NOTE: This is a Blended/Hybrid course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources, we encourage you to contact a success coach by calling (254) 299-8226. Students can visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. to meet with a success coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) is open 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m., Monday-Friday, without an appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found here (https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency\_Grant\_Application.pdf).

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be contacted/notified through your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

This course will utilize a weekly Grading Template and a Lesson Journal to track student attendance, progress, goals, and lesson assignments. The Lesson Journal will be accessible online by both the professor and student. This journal will be a continuous resource for lesson notes and student observations.

In addition to weekly lessons, students will be evaluated by participation/performances in studio classes, juries, and student recitals.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

The objectives of this course pertain to the individual instruction as it relates to the saxophone. At the successful completion of this course students will be able to:

APPLIED SAXOPHONE

MUAP 1136 01

1. Demonstrate proper embouchure and breath support
2. Demonstrate basic concepts of tone and intonation
3. Demonstrate basic technical command of the instrument
4. Demonstrate basic concepts of musicality and literature of the saxophone

Course Outline or Schedule:

Lessons occur weekly for one hour for majors and 30 minutes for non-majors. Each week students are required to complete and submit a weekly Grading Template online.

Studio Class will be held each week on Thursday from 3:00-4:00pm. Attendance is required. Please notify the professor of any class conflicts. This time will be used for informal student performances and musical career development.

Jury dates will be announced at a later time. Each student is required to complete a jury.

Recitals should be scheduled and repertoire chosen as soon as possible and may be required depending on the degree plan.

Course Grading Information:

Lesson: 50%

Grading for lessons will be determined based upon consistency in preparation, improvement, and attendance each week.

Studio Attendance/Participation: 15%

Jury: 20%

Recital: 15%

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Regular and Punctual attendance is required for success in this course. Students will be expected to attend all lessons & studio classes. If a student will be absent for a legitimate reason, notify the professor at least 24 hours in advance via email.

Make-up lessons may be scheduled at the discretion of the professor. Students may also make-up any unexcused absences by completing a short research or recording project (to be assigned by the instructor if requested).

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

It is expected that students will be punctual, arrive to lessons prepared (instrument & music assembled), and an attitude that is receptive and respectful to the student and the professor.

Accommodations/ADA Statement

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. Instructors should not provide accommodations unless approved by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:
