Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

The McLennan Community College Wind Ensemble is a major ensemble that performs significant repertoire for wind and percussion instruments. The ensemble is comprised of talented students from across the campus who have demonstrated an outstanding level of musicianship through an audition procedure. The Wind Ensemble performs five concerts each academic year featuring new works as well as core repertoire for Winds and Percussion.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

PREPARATION

- Musical and mental preparation for each rehearsal is critical to establishing excellence in the ensemble. This is a minimum expectation.
- Ensemble Rehearsal is not meant to develop or practice individual technique; it is for addressing issues of ensemble problems (precision, intonation, etc.) and exploring musical possibilities of a work.
- Reference recordings and scores will be made available on D2L for you to deepen your understanding of the work as a whole.

SECTIONALS

- Periodically, musical issues will require outside section rehearsals which may be called by your section leader.
- Submit your finalized schedule and your phone number via email to your section leader.
- If needed email jconrad@mclennan.edu to secure a space.
- When possible, a director or a studio teacher will be glad to lead or coach sectionals

Course Outline or Schedule:

- The Wind Ensemble will meet in Ball Performing Arts Center 145 every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 1:00 – 3:00pm. Rehearsal will begin promptly at 1:00. Please arrive early and warm-up prior to rehearsal.
- A specific schedule for each rehearsal will be emailed in advance. Please check your email regularly and note whether you need to pick up new music prior to rehearsal.

Course Grading Information:

Your Final Grade will be determined by:

- Preparation of Music (prior to rehearsal)
- Degree of professionalism exhibited in rehearsals and performances. (i.e. attitude)
- Attendance and Promptness to Rehearsals and Performances.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

- Each unexcused absence from rehearsal will lower your final grade by one full letter grade. One unexcused rehearsal absence = B; two = C etc.
- An unexcused absence from a performance will result in an F for the entire semester and dismissal from the ensemble.
  - Each tardy accumulates so that 3 tardies = 1 unexcused absence.
- In case of absence, a substitute must be arranged to cover your part.

Note: Excused absences are defined as illness (with note from a physician), family emergency, a McLennan Community College related event or activity (with prior approval), and religious holidays. Courtesy mandates notifying the instructor in advance of an absence whenever possible.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

In order to maintain a focused learning environment it is required that cellular phones and tablets be in the off position. Only in the case of emergencies or unusual circumstances will exceptions be afforded.
