week. This will ensure that students read the chapters and are prepared for class.
- B. There will be discussion boards due every Sunday the grading will be based on the below rubric.

The following rubric illustrates how each discussion session will be graded. The number of post represented in your posting history will be calculated. The quality of your posts is a subjective assessment by me of how much your post adds to the discussion.

Metrics	Post	Reply to two other Students	Quality of Post	Quality of replies
Points earned	25 points	25 points	25 points	25 points

- C. Four objective style tests worth 15% each will be given during the semester. The Exams will be taken in Brightspace during regular classroom periods using the ESEC Computer Lab.
1. Exams will cover the material presented in class and from the textbook.
 2. Exams will be given when the appropriate material has been covered in class.
- D. Written report: A written report is due on a specified date. Written instructions along with the rubric will be provided to each student. Papers that are not turned in on the due date may be accepted, but the grade will begin at a 79% and decrease. Failure to complete this assignment will result in INCOMPLETE for the entire course. This assignment is submitted through the Brightspace platform.
- E. It is very important that students attend each class meeting and regular participation in class discussions is encouraged. Students are expected to have read the assigned material and examination questions will come from both the lecture and/or the assigned readings.

CRIME IN AMERICA

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

CRIME IN AMERICA

CRIJ 1307_75

Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum in the course just as they would in a face-to-face class. That includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity.

It is the student's responsibility to read the General Conduct Responsibility Policy in the Highlander Guide (MCC Student Handbook) and the Mental Health Handbook. Any breeches of conduct will result in disciplinary action.

Disturbances in the classroom, which include talking during class, will not be tolerated.

1. Students disturbing the class will be requested to leave the classroom or will have an assigned seat.
2. Continued disregard for classroom decorum will result in the student being dropped from the class rolls.
3. Caps, hats, and sun glasses will not be worn in the classroom. Sun glasses that are medically required may be worn.
4. Cheating during an exam or where related to a term paper, will result in the student being given a FAILURE (F) for the course, and dropped from the class rolls.
5. Use of Laptop type computers and tablets is authorized for taking of notes. Using this device to access social media network sites is prohibited. This also includes cell phone type devices.
6. Plagiarism will not be tolerated in any written assignment.
7. E-Cigarette: (Electronic) are not permitted to be used in the classroom
8. CELL PHONE POLICY: (This policy will be strictly enforced)
 - A. All students with cell phones will be required to place their cell phone on silent before entering the classroom. Text messaging is not allowed in the classroom.
 - B. If a student receives an emergency call during class and he or she needs to answer the call:
 1. Quietly leave the classroom before answering the call.
 2. After completing their phone call students are asked to quietly enter the classroom in a manner that will not disturb the instructor or other students.
 - C. First violation of the policy will result in the student not being able to have their cell phone activated during class.

CRIME IN AMERICA

CRIJ 1307_75

D. Second violation of the policy, the student will have 5 points deducted from their final grade point average.

Dress Policy

Students of the college, while on campus and/or participating in any function or activity of the college, are expected to meet acceptable standards of dress and personal hygiene.

A student's dress or personal hygiene shall be considered unacceptable if it inhibits or interferes with the educational responsibility of the college community or if it disrupts the administrative functions of the college, including social-educational activities.

Accommodations/ADA Statement

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. Instructors should not provide accommodations unless approved by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit mclennan.edu/disability.
