Methods of Teaching and Learning:

A variety of methods will be used in teaching United States History I including videos/lecture, discussion, written assignments, outside readings, and projects. These measures will assess critical thinking, communication, social responsibility, and personal responsibility.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Critical Thinking: Through lecture and a variety of objective strategies, students will be assessed on critical thinking ability. Objective examinations will specifically be used to assess critical thinking. Other assessment vehicles may include essays, portfolios, primary source objective exams, and presentations.

Communication: Measures such as objective tests, written assignments, discussions, portfolios and presentations may be used to measure the student's ability to communicate.

Social Responsibility: Because the teaching of history involves evoking examples of successes and failures in social responsibility, and the continual importance of this issue politically and personally today, social responsibility naturally is emphasized. Assessment measures may include readings, primary document exams, discussions, projects and essays.

Personal Responsibility: Because the teaching of history also involves evoking examples of successes and failures in personal responsibility, and the consequences that personal choices can have, personal responsibility is also naturally emphasized. Assessment measures may include participation, readings, primary document exams, discussions, projects and essays.

Types of Coursework and Grading

Course Orientation: In here you will find the course requirements checklist-an assignment completed at the beginning of the course to confirm your understanding.

Readings/Presentation Quizzes and notes: Completion of reading and lecture assignments from a combination of textbooks and video. Then you will show retention by completing a short quiz.

Text Analysis: After reviewing a Primary Source you will answer a few questions analyzing the content. These are usually located within your textbook and page numbers will be provided.

Discussion Boards: You will provide a written response and at least one 50-word response to a classmate.

Museum or National Park Proposal/Visit: During this course you will visit a National park either virtually (online tour) or physically and complete a report.

Projects: Students will participate in projects that further comprehension, critical thinking, and communication.

Course Grading Information:

This course calculates your grade based on a point system. You will earn points with each assignment. At the end of the course if you have earned 900 points or more you will have earned an A.

A= 900-1000

B= 800-899

C= 700-799

D= 600-699

F= Below 600

Plagiarism / Academic Dishonesty Policy:

Students found to be guilty of acts of academic dishonesty are subject to college policy as found in <http://www.mclennan.edu/students/hguide/gen.html>. These acts include cheating and plagiarism. Plagiarism is defined and claiming someone else's ideas or words as your own. In this class, students are subject to the following discipline: First offense warrants failing grade on the assignment (zero) and second offense, failing grade for the course.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Makeup exams are at the discretion of the instructor. Only three categories apply: personal illness, family emergency, and/or official school business. Make-ups are not allowed for the final exam.

Attendance: It is required. MCC's catalog policy states that students who miss in excess of 25% of class meetings will be dropped from the course. MCC policy requires you be removed from the class if you have more than four (4) unexcused absences. It is your responsibility to keep track of your absences. The last day for student-initiated withdrawal is March 27, 2020 and you will receive a "W". Please see your student handbook (The Highlander Guide).

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/Faculty%20and%20Staff%20Commons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit www.mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

disabilities@mclennan.edu
