Methods of Teaching and Learning:

As an internet course, this course will be mostly self-taught (asynchronous.) I have tried discussion board in the past but do not feel it adds enough to the course to make it worth all of the extra hours students must put in. MyEconLab is a software package sold by Pearson and is REQUIRED for the course. You must pay for the software or I will not grade your work. You will have work due each week labeled Homework, Quiz, and Chapter Test. You have three tries on each homework to get to 100%, two tries on the quiz, and one chance on the chapter test. Utilize the “Ask the Professor” tab to contact me about specific questions. It will send me your exact problem and you can ask for help on a particular point that is troubling you. It is a great tool, probably the single best I have seen in online software in 12+ years teaching as it most closely approximates students asking me questions in class. To learn the material, I recommend the following:

1. Read the chapter and watch any videos inside the text.
2. Try the homework and try to understand why you missed something on your own.
3. Try the homework again. If you don't get 100%, email me with specific questions so I can help.
4. Take your third try on the homework. If you don't get 100%, email me so I can help.
5. Take your first attempt on the quiz. Email if you don't get 100%.
6. After you second attempt, email me with any final questions.
7. Take the chapter test.
8. Relax, breath, and then go on to the next chapter.

Bottom line for learning: try it yourself first and really try to figure out why you missed something, then email me until I can explain it properly.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

- A. The primary objective of this course will be to help students develop a thorough understanding of the principles of economics that apply to the economic system as a whole.
- B. Specific Learning Objectives Successful completion of this course should enable students to:

1. Explain the role of scarcity, specialization, opportunity cost and cost/benefit analysis in economic decision-making.
2. Identify the determinants of supply and demand; demonstrate the impact of shifts in both market supply and demand curves on equilibrium price and output.
3. Define and measure national income and rates of unemployment and inflation.
4. Identify the phases of the business cycle and the problems caused by cyclical fluctuations in the market economy.
5. Define money and the money supply; describe the process of money creation by the banking system and the role of the central bank.
6. Construct the aggregate demand and aggregate supply model of the macro economy and use it to illustrate macroeconomic problems and potential monetary and fiscal policy solutions.
7. Explain the mechanics and institutions of international trade and their impact on the macro economy.
8. Define economic growth and identify sources of economic growth.

C. Workplace Competencies

1. Resources: Identifies, organizes, plans, and allocates resources

Students in ECON 2301/2302 have to be able to appropriately allocate their time in order to complete class assignments in a timely fashion. They must be able to budget their time and perform class-related activities through a ranking process which allows them to meet self-determined goals. Group assignments help students learn how to distribute the work among the members according to skills and at the same time help students learn how to evaluate one another's work.

2. Interpersonal: Works with others

Students in ECON 2301/2302 at times work together in groups. Many times these groups are randomly selected, thus giving the students an opportunity to interact with different types of students. Students must learn to use leadership skills, learning skills, negotiating skills, and evaluating skills as they work together to accomplish a common goal.

3. Information: Acquires and uses information

Students in ECON 2301/2302 must acquire the proper information in order to successfully complete the course. Sources include the text, the Wall Street Journal, current news and the internet. They must be able to evaluate what information is necessary and pertinent to solve questions and problems relating to economic issues. They must be able to organize this information in a logical and precise manner to order to communicate their responses appropriately.

4. Systems: Understands complex inter-relationships

Students in ECON 2301/2302 must be able to understand the concept and the operation of various economic systems, especially capitalism, as this represents the foundation of these courses. Students must become familiar with various types of systems and be able to evaluate these and demonstrate an understanding of government economic policies.

5. Technology: Works with a variety of technologies

Students in ECON 2301/2302 must be aware of the impact of changing technology upon the performance of economic systems. Critical areas include communications and computer technologies.

D. Foundation Skills1. Basic Skills--Reading, Writing, Math, Listening, Speaking

Students in ECON 2301/2302 are required to complete text, Wall Street Journal, and internet assignments as well as listen and participate in classroom discussions. Students are required to perform mathematical calculations to prepare written summaries and reports on economic issues.

2. Thinking Skills--Creative thinking, problem solving, visualizing relationships, reasoning and learning

Students in ECON 2301/2302 are required to complete exercises and problems in the text, study guide and tutorials which involve the use and development of conceptualizing and visualizing skills, problem solving skills, and decision making skills. Economics issues tend to involve complex relationships which challenge and develop students intellectual skills.

3. Personal Qualities--Responsibility, sociability, self-management, integrity, honesty

Students in ECON 2301/2302 are required to develop and demonstrate self-management and responsibility in completing assignments on time and in good form. Group projects encourage teamwork and the development of the social skills necessary to be successful in the business world.

Course Outline or Schedule:

As this course is online, scheduling to fit everyone's life is going to be difficult, if not impossible. There is a lot of material to cover in a short amount of time so you MUST be organized and working on at least one chapter per week to stay up.

