FRESHMAN COMPOSITION I

ENGL 1301.26

Dr. ANNA IUSHCHENKO

NOTE: This is a 16-week course.

NOTE: This is a Blended/Hybrid course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION I

Course Description:

Intensive study of and practice in writing processes, from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. Emphasis is on effective rhetorical choices, including audience, purpose, arrangement, and style. Focus is on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communication, and critical analysis.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

TSI complete in Reading and Writing or the equivalent

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

The best way to communicate with me is by e-mail. I usually respond to e-mails within 24 hours. Please feel comfortable to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about the course. When you send an e-mail, you should use your MCC e-mail account and include your name, last name, and section number.

The blended format of instruction, in which 50-85% of content is delivered online, requires a great deal of personal responsibility and self-discipline. Students should check Brightspace and MCC e-mail regularly and complete all course work on time.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION I

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Courses in this category focus on developing ideas and expressing them clearly, considering the effect of the message, fostering understanding, and building the skills needed to communicate persuasively. Courses involve the command of oral, aural, written, and visual literacy skills that enable people to exchange messages appropriate to the subject, occasion, and audience.

- Critical Thinking (CT) -- to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Communications Skill (COM) -- to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
- Teamwork (TW) -- to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- Personal Responsibility (PR) -- to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes.
2. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.
3. Write in a style appropriate to audience and purpose.
4. Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts.
5. Use edited American English in academic essays.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Class sessions are mostly based on discussion, reflection, and sharing. This format allows students to provide insight into the readings, integrate their personal experiences, share diverse perspectives, and critically analyze various writing selections.

All course materials are posted in Brightspace: course syllabus, lecture slides, videos, assignments, quizzes, discussion boards, and other instructional resources. In addition, I will post class announcements, course grades, assignment guidelines, and other helpful tips. It is students' responsibility to check Brightspace regularly and complete all course work on time.

All English 1301 instructors will assign a research project with shared parameters that will be graded by a common rubric. The project will include both a written product and a presentation. To meet core objectives, students will accurately evaluate, compare, and integrate at least 5 primary and/or secondary sources; cite sources correctly and appropriately using MLA documentation style; and work together to improve the product through shared data collection, peer review, and self and team member analysis.

ENGL 1301 Essay Guidelines:

By the end of the semester, students will have written at least 5 research-based essays totaling approximately 4000 words and/or 20 pages. Essay assignments should demonstrate a student's ability to analyze argumentative rhetoric and to construct an argumentative essay with research documented in MLA format. The following guidelines serve as the ratio for determining final grades:

- 40-50% of the grade will come from 3 essays (that may include preparatory drafts), at least one of which will be written in class with little or no preparation, prior to and in addition to the in-class essay required as part of the final exam
- 20-30% of the grade will come from another essay, one that is research-based (and may include preparatory drafts), of between 5 and 10 pages, utilizing at least 5 sources
- 10-20% of the grade will come from the final exam, of which at least one-half will be an in-class essay written at final exam time
- 10-20% of the grade will come from daily work, such as homework, quizzes, tests, journals, and participation

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION I

ENGL 1301.26

*Revision to course outline may be made at the discretion of the instructor. Students will be notified in advance about any changes made (in class and in Brightspace).

Course Grading Information:

Course grades will be posted in Brightspace regularly and will be calculated based on the weighted / percentage grade method as follows. Keep in mind that the class average / final calculated grade is the weighted grade based on item or category weighting; it will not be final until the last grade is entered.

#	Category / Assignment	Weighted / Percentage Grade
1	Daily Work	10 %
2	Grammar Quizzes	10 %
3	Major Essays: Personal Essay, Explanatory Essay, Evaluation Essay	45 %
4	Research Paper	30 %
5	Final Exam	5 %
	Total	100 %

Daily work category includes evaluation of various writing assignments (exercises, outlines, rough drafts) and online discussion posts. Weekly writing assignments will receive completion grades based on the accuracy of their completion. Grading of discussion boards will be based on quality and quantity of posts: the initial discussion post will be worth 80 points (6-7 sent.), 70 points (4-5 sent.), 60 points (2-3 sent.), or 50 points (1 sent.); two replies to your group mates will be worth 20 points (10 points each). Evaluation of Peer Reviews Discussion Boards will be done differently and will be explained in the assignment instructions. Discussion boards have availability dates and will NOT be available after availability ends.

Grammar Quizzes consist of ten true-or-false or multiple-choice questions (10 points each), which cover materials in Grammar Handbook at the end of the textbook St. Martin's Guide to Writing (pp. H1-H110). All quizzes are timed (10 minutes each) and allow TWO attempts with the highest score recorded. Each quiz has availability dates and after the due date, will no longer be available for the users. Students with registered accommodations will be granted additional time as required by their accommodations.

Students will prepare three major essays (3-4 pages) and one research-based essay (5-6 pages) during the course. Detailed instructions for each essay assignments and a corresponding evaluation rubric are posted in Brightspace. Students are expected to participate in Peer Review Discussion Boards, where they will have an opportunity to swap their papers and receive feedback from their peers. Students who do not participate in peer reviews may expect to have FIVE points deducted off the essay grade.

