Course Description:

EDUC 1300 – Learning Framework:

A study of the a) research and theory in the psychology of learning, cognition, and motivation; b) factors that impact learning; and c), application of learning strategies. Theoretical models of strategic learning, cognition, and motivation serve as the conceptual basis for the introduction of college-level student academic strategies. Students use assessment instruments (e.g., learning inventories) to help them identify their own strengths and weaknesses as strategic learners.

Students are ultimately expected to integrate and apply the learning skills discussed across their own academic programs and become effective and efficient learners. Students developing these skills should be able to continually draw from the theoretical models they have learned.

Course Grading Information:

Your grades are weighted per the assignment category. A weighted score is the average of a set of grades, where each set carries a different amount of importance. For example, as you can see by the chart below, the core activities make up 30% of your grade versus the discussion boards which are worth 10%. This means that you could do all your discussion boards, but that 100% would not be worth even some of your core activities being completed.

Assignment Category	Points
Quizzes (4@ 20)	280
Learn Smart Chapter Readings (13@10)	130
Discussion Boards (4@20)	80
Connect Activities (10 @ 10)	100
Core Activities (6@35)	210
Nearpod Assignments (11@15)	165
Final Exam	35
Total	1000

Grading Scale:

Letter Grade	A	B	C	D	F
Total Points	1000 – 900	899 – 800	799 – 700	699 – 600	59 or Below

While honest discussion and debate of topics is expected and encouraged, such interactions should not involve aggressive, derogatory, or involve hostile behaviors (verbal or otherwise). The instructor reserves the right to act to protect the decorum of the learning environment and the image of MCC.

If you are using Zoom to meet with the professor and/or other students, please ensure that you are dressed appropriately and are in a location where you can focus on your responsibilities as a student. Example: It is not appropriate to attend a Zoom class while laying in bed and/or half dressed. Please be respectful of others and mute yourself if background noise will be a problem.
