Late Work and Make Up Work Policies:

- 1. Is there any extra credit? No. There is enough time to complete assignments that if done on time, you should make a satisfactory grade.
- 2. May I make up missed work? Generally, No (truly extenuating circumstance will be considered). So, it would be wise to work ahead and stay ahead just in case.
- 3. May I turn in my work early? Absolutely! Any of these assignments may be turned in early! No problem! These assignments just cannot be turned in late.

- 4. May I email my assignments? Please pay attention to the method of submitting each assignment. Most will be submitted in class, while others may be submitted online through Brightspace. Note: It is very important that you keep an electronic copy of your submitted work. Technical problems happen; keep in mind that your work is your responsibility.
- 5. How do I get information for a class I missed? Get to know your classmates and work with them for missed notes; collaboration is an effective learning strategy.

expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to www.mclennan.edu/studentemail.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

You can find help on the McLennan website about connecting your McLennan email account to your mobile device:

- Email Setup for iPhones and iPads

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.
