5. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student's financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who misses 25% or more of assigned work for an online course will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

How Attendance Works in This Course:

- For this online course, attendance is recorded at weekly intervals. You must submit at least one course assignment (i.e. an activity that has a corresponding grade item in the grade book) each week to be counted present for that week.
- Failure to complete a course assignment by Saturday, October 21 will result in a course drop. This can negatively impact your financial aid package now and/or your ability to qualify for financial aid in the future.
- Alternatively, you may choose to drop this course by October 21. In this circumstance, the course will not appear on your transcript. *Please speak with me, your advisor, and the Financial Aid Office before making this choice so we can address your concerns and inform you about the ways in which this decision may affect you.
- You may choose to withdraw from this course any time between October 22 and November 14. A grade of W will appear on your transcript for the course if you withdraw. *Please check with your advisor and the Financial Aid Office before requesting a withdrawal to ensure you understand how the decision will impact you.
- A student who fails to submit any course assignments for two weeks prior to November 14 may be withdrawn by the instructor. A grade of W will appear on their transcript for the course.
- After November 14, a student who accumulates 2 or more absences may earn a failing grade in the course.

Course Outline or Schedule:

Course Schedule:

This course has regular deadlines, and assignments become available once you have met specified grade criteria or submitted assignments. Please see below and refer to the “Content” or “Calendar” portion of Brightspace for specific course deadlines. Also, any updates or changes to the schedule will be communicated on Brightspace “Announcements.” Plan to check that page regularly to stay up-to-date on what’s going on in the course.

Essay 3	20%

(Note: I reserve the right to adjust these percentages as necessary)

I am more than happy to discuss any questions students may have concerning the grades they receive. However, I ask that students review their grades and determine what question(s) to ask prior to contacting me.

Course Requirements:

Assignments: All assignments for this course will be posted in the "Content" section on Brightspace. Students should access assignments via the "Content" section of Brightspace and are responsible for all the work listed there.

COMPOSITION I

ENGL 1301.O281

Discussion Boards: At least once in each unit, students will be required to participate in discussions on Brightspace that are relevant to the material being discussed in that unit. Your discussion board posts must be substantive. In other words, posts that say things like “I like that idea” or “I don’t know” will not receive credit.

Discussion Board Rubric: All discussion boards are worth 10 points. The following rubric will be used to determine discussion board grades:

- 8-10 points – substantive posts that contribute to the class’s overall understanding of the material. Minimum of three posts.
- 7 points - thoughtful post that attempts to develop the class’s overall understanding of the material. Minimum of three posts.
- 6 points – posts that demonstrate a basic level of understanding of the material. Minimum of two posts.
- 1 to 5 points – only one post for the unit
- 0 points – no posts for the unit

Daily Work: Daily work consists of any work students do for this course that is not a final draft of a discussion board post, grammar quiz, or a final draft of an essay. All daily work must be created with an approved word processing software (such as MS Word) should be typed in 12 pt. Times New Roman black font, double-spaced, have 1-inch margins on all sides, and include the student’s name, course number, and date in the upper left hand corner of the page. Daily work will count as 20% of the course grade.

Essays: In addition to daily work, students will complete three major essay assignments. Again, all written assignments must be typed and conform to the MLA format (12 pt. Times New Roman black font, 1-inch margins, double spaced). All major essay assignments must be submitted for a grade in order to pass the course.

Grammar Quiz: The grammar unit contains one grammar quiz that tests your understanding of the assigned readings and concepts covered in that unit. It is worth 10% of your course grade.

Submitting Work: Only work that is submitted to Brightspace will be accepted for credit.

Late Work and Make Up Work Policies:

Late work: Work may only be submitted after the published deadline in the event of an excused absence (i.e. personal illness or illness in the family; death in the family; observance of a religious holiday). Students are asked to contact the instructor via email as soon as they believe they may miss a course deadline due to an excused absence. An extension on the late work will be granted via email, so students need to look for an instructor response in their MCC email account after informing the instructor about their situation.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to improve their own reading, thinking, and writing skills and to assist their fellow classmates to do the same. To create a comfortable learning environment for all present, students are asked to respect their colleagues. Disrespectful comments on discussion boards will not be tolerated. Repeat offenders will be dropped from the course, and they will be reported to MCC's Discipline Coordinator.

Additionally, students are asked to carefully consider the content of their communications to their instructor and classmates. Is it clear? Does it communicate its main idea well? Has it been edited and proofread? Make sure you can answer yes to all these questions before you submit your discussion board posts and emails.

Course Policy on Academic Dishonesty

Students found to be guilty of acts of academic dishonesty (including but not limited to sharing coursework with a classmate, presenting the work of another as their own, copying from sources without documentation, purchasing papers, utilizing AI to create portions or full drafts of essays, copying another's work, and gaining illegitimate access to quiz/exam passwords and/or quiz/exam questions or answers prior to taking the assessment) are subject to college policy as found in the general catalog. In addition, in this class, students may be subject to the following discipline:

- First Offense: Warning & failing grade on the assignment.
- Second Offense: failing grade on the assignment & report to MCC's Discipline Coordinator
- Third Offense: failing grade in the course & report to MCC's Discipline Coordinator
