Texas Government (Texas Constitution & Topics)

GOVT_2306_011_2023FA

between class discussion and course lecture. The discussions will include not only prescribed readings, but outside current events happening at the local, state, and federal levels, and other appropriate professional published materials, as well. Exams, quizzes, and assigned projects will be used to assess learning and comprehension. Furthermore, participation in class discussions is a critical part of the classroom experience. Therefore, final grades will incorporate points for participation.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

This course will focus on the Texas Constitution. The course will involve the analysis of governmental institutions, political behavior, civic engagement, and their political and philosophical foundations. Ultimately, this course is designed to help students develop an adequate comprehension of the following:

- Critical Thinking Skills (CT): “to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.”
- Communication Skills (COMM): “to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.”
- Social Responsibility (SR): “to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.”
- Personal Responsibility (PR): “to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.”

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student’s financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who miss 25% or more of assigned work for an online course will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.
