COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

INTRODUCTORY SOCIOLOGY

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Core Objectives for Social & Behavioral Sciences:

Courses in this category focus on the application of empirical and scientific methods that contribute to the understanding of what makes us human. Courses involve the exploration of behaviors and interactions among individuals, groups, institutions, and events, examining their impact on the individual, society, and culture.

- Critical Thinking -- to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Communications Skill -- to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
- Empirical & Quantitative Skills -- to include the manipulation and analysis of numerical data or observable facts resulting in informed conclusions
- Social Responsibility -- to include intercultural competency, civic knowledge, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Basic Course Structure: This course is organized into weekly units and assessments. Working ahead is permitted and encouraged.

Assessment	Description	Time & # of Attempts	Total #	Points for Each	Total Points
Quizzes	The quizzes correspond with each chapter and related materials – videos, slideshows, etc. You are expected to complete them by the deadline; most are administered online and some (exam reviews) are given in class. Unlimited attempts are permitted, and the highest score will be recorded. You are allowed two free make-ups for missing a quiz deadline.	30 minutes & unlimited attempts	15	20	300
Sociology Skills Assignments (SSKA)	The SSKA assignments are designed to develop and refine sociological skills through investigation and analysis. For these in-class assignments, you will work alone and/or in small groups. Each assignment is worth 20 points for a total of 300 points. You are allowed three free make-ups for a missed SSKA deadline. More details will be shared in class.	Varied & 1 attempt	15	20	300
Exams	Each exam follows a multiple-choice and true/false structure, and the 50 questions are based on the readings, videos, discussions, and quizzes. They are mandatory and will be administered and completed in class. Whichever exam you score highest on will count double – for that exam and it will replace your lowest exam grade. Scantron #882 is needed for each exam.	80 minutes & 1 attempt	4	100	400
TOTAL			34		1000

Late Work & Make-up Policies:

Frequently Asked Questions:

- 1) May I make up a missed exam? Yes. But if the reason is unexcused, you will lose points for having extra study time and missing the deadline. The number of points lost depends on how late you take the exam.
- 2) May I make up a missed quiz? Sometimes. You are allowed two free make-ups for missed quizzes. If you miss more than two quiz deadlines, you give up the unlimited attempts and may only attempt each one once.
- 3) May I submit a late Sociology Skills & Analysis assignment (SSKA)? Sometimes. You are allowed three free make-ups for missed SSKAs. If you miss more than three deadlines, you can submit them with point deducted for being late.
- 4) How do I get the notes if I miss class? Brightspace is your resource! The slideshows and videos of our class discussions and lectures will be posted to Brightspace.
