Tye D. Williams

NOTE: This is a 16-week online course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals. We are also concerned for your safety. We are working through COVID-19 guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. This will include smaller class sizes to manage social distancing and proper cleaning techniques. You will have the advantage of a physical classroom experience but may also need to work part of the time online as we adjust to limited classroom capacity. This will also allow us the flexibility to move online if so directed by federal, state and/or local COVID 19 guidelines. Faculty and staff are preparing now to ensure that you have the best experience in the midst of these uncertain times.

Course Description:

A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the Civil War/Reconstruction era to the present. United States History II examines industrialization, immigration, world wars, the Great Depression, Cold War, and post-Cold War eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History II: American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, urbanization and suburbanization, the expansion of the federal government, and the study of U.S. foreign policy.

COURSE GRADING INFORMATION:

Grading Breakdown

- Primary Source Analysis Papers or Quizzes: a total of 10. Counts for 40%
- Exam 1: 20%
- Exam 2: 20%
- Exam 3: 20%

All totaling to 100%

Grading Scale

- A (90-100): Outstanding work. To achieve an A, exam answers must show an excellent retention of the material, and the ability to use this material to present arguments in a coherent and convincing manner.
- B (80-89): Good work. A “B” answers need to answer each part of the question correctly and contain no serious errors of fact.
- C (70-79): Competent work. Acceptable grasp of the material presented but may contain some inaccuracies or omissions.
- D (60-69): Unsatisfactory. A “D” answer demonstrates only a limited grasp of the material, and/or serious errors of fact.
- F (59 and below): Failing. An “F” answer fails to answer the question as presented, and/or shows minimal knowledge of the material from the readings and lectures.

EXTRA CREDIT: No formal extra credit will be given for this class. However, regular attendance will be considered when determining borderline grades.

EXAMINATIONS:

- The exams will be essay based in response to one essay question or several short answer questions. The examination will be timed, you will have one hour to complete it. The question will be given to you before the exam date, giving you ample time to prepare.
- When a test is returned to you, please take it home for ONE DAY and read the comments before coming to discuss the grade. I will be available for the NEXT FIVE business days to discuss the exams. We will not discuss the exam after this five-day period.
- Missed examinations may only be made up with WRITTEN proof of illness or emergency, submitted to Professor Williams.

MAKEUP EXAMS: All makeup exams will be taken on the last day of class, at class time. You may make up only ONE test. If you miss this makeup day as well, or fail to submit written proof of excuse beforehand, you WILL NOT be allowed to make up the test. This is subject to change considering COVID. Your professor will make the decision as a case-by-case basis.

PRIMARY SOURCE ANALYSIS PAPERS and QUIZZES:

These papers will analyze a source or sources for that given week. Students will write a 1-2page (4-8 paragraphs) analysis. A handout concerning the details of this analysis will be distributed on the first day of class and posted online. The papers are to be emailed or turned in physically at the beginning of each class. Papers turned in late without the Professor consent will NOT be accepted. If there is more than one source that week, a source will be randomly selected for you to write your analysis.

INTEGRITY OF SCHOLARSHIP: All work in this class is to be done by the individual student. Cheating is considered grounds for automatic failure. The instructor reserves the right to issue a failing grade for acts of willful dishonesty such as plagiarism, the copying of another's work on tests or quizzes (including verbatim memorizing of another person's notes or notecards), the misrepresentation of another's work (be it from another student or the internet) as one's own, or the use of unauthorized materials during exams.

STUDENT BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS OR CONDUCT POLICY:

Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity. Moreover, I work to keep a casual atmosphere in the class so that everyone is comfortable, but to maintain this I need your help. Please come to class on time and do not leave until class is over, as people coming in and out disrupt everyone. We will be discussing a wide range of topics this semester, and there may be times when your opinion differs from that of your classmates. Please always demonstrate respect and courtesy.

COLLEGE

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a success coach by calling (254) 299-8226. Students can visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a success coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be contacted/notified through your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Click on the link above for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with her/his students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward the emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may become lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Accommodations/ADA Statement

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. Instructors should not provide accommodations unless approved by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

disabilities@mclennan.edu
