Required Text & Materials:

Fagner, Elaine K., Michaela McCown, and Bradley T. Turner. Practical Environmental Science, Part One: ENVR 1101. Toronto, Ontario: Tophatmonocle Corp, 2022. ISBN: 978-1-77494-272-7

This course uses inclusive access. Books are purchased by the student when they pay tuition and the student need only contact the bookstore to arrange delivery of the books. The student can also opt-out of this service, but will need to do that on their own before a specified deadline set between the bookstore and the business office.

MCC Bookstore Website

<http://www.mclennan.edu/bookstore/>

Course Notes, Additional Requirements, and Instructor Recommendations:

Every student in this course needs to regularly check Brightspace for new assignments, announcements, and/or messages. Every student needs to be able to access YouTube videos, DOCX, and PDF files without a problem. This course requires that students conduct independent labs. Because of this, students must also be able to view videos and have a reliable Internet connection to succeed. Links to Adobe Reader are available in the Syllabus/Schedule tab, on the main menu. A student must have access to reliable transportation, with proper insurance, tags, etc... when applicable, to participate in field trips. All students must complete the McLennan Community College waivers online before being cleared to participate in any off-campus lab activities. Failure to complete the liability form online, provided via a link on Brightspace, may result in a student being withdrawn from the course at the same scheduled time when Lab Four is due.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Virtual tours, lab exercises, lectures, quizzes, essays, and/or other alternative means.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

1. Apply the scientific method to environmental investigation.
2. Measure and observe aspects of the environment (e.g., air, water, soil) through sampling and sample analysis.
3. Develop an assessment plan for an environmental case study.
4. Demonstrate the collection, analysis, and reporting of data.

Other specific Student Learning Outcomes and Core Objectives include:

- A. Critical thinking assignments that focus on scientific knowledge related to problems involving energy and the environment;
- B. Assessing communication skills through quizzes and assignments that are largely written, while lectures gravitate toward visual components, and class discussions guarantee students' oral interactions when introducing the physical sciences at a collegiate level;
- C. Empirical/quantitative assessments through lectures that allow students to see examples of specific case studies, research, and current events that pertain to data collection, analysis, and the scientific method as they pertain to energy problems and solutions; among other environmental topics like sustainability and resource management.

Course Outline or Schedule:

The official class schedule is posted and updated on Brightspace, as adjustments become needed. For each lab there will be assignments due at precisely 11:55pm on specified evenings. At times, students may be allowed to work ahead in the course (if they choose), but the instructor is not required to make future assignments available before an assignment's scheduled time. If additional assignments are opened, the additional labs' due dates will be posted near the title of each lab. A student may ALWAYS complete available assignments early (when they are available), but will not be able to receive credit on any assignments submitted past an assignment's specified deadline.

Course Grading Information, Quiz Policies, and Exam Policies:

Each lab represents an equal portion of the final grade. There is no final exam in ENVR 1101. Grades are kept here Brightspace, under the Grades tool. The grade scale used in the course is: A=90-100, B=80-89.9, C=70-79.9, D=60-69.9, and F=59.9 and below.

There are some occasions when a student may be required to travel locally to conduct his/her lab experiments. The locations should not be difficult to find. In the event the student cannot identify a location, he or she must inform the instructor of the dilemma five days prior to the assignment's due date.

Also, students must complete online waiver and liability form, as discussed in Lab One, before receiving credit for any labs past Lab Two. In the event a student defaults on submitting and completing his/her waivers by the end of Lab Two, he/she will likely be dropped for non-participation during the time schedule for completing Lab Four.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

I generally do not accept late work in any of my online classes. On occasion, I may open multiple lab assignments up for students who wish to work ahead. In those instances, work can always be turned in early, but usually cannot be submitted late. For each lab section, an assignment will be due on specified night at 11:55pm (not 11:56pm). However, I do provide students with an opportunity to makeup one lab grade, but only during the same time when Lab Twelve is due in the course. The Makeup Lab will be deployed in its own folder, similarly to the other course work. The Makeup Lab replaces a student's lowest quiz grade and is completely optional. The Makeup Lab will be a completely new, separate, and optional lab assignment. The Makeup Lab often represents the sole-guaranteed opportunity for extra-credit in the course.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to maintain a classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of this educational opportunity.