Final exam assignment will include a final quiz, ten multiple-choice questions that cover the basic concepts of the course, and a three-paragraph reflection paper that is aimed to discuss initial course goals, accomplishments, and challenges.

Assignment Guidelines:

Please refer to the following guidelines to complete ALL course assignments:

- All course assignments should be submitted electronically in Brightspace BEFORE the due date. Assignments submitted by e-mail will not be accepted.
- All weekly assignments (quizzes, discussion boards, writing assignments) are due before 11:59 pm each Sunday.
- All assignments have availability dates. After availability ends, the assignments will NOT be available for the users. Writing assignments, including major essays, will be available for THREE more days after the due date; however, late work policy will be applied on all late submissions.
- All writing assignments should be submitted as attached files (preferably a Word or PDF document). Failure to submit the proper file format may result in having a zero for assignment.
- All writing assignments should follow MLA (8th edition) formatting standard (see Formatting Guidelines in Brightspace).
- All page limits refer ONLY to pages of written text and do not include Works Cited page. TEN points per page will be deducted for not meeting the essay length requirement.
- Turnitin, plagiarism detection software, will be enabled on all essay submissions. This software will show similarities to online sources and work submitted by other students. If you attempt to resubmit an essay you were writing for another class or submit somebody's paper, Turnitin will be able to detect that, and you will suffer serious academic consequences (see Academic Integrity Statement below).
- For each essay assignment, you are expected to select a brand new topic and develop it in accordance with assignment guidelines. You CANNOT write an essay on the same topic you were writing before for this class or any other classes. Failure to meet this requirement will result in having a zero.

- You may receive FIVE bonus points on an essay if you submit your rough draft to Smarthinking and write a paragraph (6-7 complete sentences), explaining the tutor's three main recommendations and reflecting on how they helped you improve your paper. You should turn in your writing and your Smarthinking draft (with tutor's comments) with the final draft in the same submission folder (see Smarthinking Guidelines in Brightspace).
- You may receive FIVE points back on the first two graded essay assignments if you identify five writing errors, write them out, and explain them. This assignment should be sent to me as an e-mail attachment and should be completed no later than TWO WEEKS after an essay grade was published (see Error Analysis Guidelines in Brightspace).

Late Work, Attendance, and Make-Up Work Policies:

Since a blended course combines face-to-face instruction and online work, tracking attendance will include participation in face-to-face sessions and completion of online assignments. Students are expected to attend 1.5 hours of classroom instruction per week and complete weekly assignments in Brightspace. No online participation during a week or not a single submission of weekly assignments will equal ONE class absence.

According to MCC attendance policy, 25% of absences (eight class sessions) may result in being withdrawn from the course with the grade of W or F, depending on whether a student is passing. An absence from a class session will be excused if it is caused by authorized participation in official College functions, personal illness, an illness or a death in the immediate family, or the observance of a religious holy day. Please notify me via e-mail in advance if you are unable to attend any given class session.

Each student whether present or absent in class should complete ALL weekly assignments in Brightspace BEFORE the due date. Patterns of late work will be reflected in lower grade for the course in fairness to others who have done their work on time and sometimes at a great sacrifice. If you need help in getting your course work done, please let me know as soon as possible.

All assignments have availability dates. After availability ends, the assignments will NOT be available for the users. Writing assignments, including major essays, will be available for THREE more days after the due date; however, late work policy will be applied on all late submissions.

Late writing assignments will receive only HALF credit (50 points). Major essays submitted after the due date will be marked down as follows: FIVE points will be deducted off submissions up to 12 hours late (TEN points off submissions up to 24 hours late or per one calendar day). If an essay is late beyond three days, it will NOT be accepted and receive a zero. Reading quizzes and discussion boards will NOT be available for the users after availability ends. Incomplete quizzes and discussion boards will receive a zero.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to:

- follow MCC safety protocols during COVID-19 pandemic
- arrive on time and be prepared to participate in class activities
- be courteous and turn off cell phones or put them on silent
- avoid eating during the class or leaving the classroom for personal needs
- support an environment conducive to learning
- respect differences of culture, nationality, values, opinions, styles

Academic Integrity Statement:

I take all cases of academic dishonesty seriously. I believe academic integrity is the fundamental virtue of any professional community. It is important that students adhere to high standards of professionalism and display academic integrity in their behavior. No cases of plagiarism or other forms of dishonest conduct will be tolerated. Anyone caught committing plagiarism on any assignment will be given a failing grade automatically without permission to make it up.

For further clarification, students will be given a zero for the assignment: 1) if they try to submit somebody else's paper; 2) if they try to submit a paper that was written for another course; 3) if they submit a paper written by a tutor; 4) if they copy and paste from online sources with obvious intentions to deceive; 5) if they fail to paraphrase research sources properly and do not use quotation marks to indicate borrowed text ("patchwriting"); 6) if they fail to provide proper documentation for the sources they use; 7) if a paper is written on an unassigned or inappropriate topic.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a success coach by calling (254) 299-8226. Students can visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a success coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be contacted/notified through your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Accommodations/ADA Statement

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. Instructors should not provide accommodations unless approved by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:
