PHED - 1121 - XX

ROBERT AMMON

NOTE: This is a 16-week course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals including your safety. We will continue to monitor the evolving situation with COVID 19 and adjust our safety guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. Please make sure to consult your faculty and the MCC website on any changes to these guidelines.

GOLF I

PHED 1121 XX

Course Description:

Emphasizes skills and techniques necessary for the beginner to learn putting, chipping, and the use of irons and woods. Introduces history, rules, terms, etiquette, equipment, and golf course procedures necessary to be able to play a round of golf successfully. Semester Hours 1 (3 activity)

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

None

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

The student will be able to explain multiple strategies for a competitive round of golf.

The student will demonstrate core chipping skills related to lies near the green. The student will demonstrate core skills for wood and iron shots. The student will develop an attitude that appreciates the benefit of golf as a physical activity. Students will understand the physical activity value of golf in multiple situations: walking, pulling a bag or riding in a golf cart. Students will be able to explain how to properly prepare for a round of golf in relation to: fitness, weather, nutrition and positive thinking. Students will learn proper stretching before, during and after play. The student will be able to plan a productive schedule incorporating the key aspects of the game of golf. Understand how to assess a round of golf after play and plan a strategy for improvement. Learn how to use limited time to focus on the key areas of improvement. Students will understand and demonstrate how to play a round of golf using USGA rules and sportsmanship.

I. Introduction

PHED 1121 is designed to increase golf skills of men and women students. Stress will be placed on the fundamental skills' reviewing rules, etiquette, terms, equipment, club repair. Emphasis will also be placed on the mental aspects of the game, mechanical analysis of the golf swing, swing theory and methods, strategy and actual golf course play.

II. Rationale

Because of the popularity of golf and its complexity, it is felt that those students who wish to perfect, in so far as possible, their basic skills and gain experience in course play, the opportunity should be offered to them.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities.
