Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Since the course is totally constructed around online participation, the student should have knowledge of using a Web browser, computer, and e-mail, the ability to create and save documents; the ability to send and receive electronic documents; and a general understanding of online technologies and appropriate online behavior.

Chapter readings, interaction and participation in discussion boards, videos, peer review activities, writing paragraphs and essays, quizzes, and conducting library research.

Units: This course is organized into fifteen units. Each unit corresponds to a single week of work. All work will be due each Monday by 11:55pm CST. You are welcome to work ahead and learn at your own pace for most assignments. Students will find “due by” information on the Brightspace Course Schedule and in each Unit Folder. You are responsible for carefully reading everything, following the instructions, submitting the assignments according to those instructions, and for reading announcements daily.

Reading Assignments: You are required to read through and understand all the assigned readings and may, at any point during the semester, be quizzed on the material. Typically, your understanding of the readings will be evaluated via Discussion Board, where you will be required to answer a series of comprehension questions and comment on at least two responses posted by classmates. You welcome to read ahead.

Writing Assignments: You will have several, formal writing assignments over the course of the semester. Each essay is fully explained on the Assignment Sheet document that can be found within the corresponding unit. Each essay must be written within the specified time period. Topic related information will be discussed. Suggested topics for each essay will be available and the essays will be written over a period of time. Much more information on the essays will be provided in the assignment instructions. The use of MLA 9th edition format is required. Each essay should be typed in a word processing program and uploaded through the Assignment link. Failure to turn in the essay through the link by the due date will result in a grade of zero. Essays or any other assignments should not be sent to my email without a brief explanation of why you are emailing it to me. ASSIGNMENTS SENT TO MY MCC EMAIL WITHOUT AN EXPLANATION WILL NOT BE GRADED.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION I

Paper Formatting: All essays and papers must be typed, double-spaced (unless otherwise notified), with one-inch margins, using the Times New Roman 12pt font, with your last name page number located in the upper right-hand corner of the header. They should be written in accordance with MLA 9th edition format which we will discuss. Also, make sure to back-up your papers by emailing a copy to yourself as an attachment, saving a copy to your hard drive, and saving a copy to a flash drive or cloud program (Google Drive, Dropbox, OneDrive, etc.) all in .doc format. If you do not have a version of Microsoft Word on your computer, you may download a free version of Office 365 from MCC's Technology Help Desk website.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes.
2. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.
3. Write in a style appropriate to audience and purpose.
4. Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts.
5. Use Edited American English in academic essays.

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student's financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who misses 25% or more of assigned work for an online course will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

Grading Criteria

An A paper (90-100%) is excellent in nearly all respects. It shows originality of thought that goes well beyond material presented in class. It is well argued and well organized with a clear, specific, and ambitious thesis. It is well developed with content that is specific, interesting, appropriate, and convincing. It has logical and artful transitions and is marked by stylistic finesse and varied sentence structures. It demonstrates command of mature diction and has few, if any, mechanical, grammatical, spelling, or diction errors.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION I

A B paper (80-89%) is excellent in several respects but may have a less sophisticated thesis, a less distinguished style, some minor lapses in organization and development, some ineffective sentence structures, and some minor mechanical, grammatical, spelling, or diction problems.

A C paper (70-79%) is generally competent, but compared to a B paper, it may have a weaker thesis and less effective style and development. It may contain some lapses in organization, poor or awkward transitions, less varied sentence structures that tend toward choppiness or monotony, significant problems with mechanics, grammar, spelling, and diction.

A D paper (60-69%) is below average and may present a thesis that is too vague or too obvious to be developed effectively. It generally exhibits problems with organization, support, transitions, sentence structures, mechanics, grammar, spelling, and diction that impede understanding.

An F paper (59% and below) is far below average and may have no clear thesis or central topic. It may display a lack of organization, support, and development. It may contain major and repeated problems with mechanics, grammar, spelling, and diction and may fail to fulfill the assignment or may be unacceptably brief.

NOTE: Notice how high the standards for “A”, “B”, and even “C” papers are. This might be significantly different from your experience in other classes or in high school.

Plagiarism: We will discuss the correct ways of quoting and paraphrasing another's work for proper use in your assignments. Blatant use of someone else's work without giving appropriate credit, without the person's consent or with the intent of passing someone else's work off as your own will not be tolerated. Plagiarism will result in an automatic "F" for the assignment for the first offense. A second offense will result in failure of that assignment as well as the course.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Students must submit all assignments for each unit by 11:55pm CST each Monday in order to be considered present. Absences will be recorded starting with the very first unit. There are no substitutes or make-up assignments for missing discussions, exercises, quizzes or having your Rough Drafts reviewed. Not having an essay reviewed via Smarthinking will result in a loss of 50 points. Please email me immediately if you have any issues submitting your assignments to Smarthinking.

Smarthinking Access and Expectations:

Smarthinking is an online tutoring program that is located in Brightspace. Once logged into Brightspace, students should be able to access this free service. Rough drafts are to be uploaded onto the Smarthinking site at least 24 hours before the due date listed on the Assignment Sheet to allow the tutor to review the document, provide feedback, and then email the student with instructions on how to access the report. Smarthinking, while integrated into Brightspace, is not connected to the Gradebook; this means that the instructor will need time to review the report before issuing a grade. This process will generally take 24-48 hours after the due date. Rough Drafts that are submit correctly will be graded Credit/No Credit; meaning students will receive full points for submitting the report correctly and on time and will not receive credit if the report is not turned in, turned in incorrectly, or turned in late. Students may use the service as many times as they'd like, but are only required to submit one report for grading.

Keep these things in mind:

1. Typically, it takes 24 hours to get the report back from Smarthinking.
2. Students should receive an email from Smarthinking when the report is ready.
3. Students should follow the instructions in the email to retrieve the document.
4. Students should download and save the document to their computer or cloud program.
5. Students should upload the report onto Brightspace under the correct Rough Draft assignment.

If this process does not work, students should contact MCC's technology help desk for assistance.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Any assignments due that day must be turned in on or before the time specified by the instructor. Late assignments will lose one letter grade for each day following the due date that they are late, unless otherwise noted for a particular assignment.

In order to maintain an environment that is conducive to learning, no biased or prejudicial language will be tolerated in the Discussion Board forums.
