LEARNING FRAMEWORK

EDUC_1100_L001

Course Description:

A study of the a) research and theory in the psychology of learning, cognition, and motivation; b) factors that impact learning; and c), application of learning strategies. Theoretical models of strategic learning, cognition, and motivation serve as the conceptual basis for the introduction of college-level student academic strategies. Students use assessment instruments (e.g., learning inventories) to help them identify their own strengths and weaknesses as strategic learners. Students are ultimately expected to integrate and apply the learning skills discussed across their own academic programs and become effective and efficient learners. Students developing these skills should be able to continually draw from the theoretical models they have learned.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

Since this class is linked with Engr 1201, students must have a C or better in Math 1314 or equivalent preparation.

Additional requirements:

MCC Engineering uses Slack for communication. All major course announcements will be posted in Slack – failure to check Slack will result in you missing important information. Also, anything we hear about jobs, scholarships, speakers, etc., will also be posted to Slack in the #general channel.

LEARNING FRAMEWORK

Slack is free and used in the professional community as a workflow management system, so it is good to gain experience with the tool. All “general questions” like “I’m stuck on problem 5” will be directed to Slack, which will allow you and your classmates to support each other, especially in “time-crunch” situations. (Your classmates are a lot more likely to be up at 3 am doing homework than I am going to be checking email.) Always be respectful and professional in your participation.

Please bear in mind that Slack is an open communication tool. Please do not ask for or reveal personal information through the tool. Note that anything you post in Slack in channels will be viewable by other channel participants. Do not post anything about personal grades, due dates, or personal issues. Do not post your own correct solutions to assignments, but you can post incorrect work and ask if anyone can see where you went wrong.

Slack can be used on both a desktop computer and as an app. For more information about Slack in general, visit <https://slack.com/>. You will be invited to our class channel via your MCC student account. Detailed guidelines for Slack are on Brightspace and on Slack itself.

Campus Carry Reminder: According to our new campus carry policy on concealed handguns: “A license holder may carry a handgun in a manner such that it must be close enough to the license holder that he or she can grasp it without materially changing position.” Keep this in mind on exam days, during group work, or at other times when moving about the classroom. During exams, you will have to put all backpacks, purses, etc., away from you and against the wall of the classroom for the duration of the exam.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Students will learn through lecture and reading, as well as through work on homework, labs, and, exams. Additional methods may be used as opportunities present themselves.

Course Mission Statement:

Learning Framework provides students with confidence in transition to higher education, as well as providing empowerment in areas that will lead to success as a lifelong learner.

LEARNING FRAMEWORK

EDUC_1100_L001

Objectives and/or Competencies:

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will:

1. Increase the student's level of knowledge and use of motivational, behavioral, and cognitive factors that impact learning.
2. Improve the student's abilities and actions in learning and study strategies.
3. Provide student preparation for the rigors of a college education.
4. Provide students with an overview of the emotional intelligence skills they will need to be successful in the college environment.

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student's financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

If you are not in attendance when roll is called, you are considered Absent. Note that if you drop or withdraw from this class, you will be dropped or withdrawn from the related Engr 1201 course.

If you wish to withdraw from this class, you must email me from your MCC student account before 5 pm on the last day for student-initiated withdrawals, with the request "Please withdraw me from COURSE ID and SECTION NUMBER." If the email does not come from your student account, or if the request is verbal, I cannot withdraw you. Otherwise, you will stay on the roster for the rest of the semester and be awarded the grade earned. Withdrawing past the 60% date is only done in documented, extreme, life-crisis circumstances, which usually involve withdrawing from school entirely.

Course Outline or Schedule:

The following is a TENTATIVE schedule of these chapters and the primary topic for each. Circumstances may cause the schedule to be changed. If changes are necessary, they will be announced in Brightspace. Weekly units go from Monday until Sunday each week. All assignments, quizzes, discussion boards, etc., are due by Sunday evening at 11:59 pm unless indicated otherwise on Brightspace.

In the event that I am not able to be physically present in class, I will often provide videos for students to watch or assign reading or other activities so we do not get behind in the schedule. In such cases, students are expected to complete these activities just as they would be expected to complete activities and participate in lecture were the material being covered face-to-face. Other graded material (tests, quizzes, labs, etc.) will continue to be due as indicated in the syllabus, unless I let the class know otherwise.

Core Activities: All Educ 1100 students are required to complete specific assignments. These are integrated as both homework and quiz grades and are noted specifically in the calendar.

Late Work and Make Up Work Policies:

MCC allows for “excused” absences under these circumstances: authorized participation in official College functions; personal illness, or the illness of a dependent (such as a child) that requires the student to serve as a caretaker; an illness or a death in the immediate family; the observance of a religious holy day. Additionally, accommodations can be made for special circumstances related to military service, changes in immigration status, pregnancy and parenting protection under Title IX. It is your responsibility to let me know the reason for an absence the day you return to campus and provide sufficient documentation (doctor's note, email from coach, etc.).

Whether you are in class or not, you are expected to meet all deadlines, unless you have documentation of an MCC-approved absence. Work ahead to stay on top of things.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

In both the face-to-face and online environments, students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity.

While honest discussion and debate of topics is expected and encouraged, such interactions should not involve aggressive, derogatory, or involve hostile behaviors (verbal or otherwise). The instructor reserves the right to act to protect the decorum of the learning environment and the image of MCC.

If you are using Zoom to meet with the professor and/or other students, please ensure that you are dressed appropriately and are in a location where you can focus on your responsibilities as a student. Example: It is not appropriate to attend a Zoom class while laying in bed and/or half dressed. Please be respectful of others and mute yourself if background noise will be a problem.

LEARNING FRAMEWORK

Ethics:

Any student that is found guilty of academic dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, or collusion, will receive the zero grade on every test or assignment involved. For repeated or egregious violations, a guilty student can be assigned a failing grade in this course and can be recommended for suspension from the McLennan Community College District.

Examples of cheating include but are not limited to:

- Copying the work of another student
- Seeking excused absences/tardiness under false pretenses
- Plagiarism (claiming as your own work the work of another)

This course will teach you to think critically. Critical thinking is essential for an educator. Please maintain your integrity and do your own work – there is no reason to cheat in this, or any other course.
