COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found here (https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf).

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be contacted/notified through your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Core Objectives for Social & Behavioral Sciences:

Courses in this category focus on the application of empirical and scientific methods that contribute to the understanding of what makes us human. Courses involve the exploration of behaviors and interactions among individuals, groups, institutions, and events, examining their impact on the individual, society, and culture.

- Critical Thinking -- to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Communications Skill -- to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
- Empirical & Quantitative Skills -- to include the manipulation and analysis of numerical data or observable facts resulting in informed conclusions
- Social Responsibility -- to include intercultural competency, civic knowledge, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities

MARRIAGE AND THE FAMILY

2301.02

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Basic Course Structure: This course is organized into units, topics, and assignments. You are expected to complete the readings, homework, research project, and exams as scheduled.

Assessment	Description	Time & # of Attempts	Total #	Points for Each	Total Points
Sociology Skills & Analysis Assignments (SSKA)	The SSKA assignments are designed to develop and refine sociological skills through investigation, analysis, writing, and discussion. These exercises vary in length and structure and are intended to improve your observational and reasoning skills. Some will be assigned and started in class, and others will be worked on outside of class. Specific details for each are in Brightspace.	varied & 1 attempt	TBA	20-100	700
Exams	Each exam follows a multiple-choice and true/false structure, and the questions are based on the readings, videos, discussions, and quizzes. They are mandatory and will be administered and completed online. Whichever exam you score highest on will count double – for that exam and it will replace your lowest exam grade.	60 minutes & 1 attempt	3	100	300
TOTAL POINTS					1000

Course Grading Information:

All points are summed then averaged to calculate your final grade.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

If you have a personal crisis or family issue that interferes with your commitment to this course, please talk with me about it. You can contact me in class, by phone (254.299.8494) or email (punger@mclennan.edu). I will work with you.

Frequently Asked Questions About Make-up Policies

- 1) May I make up a missed assignment? Yes! You are given three free extensions for any of the assignments. After that, you will be penalized for late work; the point loss will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and dependent upon how late it is submitted.
- 2) May I make up a missed exam? Yes! But, whatever the reason, you will points for having extra study time and taking it late; the points lost are assessed on how late you take the exam.
- 3) How do I get the notes if I miss class? Brightspace is your resource! The slideshows and videos of our class discussions and lectures will be posted to Brightspace after each class.

Attendance/Participation: Part of your responsibility for this course is to show up and participate in class discussions and activities. For a class that meets twice a week, MCC policy requires that you attend 75% of the time, which equates to no more than 7 absences. Attending via Zoom is considered being in class, as is viewing all of the lectures and materials online if you are a designated online only student.

Special Note: Absences for official McLennan events (athletics, music, theater, conferences, etc.) are considered excused. Students with these obligations are expected to communicate an upcoming absence before missing class.

Accommodations/ADA Statement

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. Instructors should not provide accommodations unless approved by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:
