Course Grading Information:

Course Grading Information:

Assessment	Total/Percentage
Policy Paper	30%
Quizzes (14)x 3% each	42%
Discussion Boards (14)x 2% each	28%

Course grades are firm and will not be “curved” or “bumped.” Grades are based on actual performance, not amount of effort exerted, potential, hardships encountered during the semester, etc. There is no extra credit in this course. In order to earn a C or above, students must stay current with readings and assignments and exhibit strong class performance.

A minimum final grade of C is required in all Mental Health/Social Work classes for graduation.

I INCOMPLETE - is given when a course is incomplete because of a student's absence caused by reasons acceptable to the instructor. To be eligible, the student must have essentially completed the course. If work is not made up within the following long semester, the "I" will be changed to and "F" and the course must be repeated if credit is to be given.

Course Assignments:

Policy Paper

Each student will write an individual paper on a social welfare policy that you have chosen. It is perfectly fine to choose a social welfare policy that you read about in the text or in the power point lectures. The purpose of this assignment is for you to analyze and evaluate a social welfare policy. Your goal is to uncover the history of the policy, its social impacts, the varying political perspectives, its unintended consequences, how the policy was received by different populations, and how it could possibly be improved upon. Specific instructions can be found at the end of this syllabus and in Brightspace.

It is expected that the paper you submit for this class is one that was written solely for this class and not for another class. To write a paper and submit it for a grade in two different classes is highly unethical. Students caught doing this will receive a zero (0) for this assignment.

If you are retaking this course, you must submit a NEW paper on a New policy. Do not resubmit the paper that you submitted the first time that you took this course. If you resubmit an old paper, you will earn ZERO points for the paper.

Quizzes

Each student will take a quiz at the end of each Module (this includes the Orientation Module). This means that there are a total of 14 quizzes (one quiz per chapter). Each quiz will consist of Multiple Choice and True/False questions. Most quizzes have 20 questions, however, there are a few modules that have less than 20 questions. It is extremely important that you STUDY for each quiz. You get ONE CHANCE to take each quiz. I will NOT provide study guides for these quizzes. I take quiz questions from the power points, videos, and articles provided. I HIGHLY SUGGEST that you read each chapter to make sure that you are understanding the power points. These quizzes are not easy. Since there are weekly quizzes, there will be no exams (mid-term, final, etc).

Pre/Post Tests: FALL SEMESTER ONLY

As a part of our Student Learning Outcomes (SLO), we are asking students to take a test at the start of the course (pre-test) and another test at the end of the course (post-test). These are all generalized questions from the overall content of the course. All questions are Multiple Choice. Your scores on these 2 tests do not factor into your final grade for the course. They will be used for statistical purposes only.

Discussion Boards

Discussion boards are a way that the Professor can make sure that students are understanding the material. Discussion boards are also a useful tool to ensure that there is classroom discussion in an on-line format. Each week, students will respond to discussion board posts. You will not see any of your classmates threads until you have posted one. After you have made your post, you will see your classmates threads. You have to answer the original Db question and reply to at least two other students' posts to get any credit. Anything less than 3 posts will earn zero (0) points. To earn a top score (100%), the student must do an original post and thoughtfully respond to at least 2 of your peers. Writing a couple of sentences in a post will NOT earn you a high score. To earn a high score on a discussion board, the student must write at least 10 sentences (in each post). My expectation is that ALL STUDENTS be respectful to each other when they make posts.

Grammar/punctuation/sentence structure: The use of proper grammar, punctuation, and sentence structure is extremely important in college and when one enters the workforce. Good grammar keeps your readers or listeners focused on what you have to say, not on how you are saying it or why you are making mistakes. Using proper grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure is extremely important to this professor. I will take up to 25 points off on any discussion board that has numerous grammatical, spelling, punctuation, etc errors. If you need help with using correct grammar, punctuation, etc, please contact Academic Support and Tutoring @ ast@mclennan.edu or 254-299-8500.

More detailed instructions regarding expectations and “how to” do a discussion post is located in Brightspace. Please see Discussion Board Etiquette at the end of the syllabus.

Late Work and Make Up Work Policies:

No late work will be accepted in this class unless this professor determines that the student’s absence was due to an unavoidable emergency. This professor determines what an unavoidable emergency is. Any late work accepted will earn an automatic 10 pt deduction. All work not turned in by the due date will receive a “0.” Regular attendance (face to face in the classroom) is expected of all students, and each instructor will maintain a complete record of attendance for the entire length of each course, including online and hybrid courses. Students will be counted absent from class meetings missed, beginning with the first official day of classes. Students, whether present or absent, are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades. For on-line classes, the instructor will evaluate attendance by participation in the weekly assignments. This means if a student completes the discussion board and/or quiz for the week, the student will be counted present for the class for the week.

Assignment/Exam submission folders close as noted on Brightspace and/or in the syllabus and will not be reopened for any reason. Make sure you set aside enough time to complete your submissions on a timely basis while they’re open if the professor asks that you submit an assignment in Brightspace.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

In general, students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity. The Highlander Guides describes the rights, privileges and obligations of students affiliated with MCC.

Learning should be fun and not torture. However, there are expected guidelines for each class.

Courtesy and Respect

Students should demonstrate courtesy and respect to all instructors, guests, and fellow students. While honest discussion and debate of topics is expected and encouraged, such interactions should not involve aggressive, derogatory, or hostile behaviors (verbal or otherwise). The instructor reserves the right to act to protect the decorum of the learning environment and the image of MCC.

Exhibiting disruptive behavior, incivility (e. g., inappropriate gestures, cursing, verbal or non-verbal intimidation, belittling or demeaning language, making statements attacking peers, faculty, or staff, the use of social media, chat rooms, or other venues to gossip, belittle, provoke fear, or stir emotions of or about peers, faculty, staff, or college leadership, etc.) is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

Lack of respect for cultural diversity (e.g., disrespecting others regarding age, culture, race, religion, ethnic origin, gender, sexual orientation) is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

Students who engage in threatening statements or behaviors or lack respect for cultural diversity toward instructors, guests, and fellow students will not be allowed to return to class until the offending student and professor have a one on one meeting and/or could be withdrawn from the class (depending on the corrective action plan created in the meeting). If a resolution is not met in the professor/student one on one meeting, the student may have a resolution meeting with the Program Director and/or Chair. These guidelines apply to all modalities of class presentation: in-person classes, blended classes, ZOOM classes, and on-line classes.

Artificial Intelligence (AI):

Definition of AI: For the purposes of this syllabus, AI is defined as any software or technology that can perform tasks that would normally require human intelligence, such as learning, decision-making, problem-solving, or composition.

AI Content generation tools (such as ChatGPT, etc...) are NOT permitted for any work, or phase of work, in this class. Using them may interfere with your progress as an independent thinker and your achievement of the course's outcomes. If you use these tools, your actions would be considered academically dishonest.

To ensure academic integrity and uphold ethical standards in this course, any use of artificial intelligence (AI) by students on assignments and tests is strictly prohibited.

Prohibited Conduct:

- Using AI to complete assignments or tests
- Collaborating with AI on assignments or tests
- Submitting assignments or tests that have been completed or assisted by AI

Consequences for Violation:

Any student found to be in violation of this syllabus policy will be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to:

- Receiving a failing grade on the assignment or test in question
- Receiving a failing grade in the course
- A report will be made to the MCC Conduct Department.

Discussion Board Etiquette

The Discussion Board is a vital part of communication in online learning. If all participants agree to follow a few principles of civility and professionalism, the discussion board can be a great opportunity to express opinions, share ideas, and receive feedback from peers who are engaged in the same learning objectives.

Me, Too, I Agree!

The me-too post certainly is a frustration in the online environment and does not add any depth to the discussion or learning. In a study by Stodel, Thompson, and MacDonald (2006), "Learners got frustrated with the constant agreements and comments such as 'Good point' and 'I agree'; feeling it made the conversation overly positive and fake." Therefore, be sure to post substantive ideas and avoid the "I agree" posts which just clutter up a discussion board.

Tone and Courtesy in Writing

The "tone" is a very important part of electronic communication. When you read your message out loud, does it sound the way you would speak to another student in the classroom?

- Humor can be difficult to convey in text, so make sure everyone realizes when you are trying to be funny. It is easy for messages to be misinterpreted since there are no physical gestures or voice inflections that accompany the text.
- Think through and re-read your comments before you post them.
- Be nice. Refrain from inappropriate language and derogatory or personal attacks.
- Make a personal commitment to learning about, understanding, and supporting your peers.
- Assume the best of others in the class and expect the best from them.
- Disagree with ideas, but avoid challenges that may be interpreted as a personal attack.
- Be open to be challenged or confronted on your ideas or prejudices.
- Challenge others with the intent of facilitating growth. Do not demean, harass or embarrass others.
- Encourage others to develop and share their ideas.
- Remember that others will be able to read your posts. Be careful about posting anything that is too personal about you or others.

Check Previous Postings Before You Post

Remember to read what has previously been posted by others to avoid repeating comments.

- Make sure you are posting under the appropriate heading or thread.
- Stick to the topic; if you wish to pursue an unrelated idea with a classmate, move your communication to e-mail so that others don't spend time on non-essential topics.

Give Credit Where Credit is Due

Cite your references.

Grammar, Spelling and Fonts

The Discussion Board is part of a college course, so your writing style should conform to the rules of standard English. Here are some guidelines for all messages posted to the course's Discussion Board and course-associated emails:

- Avoid slang (e.g., "Wassup?", "Yo," and so forth).
- Don't curse.
- Use standard spelling:
  - you (not u)
  - are (not r)
  - to or too (not 2)
  - you're (not ure)
  - right (not rite)
  - I (not i)
- Use the spell check! Mistakes in spelling and grammar reflect poorly on you, and they're not acceptable.
- Stick to the APA standard font -- Times New Roman, 12 pt. -- and color – black. Avoid the use of fancy formatting such as crazy fonts, smileys, unusual text colors and anything animated.
- DON'T WRITE THE ENTIRE POSTING WITH YOUR CAPS LOCK ON. IT'S REALLY ANNOYING.

Other:

If you find something on the discussion board that is upsetting or unacceptable, make sure to let the professor know about it as soon as possible.

INDIVIDUAL POLICY PAPER GUIDELINES

Each student will write an individual paper on a social welfare policy that you have chosen. It is perfectly fine to choose a social welfare policy that you read about in the text or in the power point lectures. The purpose of this assignment is for you to analyze and evaluate a social welfare policy. Your goal is to uncover the history of the policy, its social impacts, the varying political perspectives, its unintended consequences, how the policy was received by different populations, and how it could possibly be improved upon. You MUST use the following prompts in your paper:

1. History of the Policy
  - When was it passed?
  - Why was it passed? What was the social context around the development of this policy?
  - What groups supported it?
2. What was the intended impact of the policy?
  - Was that the ACTUAL impact?
  - What were the unintended consequences (positive or negative)?
3. What debates exist(ed) about this policy?
4. Discuss any amendments or changes to the policy since it was enacted (or proposed changes)
5. What have you learned? What is your opinion of this policy?
6. How do you think this policy could be improved upon?

Research is a huge component of this paper. All of your points discussed should be evidence-based and cited within your paper. You are expected to use at least 5 professional (preferably peer-reviewed) sources and cite using APA format. The paper should be 5 pages long. There will be a MAJOR point deduction if you submit a paper that is shorter than 5 pages. Remember, the cover page and reference page do not count in the point total. This paper must be written in APA format. No abstract is required. Also, it is extremely important that you cover all topics listed above. Make it very clear in your paper what topics you are covering. If you don't cover all of the points listed above, there will be a MAJOR point deduction.

Writing in APA and using in-text citations is incredibly important. If you do not use in-text citations throughout your paper, you will earn ZERO points on this paper! If you do not include a reference page for this paper, you will earn ZERO points. If your paper has no in-text citations and no reference page, you will earn a ZERO on the paper.

Grammar/punctuation/sentence structure: The use of proper grammar, punctuation, and sentence structure is extremely important in college and when one enters the workforce. Good grammar keeps your readers or listeners focused on what you have to say, not on how you are saying it or why you are making mistakes. Using proper grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure is extremely important to this professor. I will take up to 25 points off on any paper that has numerous grammatical, spelling, punctuation, etc errors. If you need help with using correct grammar, punctuation, etc, please contact Academic Support and Tutoring @ ast@mclennan.edu or 254-299-8500.

It is expected that the paper you submit for this class is one that was written solely for this class and not for another class. To write a paper and submit it for a grade in two different classes is highly unethical. Students caught doing this will receive a zero (0) for this assignment.

If you are retaking this course, you must submit a NEW paper on a NEW social welfare policy. Do not resubmit the paper that you submitted the first time that you took this course. If you resubmit an old paper, you will earn ZERO points for the paper.

You have made it to the end of this syllabus. Thank you for reading it. If you e-mail me that you have read the entire syllabus, you will get 10 BONUS POINTS added on your lowest quiz grade!

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to www.mclennan.edu/studentemail.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

You can find help on the McLennan website about connecting your McLennan email account to your mobile device:

- Email Setup for iPhones and iPads

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.
