Course Grading Information:

Quizzes: Will consist of multiple choice, True/False and fill in the blank questions.

Writing Assignments (Mid-term and Final): For the mid-term and final you will be required to compose an “academic encyclopedia” entry. The student will write an academic encyclopedia article over one of the philosophers or topics that we have over the course of the class. Using the examples provides, the textbook for the class, research databases and reputable academic online sources, the student will provide a concise but thorough article on the selected philosopher or philosophical topic. The article should be approximately 500 words. It should be grammatically correct. It should cite any sources used in either print or internet material (lack of citation will result in an incomplete grade for the assignment). DO NOT copy/paste a wikipedia article (or other similar online source) into the assignment box. This should constitute original work and failure to comply in this regard will result in an F for the assignment. Each of these assignments will be worth 75 points. The total value of the writing assignments is 150 points.

Discussion Participation: At the end of each Learning Unit you will be required to view a "Prezi" presentation (or other material). You will then be prompted to launch a discussion board for that particular unit related to the "Prezi." There will be a starter thread there with instructions on how to proceed. For each discussion board you will be required to post your own response to the thread. The clarity of your post, the grammatical correctness of your post and the accuracy of the information present in the post will all contribute to your overall grade. There will be a total of 10 points a week for Discussion Board participation. The total value of Discussion Board participation is 150 points.

| Letter Grade | Point Range |
|--------------|-------------|
| A | 600 - 540 |
| B | 539 - 480 |
| C | 479 - 420 |
| D | 419 - 360 |
| F | 359 - 0 |

Note Well: This is strictly a points system. You must get to a particular point total to receive the grade you desire. DO NOT get caught up with percentages, decimals and rounding up. If you want an “A” then you need at least 540 points or above. If you get 539 it is a “B” and is non-negotiable.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Late work will not be accepted for any reason. If you anticipate missing a class when an assignment is due, please turn the assignment in prior to that class meeting. Since all assignments other than exams are given in advance, students should be able to complete assignments ahead of time if necessary.

Make up exams will only be allowed in the case of excused (MCC approved) absences and are highly discouraged. The make-up exam will be a different exam from the exam given to the rest of the class. Please make every effort to take exams at the times scheduled.

No incomplete grades will be issued. Please complete all assignments and exams by the assigned time. Any incomplete work will be calculated into the final grade as a “0” and submitted as such.

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student’s financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who miss 25% or more of assigned work for an online course will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 1301 O180
