This course integrates the critical reading and academic writing skills students need to comprehend and interact with college-level texts and to produce original college-level writing, in standard written English, through the processes of generating ideas, drafting, organizing, revising, and editing. This is a linked course that is a co-requisite with college-level English (ENGL 1301: Composition I). Semester Hours 3 (3 lec/1 lab)

INTEGRATED READING & WRITING II

INRW 0302. L009

Daily Work	20%
Exit Exam	20%

Total 100%

Note: Students must pass the Exit Exam to pass the course. If a student fails the Exit Exam but has a passing average of the course, the student will receive a grade of NC for the course.

Exit Exam: The exam consists of two related sections: Part 1 (Reading) and Part 2 (Writing). The instructor will administer both parts during the designated Final Exams dates.

Eligibility to take the Exit Exam: A student must have an average of 70 or higher in the course to be eligible to take the Exit Exam.

Course Grading Scale

Final grades will correspond to the following scale:

Credit (CR) = 70-100% No Credit (NC) = 0-69%

The grade of “I”—incomplete—is not available in INRW 0301.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Attendance: If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student’s financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly, and the student will receive funding only for those courses attended as of the course census date.

After the census date but before the 60% point of the semester, students who miss 25% of a face-to-face or blended course or who fail to complete 25% of the total work required for an online course will be withdrawn from that course with a grade of W.

After the 60% point of the semester, the instructor may

1. Honor a student’s request to withdraw (if the student is passing) or,
2. When posting course grades, assign the grade the student has earned in the course.

Your assignments are due at the end of each week on Sunday night at 11:59 P.M. Late submissions will lose a minus 5 points per day no matter what the reason is. Essays will lose 10 points per day of lateness. You might have a good reason for being late and I might accept your work, but you will still lose the points. If you have an emergency situation that prohibits you from making progress in the course, contact me to discuss the best course of action. Documentation will be required.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Course Policy on Academic Dishonesty

Students found to be guilty of acts of academic dishonesty (including but not limited to sharing coursework with a classmate, presenting the work of another's as their own, copying from sources without documentation, purchasing papers, utilizing AI to create portions or full drafts of essays, copying another's work, and gaining illegitimate access to quiz/exam passwords and/or quiz/exam questions or answers prior to taking the assessment) are subject to college policy as found in the Highlander Guide. In addition, in this class, students are subject to the following discipline:

- A reduced or failing grade on the assignment in question, and/or
- An academic integrity referral; and/or
- A failing grade in the course

Communication

Students should use MCC email for communication with both instructors. MCC has a spam control and outside email addresses may not get to us. You may also call us at the phone numbers we have shared with you. This message will also go to the lecture instructor's email. While it is appropriate to wait up to 48 hours for a response to a message, you may receive a response the same day you send your email. After 48 hours, if no response is received, you should resend the message to make sure it did not go to the spam folder. Email must be written in Standard English, not text messaging language. (We are not grading your email messages, but do expect you to write in such a way that your message is clear and understandable.)
