Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

All work is due at the time and date assigned. Many of the lectures, discussions, and reviews require participation within the group for mastery of content and for the maximum benefit through the entirety of the class. The value added by each individual during each class session extends the value of lectures, discussions, and group activities. In turn, those who attend gain a better understanding of the material and benefit from the experience while those who miss class do not.

For face-to-face classes, any behavior that disrupts the learning process will be grounds for dismissal from the class for that day. Unacceptable behavior includes (but is not limited to) excessive lateness, walking out of class without the instructor's permission, talking in class, reading or doing outside work in class, listening to music, making and/or receiving phone calls and/or text messages, and eating in class. Students who are sleeping, who appear to be sleeping, or who refuse to participate in assigned class activities will be counted absent for the day. Student who use smartphones in class, or who appear to be using smartphones (as determined by the instructor), will be marked absent for the day. Additionally, two tardies will be counted as an absence.

Student use of electronic devices is prohibited in face-to-face classes, unless prior approval from the instructor is granted. The use of a non-approved device, or the appearance of use (as determined by the instructor), will result in a recorded absence for the student for that day.

A SPECIAL NOTE ON PLAGIARISM:

You are responsible for generating original content for all your assignments in this class. Plagiarized papers, quizzes, and discussion questions will not be accepted and will automatically be counted as a zero. Also, plagiarized papers and assignments may be submitted for disciplinary action.

Unless instructed, use of AI will be considered plagiarized work. We will use AI for at least one assignment, and you will be given instructions and guidelines to follow for that assignment. However, as a writing course, you are required to do the work yourself, without the aid of AI or other assistive technology. Again, use of AI as with other forms of plagiarized work may be submitted for disciplinary action.