All work is due at 11 p.m. on Wednesday night. The final exam is due on Wednesday December 8th at 11 p.m. so I can get grades in on time. There is no work due the first week as it usually takes everyone a bit of time to get organized. To be counted present for each week, you must do some work due that week. If you are absent 5 weeks, you will be automatically be dropped from the course for attendance. Everything is open day 1 so you can get ahead as far as you would like but the due dates are set. To be counted present in week 1, you must complete the Orientation Quiz by the due date.

Date	Materials Due at 11 p.m. on Wednesdays
Week 1	Nothing Due
Week 2	Orientation Quiz, Get Started Homework, Get Started Quiz
Week 3	Chapter 1 Homework, Chapter 1 Quiz, and Chapter 1 Test
Week 4	Chapters 2 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 5	Chapters 3 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 6	Chapters 4 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 7	Chapters 5 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 8	Chapters 6 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 9	Chapters 7 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 10	Chapters 8 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 11	Chapters 9 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 12	Chapters 10 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 13	Chapters 11 Quiz, Homework, and Test

Week 14	Chapters 12 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 15	Chapters 13 Quiz, Homework, and Test
Week 16	Comprehensive Final Exam must be completed by Wednesday at 11 p.m.

Course Grading Information:

There will be something due each week except for week 1 so please get going early each week. All work will be done in MyEconLab.

NOTE: Pearson is great in many ways EXCEPT for how it calculates your grade. Do not rely on the gradebook in Pearson to calculate your grade. You must use the below system to calculate your grade.

Chapter Homework	35%
Chapter Quizzes	35%
Chapter Tests	20%
Final Exam	10%
Total	100%

The class grading scale is as follows:

A	90% and above
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	Below 60%

The grade ranges are guaranteed upward, but may be curved downward. For example, I may lower the B range from 80% - 89% down to 77% - 89%. However, I will never raise it up to something like 82% - 89%. To qualify for this curve, you MUST do all available work; skipping one item disqualifies you. The curve is designed to reward those who have given it their all!

Chapter Homework, Quizzes, and Tests

The homework, quizzes, and tests are the bulk of the course and will really help you understand the materials. Do the Study Guide first, then the homework. Try to understand why you missed anything prior to moving on to the quiz. There is a button in the bottom left titled “Help Me Solve This”. It walks you through the problem and is really helpful. When you are satisfied with your knowledge, move on to the chapter test. If you are working ahead on the homework and quizzes, then be sure to review them and your Study Guide prior to moving to the test!

You have to take the orientation quiz but I will use these points as bonus in the Chapter Quiz grade so it is in your grade’s best interest to score 100%. It will also help you understand how the course works.

Bonus Opportunities

I am not a fan of curves. You don’t learn anything new from them and they are usually overly generous because of people who eventually drop the course. As such, there are several bonus opportunities in the class but you have to earn them. The sections titled Orientation Quiz, Getting Started Homework, and Getting Started Quiz are bonus opportunities which are due at the end of the second week of the semester. The Orientation Quiz will also count as a bonus and will go towards your chapter test grade. You can take it as many times as you wish. I may add a module or two throughout the semester but they would be bonus opportunities only.

Final Exam

The final exam is comprehensive meaning it will cover all of the semester. The questions will be randomly drawn from the same pools that the chapter tests come from. Expect the final exam to be difficult but know that I will definitely curve it if necessary! The final exam will be the week of regular finals.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Late and make-up work will only be accepted if the absence was due to a School recognized and documented reason. Regular and punctual attendance is expected of all students in accordance with the school's attendance policy. As this is an online course, attendance will be taken by your submittal of work each week. If you submit at least one item in a week, you will be shown as having attended. Any student who misses four weeks will be dropped automatically.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

“Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity.” As this is an online course, my expectations are simple: do YOUR work on time, be respectful in your emails to me, and be sure to ask for help when you need it. Any student caught cheating will receive a zero in the course and dropped with an F. This applies to anyone caught copying AND the person allowing the copying. The class is designed for you to do well so do it yourself.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit www.mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

disabilities@mclennan.edu

Room 319, Student Services Center

Title IX:

We care about your safety, and value an environment where students and instructors can successfully teach and learn together. If you or someone you know experiences unwelcomed behavior, we are here to help. Individuals who would like to report an incident of sexual misconduct are encouraged to immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator at titleix@mclennan.edu or by calling Dr. Drew Canham (Chief of Staff for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion/Title IX) at (254) 299-8645. Individuals also may contact the MCC Police Department at 299-8911 or the MCC Student Counseling Center at MCC at (254) 299-8210. The MCC Student Counseling Center is a confidential resource for students. Any student or employee may report sexual harassment anonymously by visiting <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/mclennan/>.

Go to McLennan's Title IX webpage at www.mclennan.edu/titleix/. It contains more information about definitions, reporting, confidentiality, resources, and what to do if you or someone you know is a victim of sexual misconduct, gender-based violence or the crimes of rape, acquaintance rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence.

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/Faculty-and-Staff-Commons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to www.mclennan.edu/student-email.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.
