Methods of Teaching and Learning:

This course uses video tutorials, video and written discussion board entries, online reading, writing, listening, and speaking activities, online quizzes, online module tests, one cultural research project, and two one-on-one oral interviews with the instructor via Zoom.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

This course aims to develop all four aspects of communication in the Spanish language: listening, speaking, reading and writing. Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Engage in conversations using level-appropriate grammatical structures including narrating events that take place in the present and producing questions and responses on a variety of topics dealing with everyday life.
2. Demonstrate understanding of level-appropriate spoken Spanish.
3. Write simple sentences and organize them into short paragraphs.
4. Read and comprehend level-appropriate texts.
5. Identify and discuss traditions, customs and values of the Hispanic world.
6. Compare and contrast the traditions, customs and values of the Hispanic world with characteristics of their own culture.

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board requires that all courses in the Foundational Component area of Language, Philosophy, and Culture teach these Core Objectives:

- Critical Thinking Skills (CT): “to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.”
- Communication Skills (COMM): “to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.”

The professor reserves the right to make changes to this schedule and will notify the class prior to making any change via MCC email. Note that all assignments are due by 11:59pm CST on the given due date, except the discussion boards which are due at 9pm CST. The one place to see all deadlines is the following course outline in the syllabus:

Course Grading Information:

The grade for this course will come from the following components: one cultural presentation, three online tests, two oral exams/interviews, five discussion board posts and replies in Brightspace, eleven Lumen/Waymaker study plans and quizzes, and attendance and participation. Every week you will receive oral and/or written feedback from the professor on Brightspace and through Lumen/Waymaker. The grades will be kept in a grade book on Brightspace and will be weighted as follows:

Online Tests (3)	22%
Oral Exams (2)	24%

BEGINNING SPANISH I

1411.06

Discussion Board Video Posts and Responses (5)	14%
Lumen Study Plans & Quizzes (11 plans and quizzes)	20%
Attendance/Participation	10%
Cultural Project/Presentation	10%

Details on the following grade components:

- Online Tests: 3 tests, taken online via Brightspace, utilizing a webcam monitoring program to ensure academic integrity (Lockdown Browser with Monitor). Please note that due to the comprehensive nature of language learning, each module builds on prior learning. For that reason, it is extremely important to study regularly and to continuously review older material. If you try to wait until the last minute and cram for a test, the material is not likely to make it into long-term memory, which will make it very difficult to do well as the semester progresses.
- Oral Exams: 2 one-on-one oral interviews with the instructor (one midterm and one final), lasting approximately 5-8 minutes each, conducted via Zoom. Students will be provided with all of the questions they might be asked in advance. Questions are designed for students to demonstrate mastery of vocabulary and grammar lessons studied, and students will be graded on comprehension, grammatical accuracy, use of complete sentences, fluency, and pronunciation. A detailed grading rubric will be posted in the oral exams content folder in Brightspace.
- Discussion Board Video/Written Posts: Students will respond orally via “videonote” and in writing by creating a new thread to discussion topics related to the unit vocabulary by posting a video or written response. Post early so you can review everyone’s posts and respond. There will be five discussion videos/boards assigned throughout the semester.
- Online Study Plans & Quizzes: (11 each) Students will watch video tutorials and complete a variety of listening, speaking, reading, and writing exercises in Brightspace for each module, and then take a module quiz before taking the two-or-three module test. The study plan activities are graded based on completion (not accuracy) and are designed to help students learn prior to taking the quizzes; failure to complete them will result in a loss of points for both the Study Plan and the attendance/participation category. Each module is broken into 4 or 5 sections. As students complete the self-checks at the end of each section, they will see their grade for the Study Plan increase by 20-25%. YOU MUST COMPLETE THE “SELF CHECK” EXERCISES TO EARN CREDIT FOR EACH SECTION OF THE STUDY PLANS. The quizzes are graded for accuracy. Students will have two attempts per quiz, and the highest grade for each quiz will be recorded. I strongly encourage you to budget enough time in between attempts to be able to go back and study the concepts you miss on your first attempt before making your second attempt.

- Cultural Presentation: Students will give one oral presentation, in which they will demonstrate the ability to speak fluently in the target language for 3 minutes. Requirements and grading criteria are on Brightspace in the “presentación” module. The video I posted includes an example of how to create the presentation.
 - Attendance & Participation: To earn full attendance and participation points, students must log into Brightspace and complete work at least two days per week, view all digital content assigned, meet all due dates for assignments and assessments, respond to all discussion boards, and take advantage of opportunities to receive formative feedback (e.g., utilizing office hours if there’s a concept you’re struggling with) and to learn from summative feedback (e.g., viewing all feedback and results from assignments, tests, and quizzes).

Final grades will be distributed according to the following scale:

A = 90 and above B = 80 to 89.99 C = 70 to 79.99 D = 60 to 69.99

F = Below 60

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Attendance is measured through regular participation in this course, which is expected of all students. In a blended class this means you must actively participate in class every Tuesday and Thursday from 9:35-10:55am and virtually in all assignments/activities, utilize all resources posted such as teaching materials and study plans, complete your work on time, and not miss any deadlines or tasks. An absence is constituted by missing any discussion board, tutorial, homework assignment, oral exam, test, quiz, or presentation. Students are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course from the first official day of classes and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades. If you are not participating or doing your work for any reason, you cannot earn participation points.

Students will be permitted to make up work missed due to absences caused by (1) authorized participation in official college functions, (2) personal illness, (3) an illness or a death in the immediate family, or (4) the observance of a religious holy day. It is the student’s responsibility to inform the professor of the reason for a missed assignment/assessment due to absence and to do so within 24 hours of the missed work. Be prepared to send the professor documentation (such as a doctor’s note or letter from a college official etc.) in order to be permitted to make up work.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

- When e-mailing me, please include an appropriate address (ex: Hi, Dr. Grassmann...), clearly identify yourself (ex: This is John Doe...), the class section you are in (ex: ...from your SPAN 1411.87 class...), and a clear message that includes proper capitalization, spelling, and punctuation. This is a skill that should be practiced for all scholarly and professional communication--not only for this class! (*Note: Typically, I have multiple sections of SPAN 1411, so including your class section number helps me to be able to answer any questions you might have about your grades, due dates, progress in the class, etc. more efficiently.)

- If you have any questions about something that is unclear or any ideas or suggestions for ways that I can improve the course and/or help you to be successful, please don't be shy to let me know. I am happy to accept constructive feedback, and I'm here to help you!
- My goal is to create a friendly, encouraging, and productive atmosphere in which students feel safe to participate. Therefore, I expect students to receive and provide feedback to and from the instructor and one another with a positive attitude in the interest of learning.
- Students should be aware that successful completion of this course will require a great deal of self-discipline and integrity. Academic dishonesty (cheating) will not be tolerated. While you may use notes/vocab lists/etc. while completing the study plans and quizzes, NO RESOURCES (including, but not limited to, notes, textbooks, dictionaries, cell phones, or any form of translation service) may be used when taking tests or oral exams. Beware that if a student is caught cheating on a test or oral exam, the grade for that test will be a 0, the student will be reported to the Department of Student Conduct, and all prior and future test-taking video footage will be carefully reviewed. If a second offense is observed—whether it was committed before or after the first offense—the student will be dropped from the course with a grade of F.
