WACO, TEXAS

COURSE SYLLABUS AND INSTRUCTOR PLAN

American Literature

English 2326. 003

Dr. Arvis Scott

NOTE: This is a 16-week Blended course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

Course Description

A survey of American literature from the period of exploration and settlement to the present. Students will study works of prose, poetry, drama, and fiction in relation to their historical and cultural contexts. Texts will be selected from among a diverse group of authors for what they reflect and reveal about the evolving American experience and character.

Prerequisites and/or

Corequisites: ENGL 1301
(Composition I) or ENGL 2311

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

Our class is a Blended course. We will meet once a week in the classroom. The rest of the time, we will engage via online instruction. Specifically, all course content and assignments are posted online in our Brightspace course site. You will submit assignments to me by copying and pasting the content into an email and submitting it to ascott@mcclennan.edu .

Read well, take notes, and pay attention to directions for all the required work.

Click on the link above for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Core Objectives for Language, Philosophy, & Culture:

This course offers a broad survey overview and a foundational basis for general education within the liberal arts. It also prepares students for further study within the academic area of literature.

- Critical Thinking (CT): Requires creative innovation in interpretation, inquiry, and analyses of a wide variety of texts and a synthesis of texts with secondary sources.
- Communication Skills (COM): Require effective development, interpretation, and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Social Responsibility (SR): Requires consideration of other cultures and other time periods, which in turn leads to knowledge of civic responsibility in regional, national and global communities. This knowledge prepares students for an understanding of the effects of good social responsibility, as well as the consequences of the lack thereof in communities, nations, and the world.

- Personal Responsibility (PR): Includes skills in connecting choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making, as demonstrated in the wide variety of texts covered in these classes.

Learning Outcomes:

While successfully completing literature courses, students will:

1. Identify key themes, representative authors and works, significant historical or cultural events, and characteristic perspectives or attitudes expressed in the literature of different periods or regions.
2. Analyze literary works as expressions of individual or communal values within the social, political, cultural, or religious contexts of different literary periods.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of the development of characteristic forms or styles of expression during different historical periods or in different regions.
4. Articulate the aesthetic principles that guide the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
5. Write research-based critical papers about the assigned readings in clear and grammatically correct prose, using various critical approaches to literature.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Online lectures, written posts, written essays, quizzes, exams, web research, presentations of original memoirs and narrative.

Course Grading Information:

GRADING SCALE:

QUIZZES, PARAGRAPHS, AND DISCUSSION BOARD POST—25%

MID-TERM EXAM—25%

ANALYSIS PAPER WITH SOURCE—25%

FINAL EXAM—25%

While we will meet in the classroom at least once a week, please note all written assignments will be emailed to me at ascott@mclennan.edu. You will copy and paste the content into the email. DO NOT SEND ATTACHMENTS.

You will have specific due dates for all assignments in our class. However, you will not need to be online for a specific hour. For example, if you have a quiz on a particular day, you will generally have from 8:00 a.m., until 10:00 p.m. to complete the quiz. All due dates for the entire semester are posted so you can set up your calendars as soon as possible when the course begins.

Quizzes and Tests:

You may not make up missed quizzes and tests. Please make note of the due dates and times for all quizzes and tests and schedule accordingly. It is your responsibility to maintain internet access. Not having internet access is not a viable reason for missing assignments, quizzes, or tests. However, I understand events may occur that are out of your control. Therefore, I will allow students to complete a make up assignment at the end of the semester that will replace one quiz or paragraph assignment.

Tests and quizzes are timed. You must complete them in one sitting.

Textbook:

You are required to use the The Norton Anthology of American Literature: Shorter Ninth Edition. The general editor is Robert S. Levine. The text comes in two volumes. We will use both volumes. If you choose to use an older edition, the page numbers will be different, and the selections may be different. You will be responsible for all of the assignments regardless. Also, you are still responsible for all assignments on the due dates even if you do not have a textbook. Fortunately, most of our reading selections may be found online.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

All assignments are due on the assigned due dates. Specific times will vary. Please see the list of assignments under “Course Schedule.” Points will be deducted for papers and assignments turned in after the posted due dates at a rate of 10 points per day. I will not accept any assignments beyond the fifth day an assignment is due.

Attendance

This course is a Blended class which means we will meet in the classroom one day a week and also engage in an online learning environment. I will check roll each class day and maintain a record of enrollment on Brightspace.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy

Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity.

Accommodations/ADA Statement

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. Instructors should not provide accommodations unless approved by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:
