NOTE: This is a 16-week online course.

COVID 19 Notice:

LEADERSHIP

BMGT 2309.87

Course Description:

Concepts of leadership and its relationship to management. Prepares the student with leadership and communication skills needed to inspire and influence. This is a capstone course that integrates knowledge from previous courses and provides the opportunity to apply management and leadership skills.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

Completion of or concurrent enrollment in BMGT 1327. Semester Hours 3 (3 lec.)

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

I've been teaching this course longer than any other at MCC, and the one thing I hear again and again each semester is that this class is "life-changing." It is NOT the instructor. I'm not even sure it's the content. It really is more about learning about yourself and the role you play in the world. You, essentially, will self-explore what leadership is and I will simply act as your facilitator. Effort, planning, organization, and not waiting until the last minute are the keys to an A in this class. Leadership is less about knowing what to do and more about doing what you know. In this class you will "do" leadership.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

This course is based on readings, discussions, reflections, presentations, & research.

1. It is imperative that you read all assignments before you attend class in person or virtually. Since everyone will be responsible for the discussion of this information, it will be very important that everyone is informed and ready to participate.

LEADERSHIP

2. Since this is an online class; most of the time, I will help manage online discussions using prompts. I expect discussion, questions, answers, and lots of participation. Join in the class discussions. Contribute to the success of the group. Ask questions; offer your relevant comments and ideas; however, remember that this is a leadership class. Your comments should be relevant and focused on leadership.

I expect everyone to participate in class. Participating gives you ownership in class, plus it will help you learn and remember the information. I will not ask a question, then turn around and answer it myself. Nor will I let one or two students in class answer all of the questions. The key is to read and attend all classes regularly, even virtually.

We will have guest speakers appear via Zoom and these speakers will be recorded for students to view them online asynchronously. However, the student who provided the speaker will be expected to attend the Zoom presentation and introduce the speaker as well as remain during the speaker's presentation. The student hired to perform the End of Semester Party Planner/Timekeeper job will also be expected to attend the speakers' presentations via Zoom.

3. There are several different opportunities to earn points in this class, and for the most part, it will be your choice in how to do so. There are a few required assignments, and the rest you will be able to decide on by yourself. It will be up to you to keep up with your points and where you stand in class. I will assist you in doing this, but it is your responsibility. It is imperative that you acquire points early in the class. You do not want to be in the position at the end of the semester where you have to do everything offered in order to pass the course. You will have a lot of FREEDOM and RESPONSIBILITY in this course.
4. There will be 3 required Zoom meetings for this course—once at the beginning of the semester, once in the middle, and once at the end—See Course Schedule. You can still pass this class even if you don't attend a single Zoom class; however, it is STRONGLY encouraged that you attend these classes for the best opportunity for success and to get out of it what it is designed to deliver! Please, please, please plan to attend these online Zoom meetings. Some opportunities for points are only available if you attend...

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

The objectives of this course are that you:

1. Be given the opportunity for each student to demonstrate leadership.
 2. Learn more about your own beliefs, values, and goals.
 3. Demonstrate the process by which leadership emerges and shifts as tasks are identified and assumed.
 4. Demonstrate responsibility by taking control of assignments.

5. Learn various leadership styles through text material, presentations, guest speakers, and discussions.
6. Demonstrate your writing, speaking, and critical-thinking skills.

Course Outline or Schedule:

See course schedule.

Course Grading Information:

Assignment Opportunities and Points—some of these are required, while most of these are optional. ALL WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS MUST BE TYPED (DOUBLE SPACED)—see example provided in Orientation section of Brightspace—unless otherwise specified.

Almost all assignments will have a direct correlation to the 4 Orders found in your ADHD Leadership text. Assignments will be submitted via assignment links in Brightspace. You cannot complete part of the assignment, turn it in, and expect to turn in the second part of the assignment at a later date. With ONE exception, anything not turned in by the required due date will not be accepted. Brightspace will have Due Dates for all assignments.

If you do a proposal, worth 10 points, then you do not do the assignment the proposal was written for, you will not receive the 10 proposal points.

Everyone is required to do ONE ORAL ASSIGNMENT & ONE PRESENTATION. You get to select which oral assignment you do. I'm fairly flexible here. The required oral will come at the end of the semester and can be about any assignment that meant a great deal to you. Sharing your journals and the oral PowerPoint theory presentation obviously do not qualify. Students can use Yuja to record their oral presentations.

When you click on an assignment in Brightspace, the rubric for each assignment will be identified so that you know exactly what is expected of you in order to earn the full points.

Early Points

It is in your best interest to “get in” points early in the semester. The schedule is designed to be front-end loaded as much as possible. If you have accumulated 350 points by Sunday October 3 by 11:59 p.m., you will receive 20 bonus points. If you have accumulated 650 points by Sunday October 17 by 11:59 p.m., you will receive 20 points. If you have accumulated 950 points by Sunday October 31 at 11:59 p.m., you will receive 20 points. So, you have the opportunity to receive 60 bonus points. No other bonus points will be given. No curve will be given. Keep in mind your speaker may cancel, and that could be the last 20 points you needed to get to 1500. Plan on earning more than you need to be safe. You may turn in assignments early; however, even if you have turned in enough points to earn an A, you are expected to continue coming to class. Missing classes after you have obtained an A, will count against your attendance and can result in you being dropped from this class.

Point Loss

If you sign up for an opportunity, which is limited (provide speaker; lead discussion after speaker, summary of speaker evaluations), and you do not complete the assignment, you will not receive those points. If you need to trade dates, you will need to see the person who is overseeing the schedule. If you let us know well ahead of the date, so that changes can be made, we can likely adjust our schedule. If you wait until the day of class and are not prepared, you will lose your ability to earn those points at a later date.

If you miss turning in a required assignment, you will receive a zero. The required assignments are weighted more heavily to encourage you to complete them. If you miss a required assignment, then you must do more optional assignments to offset the lost points.

Point Structure

There are LOTS of points available. You will not have to do all of the assignments. With the exception of the ones marked required, you will have a choice on what you do to earn the grade you want. If you only do what is required, the most points you can accumulate is 1170, which is a low C.

- A = 1500 points
- B = 1334-1499 points
- C = 1167-1333 points
- D = 1000-1166 points
- F = 0-999 points

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Unforeseen events do come up; however, how often would your boss let you forget something for work, come late, leave early, not get something to him/her, before you are fired?

There will be a lot of work to turn in on different days. There will be some days everyone turns something in, and some days only a few people turn in work. You will have a detailed calendar which shows what is due on certain days. You will also have assignments in Brightspace with the Due Dates clearly identified. It will be up to you to keep up with your plans and schedule of what you are going to turn in. Every week all work will be turned in no later than Sunday night. Since assignments and quizzes will be done in Brightspace, you have until 11:59 p.m. on Sunday evening to have all your week's assignments submitted.

You will have ONE PASS to turn in assignments late without penalty. Regardless of reason, you may turn in ONE DAY'S WORK one week late and it will not be counted late. ONE TIME, ONE WEEK LATE. NOTHING ELSE WILL BE ACCEPTED LATE FOR ANY REASON. You will need to make a request to me via email to use your 1 Pass and I will inform you of how to submit your work late. Do not plan on "taking" this one time to turn in something late, because if something REALLY comes up later and you have something you need to turn in late, it will not be accepted. You will need to be very aware of the point value of all of the assignments. This 1 oops does NOT include your ADHD quizzes, Leadership tests, or self-assessments—only assignments.

All work is due at 11:59 PM on the assigned Due Date, unless otherwise indicated. There are too many assignments and too many people to accept late work. If you miss turning something in, you will need to “catch up” on those points with later assignments.

Keep in mind that some of the above opportunities have to be signed up for, and some of the above assignments require proposals. If you do not do the proposal, you will not be able to do an assignment requiring a proposal. If you don’t turn in work at the beginning of the semester, because you are planning on “catching up” at the end of the semester, there may not be enough opportunities to catch up. Be very aware of the number of points you have. If you wait too long to do work, you might be in a hole you cannot get out of by the end of the semester. DO NOT PROCRASTINATE!

Attendance

It is MCC’s policy that all students must be present for 75% or more of the course. For online courses, attendance is measured by your online required quizzes. Please know that you may be dropped if you fail to:

- (1) Complete the online orientation by the due date; or
- (2) Submit, completely and on time, any two weeks of activities

If you do not complete the online orientation by the due date, you will be dropped from the course as “never attended.” You may withdraw from the course and request a grade of “W” by the student-initiated drop date. If you fail to uphold the requirements of this policy, you will receive the grade earned at the end of the semester.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the professor, prompt and regular attendance—even virtual, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the educational opportunity. That means please demonstrate respect to all who participate in this learning environment at all times and in each interaction.

Please know that I read my email several times during the day; however, if you send me an email at 11 PM with a question you need answered before the class tomorrow I might not see it. I do not always read email on the weekends. Do not expect instantaneous responses from me via email. Additionally, although I provide you with my personal cell phone number, I am not always immediately able to respond. Please be kind and patient.

LEADERSHIP

Lastly, integrity is critical in the business world and in academia. Cheating of any kind will not be tolerated. A zero will be given for the first instance of cheating; failure in the course will result from any additional instance. I will also escalate the matter on the second instance of cheating. This is particularly true with plagiarism. Plagiarism.org (2017) defined plagiarism this way:

1. turning in someone else's work as your own
2. copying words or ideas from someone else without giving credit
3. failing to put a quotation in quotation marks
4. giving incorrect information about the source of a quotation
5. changing words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving credit
6. copying so many words or ideas from a source that it makes up the majority of your work, whether you give credit or not
