NOTE: This is a 16-week Blended/Hybrid course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

Course Description:

Presents the study of management, organization and administration of law enforcement systems. The police role and discretion, ethics, police community interaction as well as current and future issues will be presented.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

CRIJ 1301 with a grade of C or better or approval of the program director.

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

It is recommended that before attending class, that students read each assigned chapter and be familiar with terms located inside each chapter. Students need to be familiar with and be able to navigate D2L/Brightspace. Assignments and exams will be assigned and submitted in D2L/Brightspace. Class announcements and handouts will be made through D2L/Brightspace.

Edition: 9th

Publisher: Cengage Learning

ISBN: 9781337739337

MCC Bookstore Website: <http://www.mclennan.edu/bookstore/>

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

The course will be taught through lectures, visual and audio aids, class participation and guest speakers when available. Refer to the documents presented on the MCC Brightspace Announcement tab and the Content tab for this course.

NOTE from the Professor:

How this class will be offered will depend on enrollment numbers. If there are more than 18 students enrolled, the class will be divided into two groups. Group A and Group B. Group A students will meet every Monday in class. Group B will meet every Wednesday in Class. Group A and B will meet viz ZOOM on the days they are not assigned to the classroom.

Attendance is vital for in class lectures and the ZOOM lectures.

If the number of students enrolled are under the number 18, the students will meet every Monday and Wednesday in class.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

The student will develop knowledge in explaining and analyzing police administration in terms of its two interdependent components; police organization and police management, which will include the interrelations controlling the bureaucratic structure of police administration that embodies the hierarchy, authority, span of control, delegation of authority, and communications. The student will also develop knowledge about the various administrative models which have molded current managerial thought, and have an effect on the major elements of police management of planning, organizing, decision making, budgeting, and directing.

The student should have knowledge of using a Web browser, computer, and email: the ability to create and save documents; the ability to send and receive electronic documents; and a general understanding of online technologies and appropriate online behavior.

Course Grading Information:

1. At the beginning of the semester, there is an on-line Information Quiz. The student will use the course syllabus, course schedule and written assignment documents for this quiz. The purpose is to ensure the student has knowledge of the course syllabi. This is a mandatory assignment.
2. Attendance: Being on time and present for the entire 85-minute class is important. Each student will place their initials on the daily class role to indicate they are present. If the student does not initial the document, they will be marked as absent. The instructor will note on the daily class role if a student is tardy to class.
3. Four (4) objective style tests will be given during the semester.
 - a. Tests will cover the material presented in class and from the textbook.
 - b. Tests will be given when the appropriate material has been covered in class.
 - c. Students will take the exams during the class time but there is no formal meeting at the class. The exam will be available in the Brightspace platform and will be open during the exam date/time. Students must take the exam during the designated date/time. If a student is unable to take the exam during the date/time, they shall contact the professor prior to the beginning of the exam. If there is no communication from the student to the professor, and the exam is not taken at the designated date/time, the grade will be recorded as a ZERO.
4. Written Assignment: A written assignment is due on a specified date. The written assignment instructions is a separate document posted on Brightspace.

Assignment of Grades: (Rubric)

1. Information/Syllabus Quiz	14.28%
2. Attendance	14.30%
3. EXAM I	14.28%
4. EXAM II	14.28%
5. EXAM III	14.28%
6. EXAM IV	14.28%
7. Written Assignment	14.30%
	100%

There is NO Mid-term or Final Exam in this course.

GRADING:

The following grading guidelines will prevail for all tests and written assignments.

100 - 90 = A 69 - 60 = D

89 - 80 = B 59 - 0 = F

79 - 70 = C

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

A student is required to take the exam on the day and time it is scheduled. Any make-up exams will be given the week before finals week. The only exception to this rule is if the student makes arrangements before the exam is given and/or the student has documentation of an emergency. If a student misses an exam and does not make arrangements with the Professor, a grade of a ZERO (0) will be entered in the grade book.

- a. The make-up examination may include objective type questions as well as essay questions. The type of make-up examination will be at the discretion of the instructor.

A written report is Mandatory to complete this course. If a student fails to complete this assignment, they will receive an INCOMPLETE for the COURSE. A written report turned in after the due date will be graded starting at a grade of a 79% and decrease with errors to the written instructions. 10 Bonus points are available for those who submit their work prior to EXAM II.

Attendance and being to class on time is important. A student arriving late causes a disruption to the learning of the students that are on-time. A student that is persistent on being tardy may have their participation grade decreased no less than one letter grade. If a student is tardy four (4) times during the semester, that correlates to one class absence. The professor does follow the MCC attendance policy and will drop students for attendance reasons. Attendance is work 25% of the FINAL GRADE

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

It is the student's responsibility to read the General Conduct Responsibility Policy in the Highlander Guide (MCC Student Handbook) and the Mental Health Handbook. Any breeches of conduct will result in disciplinary action.

Disturbances in the classroom, which include talking during class/lecture/exams, will not be tolerated.

1. Students disturbing the class will be requested to leave the classroom or will have an assigned seat.
2. Continued disregard for classroom decorum will result in the student being dropped from the class rolls.
3. Caps, hats, and sun glasses will not be worn in the classroom. Sun glasses that are medically required may be worn.
4. Cheating during an exam or where related to a written assignment, will result in the student being given a FAILURE (F) for the course, and dropped from the class rolls.
5. Use of Laptop type computers and tablets is authorized for taking of notes. Using this device to access social media network sites is prohibited. This also includes cell phone type devices.
6. Plagiarism will not be tolerated in any written assignment.
7. E-Cigarette: (Electronic) are not permitted to be used in the classroom/campus.
September 1, 2019 New Law: 21 years of age
8. CELL PHONE POLICY: (This policy will be strictly enforced)
 - A. All students with cell phones will be required to place their cell phone on silent before entering the classroom. Text messaging is not allowed in the classroom.
 - B. If a student receives an emergency call during class and he or she needs to answer the call:
 1. Quietly leave the classroom before answering the call.
 2. After completing their phone call students are asked to quietly enter the classroom in a manner that will not disturb the instructor or other students.
 3. First violation of the policy will result in the student not being able to have their cell phone activated during class.
 4. Second violation of the policy, the student will have 5 points deducted from their final grade point average.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a success coach by calling (254) 299-8226. Students can visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a success coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be contacted/notified through your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Accommodations/ADA Statement

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. Instructors should not provide accommodations unless approved by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

disabilities@mclennan.edu
