Methods of Teaching and Learning:

This course will be divided into 13 Learning Units. Each unit is composed of two textbook reading assignments. After completing the reading assignment, students will complete a quiz over each assignment. Students will also participate in class discussion through the use of discussion boards. Students will also complete two exams that will assess the students' ability to assimilate and articulate information.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Courses in this category focus on how ideas, values, beliefs, and other aspects of culture express and affect human experience. Courses involve the exploration of ideas that foster aesthetic and intellectual creation in order to understand the human condition across cultures.

- Critical Thinking (CT) -- to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Communications Skill (COM) -- to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
- Social Responsibility (SR) -- to include intercultural competency, civic knowledge, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities
- Personal Responsibility (PR) -- to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Read, analyze, and critique religious texts.
- Demonstrate knowledge of diverse beliefs, practices, and values of selected religious traditions.
- Trace and present orally or in writing the origin and historical developments of selected religious traditions.
- Communicate understanding of selected religious traditions, orally or in writing.
- Discuss ways of living responsibly in a world where people have diverse religious beliefs.

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student's financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who miss 25% or more of assigned work for an online course will be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the Course Grading Information:

1. Textbook Quizzes: After completing the assigned textbook readings for each learning unit, you will take two online quizzes. The quizzes will consist of 10 questions. Each quiz will have a timer of 10 minutes, so please read the assignment reading in advance rather than hunting through the assignment for the answers.

2. Class Discussion: Each week will have one discussion starter thread. Students will engage discussion by reading a passage and reflecting upon it. For each discussion thread, students must post an original substantive post on one day and then on a different day provide an original substantive response to another student's post. However, each component of the discussion assignment must be completed by the assigned due date to receive credit. Students who waited until the due date to complete the assignment are advised to submit all components on the same day in order to receive partial credit. For each discussion thread, 55% of the grade will come from the student's original post, 15% will come from their response to another student's post, 15% will come from posting their original post and response to a classmate on separate days, and 10% will come from the quality of writing.

3. Exams: Over the course of the semester, there will two multiple choice exams. Exam I will cover the material from Learning Units 1-7 and Exam II will cover the material from Learning Units 8-13. Students should take note of the Key Terms and Concepts provide in the Learning Units as they prepare for the exams.

F = 59% and below

Late Work and Make Up Work Policies:

This course is not a self-paced course. Students are expected to complete all assignments within the timeframe given. Late work will not be accepted for any reason. All assignments must be completed in the week in which they are due. Make-up exams will only be allowed in the case of an MCC approved excused absences, but they are strongly discouraged. Students should make every effort to complete the exams on time. Students are responsible for contacting the professor in advance about any upcoming absences that cannot be avoided.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

(www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity)

Students are expected to abide by the MCC Academic Integrity Statement. With regard to cheating, plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty, the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests or examinations, papers, preparing reports, solving problems or carrying out other assignments; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the professor in writing or; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the MCC faculty or staff. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment. Plagiarism includes the failure to place three or more words from an outside source in quotation marks. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. It also includes material prepared by AI software.

The link above will provide you with information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing on their assignments will receive a zero for that assignment and will be reported to Student Discipline.

Click on the link above for the college policies on attendance and absences. Your instructor may have additional guidelines specific to this course.

Online Attendance Policy:

Students must complete a minimum of 75% of all assignments to meet the requirements of this class attendance policy. There are 44 total assignments in the course (textbook quizzes, discussion threads, and exams); therefore, students must complete 33 of the 44 assignments to meet the attendance policy of this course. Failure to complete 75% of the assignment will result in the student failing the course due to “absences” despite having a passing grade.

to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating. The unauthorized use of artificial intelligence (AI) for classwork can be a violation of the College's General Conduct Policy. Whether AI is authorized in a course and the parameters in which AI can be used in a course will be outlined by each instructor.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teachingandlearning/FacultyandStaffCommons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to www.mclennan.edu/studentemail.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

You can find help on the McLennan website about connecting your McLennan email account to your mobile device:

- Email Setup for iPhones and iPads
- Email Setup for Androids

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

For more helpful information about technology at MCC, go to MCC's Tech Support Cheat Sheet or email helpdesk@mclennan.edu.
