100%

GRADING:

The following grading guidelines will prevail for all tests and written assignments.

100 - 90 = A

89 - 80 = B

79 - 70 = C

69 - 60 = D

59 - 00 = F

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

A student is required to take the exam on the day and time it is scheduled. Any make-up exam/s will be given the week before finals. The only exception to this rule is if the student makes arrangements before the exam is given and/or the student has documentation of an emergency.

- a. The type of make-up examination will be at the discretion of the instructor.
- b. Failure to take the make-up examination during the week before finals will result in the grade of O (zero) for the missed exam.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

It is the student's responsibility to read the General Conduct Responsibility Policy in the Highlander Guide (MCC Student Handbook) and the Mental Health Handbook. Any breeches of conduct will result in disciplinary action.

Disturbances in the classroom, which include talking during class, will not be tolerated.

1. Students disturbing the class will be requested to leave the classroom. Sleeping in the classroom is a disturbance!
2. Tardiness is a disturbance! Classes will begin on time. The door for entry to the class room will be closed and locked within 5 minutes after the scheduled start to class. If you arrive and find the door to the class room locked do not knock on the door. When convenient for the instructor, the instructor may allow entry. Students knowing in advance that they may be tardy should contact the instructor to make arrangements.
3. Students may leave the class room to address personal urgencies once class has begun but re-entry will be at the discretion and convenience of the instructor.
4. Continued disregard for classroom decorum will result in the student being dropped from the class rolls.

5. Caps, hats, and sunglasses will not be worn in the classroom. Sunglasses that are medically required may be worn.
 6. Cheating during an exam or written assignment will result in the student being given a FAILURE (F) for the course, and dropped from the class rolls.

CELL PHONE POLICY: (This policy will be strictly enforced)

- A. All students with cell phones will be required to place their cell phone on silent before entering the classroom. Text messaging is not allowed in the classroom.
- B. If a student receives an emergency call during class and he or she needs to answer the call:
 1. Quietly leave the classroom before answering the call.
 2. After completing their phone call students at the discretion of the instructor may be allowed to quietly enter the classroom in a manner that will not disturb the instructor or other students.
- C. First violation of the policy will result in the student not being able to have their cell phone activated during class.
- D. Second violation of the policy, the student will have 5 points deducted from their final grade point average.

Dress Policy

Students of the college, while on campus and/or participating in any function or activity of the college, are expected to meet acceptable standards of dress and personal hygiene.

A student's dress or personal hygiene shall be considered unacceptable if it inhibits or interferes with the educational responsibility of the college community or if it disrupts the administrative functions of the college, including social-educational activities.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/Faculty%20and%20Staff%20Commons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit www.mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

disabilities@mclennan.edu