Each student is required to actively participate in each activity. Minimal physical activity is required for some of these labs. If you have any physical issues that prevent your participation, you must notify the instructor as soon as possible, via Instant Message on Brightspace, so an alternative strategy can be determined. If you do not notify the instructor about your physical issues before an incident, you will be held responsible for the incompleteness of the lab.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

* Click Here for the MCC Academic Integrity Statement
(www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity)

The link above will provide you with information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Whether or not you cheat on assignments, know that many students do cheat in an online environment. I try to remove the need for you to cheat, by letting you use your notes, submit assignments multiple times before the deadline, open most of the labs early, and complete a majority of the course wherever you physically feel the most comfortable. But, any student who is found guilty of academic dishonesty such as cheating, plagiarism, or collusion on any problem on an assignment, quiz, test, (etc.) may receive an F for his/her semester grade, be reported to the Disciplinary Council, and could even be recommended for suspension from McLennan Community College. Please refer to my Overview of the Syllabus video, under the Syllabus/Schedule tab, for clarification.

I POSSESS ZERO TOLERANCE FOR CHEATING, COLLUSION, AND/OR PLAGIARISM.

Often, in particular on short-answer or essay labs, I do not mind when students seek outside, scholastic material to locate additional information on various topics. However, be sure that you realize that you cannot simply copy something and pass it off as your answer. It often feels as though every semester, I will find examples of when students, in a panic, copy-paste materials off of the Internet as their answers. If you do this, you will receive a failing grade and be reported—so do the right thing. Anyone caught (or even highly suspected of) cheating or plagiarizing on an assignment will have grounds to fail the course for the semester and be reported to the disciplinary council. If a student is unsure as to what constitutes cheating/plagiarism, he/she needs to ask for clarification before submitting an assignment. When applicable, it is a student's obligation to verify the authenticity of his/her work through proper citations. Even "accidental" cheating can result in a failing grade for the semester and a report to the disciplinary council. Non-approved use of AI technology will also be considered a violation of the academic integrity policy in this course.

On occasion, two students in this course may share a common bond (married, friends, siblings, etc...) and if you fit into that category, you must notify me within the first week of class. This is because students with a common bond occasionally experience issues that should be addressed before completing much of the course. We can talk about these various issues, once they arise. Failure to notify the instructor about a common bond may result in strict consequences, as determined by the instructor.

MCC Attendance Policy:

* Click Here for the MCC Attendance/Absences Policy
(<https://www.mclennan.edu/highlander-guide/policies.html>)

Click on the link above for the college policies on attendance and absences. Your instructor has other guidelines specific to this course.

Regular and punctual attendance is expected of all students, and each instructor will maintain a complete record of attendance for the entire length of each course, including online and hybrid courses. Students will be counted absent from class meetings missed, beginning with the first official day of classes. Students, whether present or absent, are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades. In the case of online and hybrid courses, attendance will be determined in terms of participation, as described in the course syllabus.

In this course, a student is marked absent when she/he fails to complete all of a section's assignments. Each absence will count toward attendance requirements in each course.

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student's financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who miss 25% or more of assigned work for an online course will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

Students may be permitted to make up class work and assignments missed due to absences caused by (1) authorized participation in official College functions, (2) personal illness, (3) an illness or a death in the immediate family or (4) the observance of a religious holy day. Also, the instructor has the prerogative of determining whether a student may make up work missed due to absences for other reasons. It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor of the reason for an absence and to do so in a timely fashion.

McLennan Community College shall excuse a student from attending classes or other required activities including examinations for the observance of a religious holy day, including travel for that purpose. Students are required to file a written request with each instructor for an excused absence. A student whose absence is excused for this observance may not be penalized for that absence and shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment from which the student is excused within a reasonable time after the absence. Religious holy day means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under the Texas Tax Code.

Any student who does not drop him/herself before October 24, and exceeds four absences, will stay enrolled in the course and receive the grade she/he earns.
