A student's financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who misses 25% or more of assigned work for an online course will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

Attendance records for face-to-face sections are based on being present (P) or absent (A). Attendance records for online sections are based on submission of classwork. Eight class sessions for face-to-face 16-week sections equal 25%, and four weeks of classwork for online 16-week sections equal 25%. Many questions cover terminology and concepts presented in the workbook. Students will adhere to time limits on quizzes. Each quiz contains twenty questions. Students are given one minute per question. Students will not receive credit on exams that exceed time limits.

Exercises are located throughout the chapters of The Natural Worlds of Writing Workbook. Exercise responses are evaluated as completion/participation grades per every two chapters. Students will be expected to submit work that is free of major errors in usage, punctuation, and spelling. The following errors have been deemed serious enough to merit special attention:

4. Comma splices (e.g., "I arrived in class 10 minutes late, Larry came five minutes after I did." "This is the way in, that is the way out.")
5. Fused sentences (e.g., "But water had different meanings for different people for instance to the Texas farmer it's his bread and butter." "The literary techniques used are precipitative devices this is where one event triggers another.")
6. Faulty or unclear reference (e.g., "This story referred to James, but Henry misapplied it to himself. This is true in real life." "The car apparently needed a gasket; it leaked all over the garage floor.")
7. Faulty diction or word choice (e.g., "In this case apostrophe is death and no one can kill death." "She is a biggatrish and she hates Jews." "His death is an escape goat for his fears." "He was much to heavy.")

"As one travels through Vermont, the poem perplexes the reader." "At seventeen, her class graduated.")
9. Sentences containing unwarranted shifts in tense, mood, or voice (e.g., "She strolled up to me in study-hall and tries to start an argument." "If one wants to win, you must try very hard.")
