INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY

SOCI 1301.C87

Course Description:

The scientific study of human society, including ways in which groups, social institutions, and individuals affect each other. Causes of social stability and social change are explored through the application of various theoretical perspectives, key concepts, and related research methods of sociology. Analysis of social issues in their institutional context may include topics such as social stratification, gender, race/ethnicity, and deviance.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites: None

Instructor Recommendations:

- Review weekly online folders to keep up with work
- Review course policies in the syllabus

Instructor Course Objectives:

- ✓ To understand the basic nature of Sociology – IT IS ALL ABOUT YOU AND THE WORLD AROUND YOU!
- ✓ To understand the various dimensions in which we use Sociological concepts to understand the world around us: Family, Culture, Race, Social Interaction, Social Class, Gender, Deviance, Etc.
- ✓ To learn what theoretical foundations contributed to the development of Sociology
- ✓ To understand what types of methodologies are utilized to measure Sociological concepts on a quantitative and/or qualitative level and how those results impact us
- ✓ And finally, to leave my class and retain the information you learn. I personally recognize that it is my job to teach you and I will work with you every step of the way to ensure you get a well-rounded understanding of Sociology.

Current/Total Possible = .87 = Grade 87 Example

Discussion Work:

Discussions will not be an opinion opportunity without merit. You will be expected to read and watch all module material and then synthesize your answer from the material. You will then answer the discussion prompt and utilize sources that show what you are basing your ideas/feedback on. You may cite sources from class or use other academic sources outside of class. You will also interact with other classmates. These interactions will be expected to be of substance. Main posts will be due by Friday of the assigned week with classmate posts due by Sunday (with exception of week 5).

- Main post to be 150+ words
- Classmate posts to be 75+ words
- Answer all probes
- Synthesize material
- Utilize sources

No makeups on discussions*

10-Minute Topic Work:

This will be like a journal. Each time one is assigned, you will write about the topic provided in relation to what has been learned in class.

- 10 minutes of writing
- At least ½ page of writing
- Will be assessed on how the writing relates to topic
- Grammar evaluated

No makeups on topic submissions*

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Missed exams are made up at the end of the semester at the discretion of the professor. No late work accepted for discussions or 10-minute topic papers.*

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Describe the behaviors students are expected to demonstrate in class, lab, clinical, including dress policy and reference to the General Conduct Policy in the Highlander Guide. For example, "Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity."

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy regarding college email, which can be found at <https://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/student-email/>.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

You can find help on the McLennan website about connecting your McLennan email account to your mobile device:

- Email Setup for iPhones and iPads
- Email Setup for Androids

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

For more helpful information about technology at MCC, go to MCC's Tech Support Cheat Sheet or email helpdesk@mclennan.edu.
