Office Phone Number: 254-299-8106

Office Location: MTA 112

Office/Teacher Conference Hours: My schedule is often fluid during the week so if you will contact me via email I will be happy to arrange a time to meet you at my campus office at your convenience.

I check my MCC email each morning and again each evening every day. I also use MCC email to send announcements pertaining to the class and to contact individual students. It is absolutely essential that you use and check your MCC student email account often. I will not contact you via private email accounts.

Required Text & Materials:

Title: Listen to This

Author: Mark Evan Bonds

Edition: 4th

Publisher: Pearson Revel

ISBN: Not needed – the digital text was included in the price of the course and the access portal is already located inside the Brightspace course shell.

MCC Bookstore Website: <http://www.mclennan.edu/bookstore/>

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

We will use a combination of readings and listening examples all assessed with quizzes that are embedded in the digital text “Listen to This.” In addition there will be weekly discussion topic assignments in Brightspace and a video or two.

There is a short course Orientation Module contained in Brightspace to be completed during the first week of class. The orientation material will answer most of the most commonly asked question regarding the course. However, if you have any additional questions or require additional clarification on anything pertaining to the course please do not hesitate to email me directly. I am here for you and there are no silly questions.

Much of what you will be doing in this course involves reading and listening from REVEL: Listen to This. Quizzes over the reading and listening will also be done inside REVEL. A link for accessing REVEL: Listen to This is already embedded in the Brightspace course shell. Use this entry point when setting up your REVEL account and working in the course.

In addition, there are weekly Discussion Forums contained in the “Discussions” area of Brightspace and a few video assignments that will be available through the weekly announcements.

Students may submit up to two extra credit essays to supplement your grade. Instructions for the extra credit exercises are available in Brightspace. Additional recital/concert attendance can count as extra credit.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

The course objectives are:

To learn about the basic elements that make up all music

To learn how to listen to music actively

To learn about the historical evolution of music, including major composers and key repertoire

To learn to think and write critically about music

Course Outline or Schedule:

The detailed, day-by-day calendar that follows is also provided in the Brightspace course shell.

I strongly recommend that each student print a hard copy of the course calendar as posted in the Brightspace Content menu or at least download it to your computer or tablet and keep it handy when working in this course.

Calendar of Assignments

Music Appreciation 1306 _ 8-week schedule (Online)

What follows is a week-by-week, due date-by-due date, assignment-by-assignment breakdown of all work required of you as a student in this course. I recommend that you download this document to whichever device you will be working on and refer to it often to make sure you are on track to finish all assignments on time. You may even want to print a hard copy and physically check off each assignment as you go. Please observe the following:

- 1) There are two due dates each week, each with its own set of assignments.
 - A) The first due date is at 8:00am on Thursday of each week. This is a “soft” due date, meaning that I recommend that you get the assignments listed for this date done by this time. However, I will accept these assignments until the second, end of week due date.
 - B) The second due date is at 8:00am on the Monday immediately following each week. This is the “hard” due date, meaning that all work listed for the previous week must be submitted by this date/time.
The two due dates are needed to accommodate the number of Revel chapters assigned each week (basically 16-week calendar crammed into 8 weeks).

All you need to remember is that everything for each week is due on the following Monday at 8am.

- C) If you fail to get the work finished by the Monday due date you should email me at pkelly@mclennan.edu ASAP and explain why the work was not completed. I can then work with you to get caught up.
Note: Do not leave zeros in the gradebook. Zeros will drag your average down quickly and are hard to overcome even if you do well on other assignments. I want you to succeed in this course and will do all I can to help you make that happen, but you must communicate with me and let me know you are trying.

- D) Each week's discussion topic must be completed by the Monday at 8:00am due date. You cannot make up a discussion topic once the due date has passed and the forum has closed.

There are extra credit assignments that can be done to replace a missing discussion topic grade. These are found under Extra Credit on the Brightspace content menu.

- E) The exception to all of this is the last week (Week 7) which has only one "hard" due date at 8:00am on Monday, October 11th. All work must be completed by this final due date (this includes the Week 7 Discussion Topic, Recital Reviews, and any Extra Credit).

Course Grading Information:

A running course grade percentage will appear in each student's Brightspace grade book. This is accessible by clicking "Assessments" on the Brightspace tool bar and choosing "Grades" from the dropdown menu.

REVEL-based assignments from Listen to This make up 55% of the final grade in this course. I will be moving those grades manually from the Revel gradebook to Brightspace after each Monday due date has passed.

Discussion forums make up 20% of the final grade in this class.

*Weekly discussion forums will be graded within 48 hours of their respective due dates passing and will appear as individual grade items in the Brightspace grade book.

Assigned videos and their quizzes make up 10% of the final grade in this class.

Students are required to attend one recital or concert and submit a typed review. The required recital attendance makes up 10% of the final grade. COVID has presented us with opportunities to check out recitals online, either as Youtube premiers or as streaming content from Baylor.

*Approved recitals and concerts at both MCC and at Baylor will be posted to calendars found under the Recital tab in the Brightspace content menu. Any recital or concert events not listed must be approved by Mr. Kelly beforehand.

Grading Summary

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

If you fall behind it is imperative that you contact me ASAP so I can help you catch up.

Discussion Topics MUST BE COMPLETED ON TIME to receive credit. If you get a Discussion Topic zero, it can only be replaced with extra credit. These Eight-Week courses are fast and furious so try not to fall too far behind or you may get overwhelmed and run out of time.

You are welcome to work ahead in the Revel text but try not to fall behind.

Attendance will be taken once a week in the form of participation in the weekly discussion topics. Attendance will be kept in Brightspace and can be accessed by students by clicking “Assessments” on the Brightspace tool bar and choosing “Attendance” from the drop-down menu.

I will not drop anyone for poor attendance numbers without first contacting them to find out what their intentions are. You can help me by contacting me immediately if you must miss a due date so I can know you are still working in the course and intend to continue. Again, I am willing to help you get caught up should you fall behind but you need to stay in contact with me so we can work together.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

The main area this comes into play is on the discussion board forums. I will be monitoring these discussions closely as well as participating in the topic discussions and commenting on students’ posts. Disrespectful discourse or lewd language will not be tolerated. * Violating this code may result in you being dropped from the course.

 Some of the discussion forums will require that you include an active link to or embed some music you choose from Youtube. Occasionally these examples may include course language or otherwise suggestive content. We are all adults here. Just try to use common sense. Don't go looking for the most vulgar example you can find just to shock or offend others.*
