Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Generally, the student will be expected to draw in ways that indicate an understanding and feel for the course material as it is presented by the instructor. Some of the following principles will be covered during the semester:

Composition and Expression

Configuration-Shapes (or marks), size, number and placement

Space-(Figure ground relationships) positive, negative, equivocal

Essence-(characteristic, essential) personal, collective, emphasis, de-emphasis

Creativity-Detergency-fluency, flexibility. Synthesis-intuition, alertness

Significance-meaning , value

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

For the student to experience investigating a variety of media techniques, descriptive and expressive possibilities, and to make drawings indicating accomplishment in illusionism, composition, and creative development. Evaluation is the instructor's assessment of how well the student accomplishes the objectives of the course as evidenced by the Portfolio's:

1. uniqueness (creativity) & convincibility (may include craft, design, expressiveness, other)
2. attitude and effort
3. growth
4. breadth

Course Outline or Schedule:

Students will work in class on a number of assignments each day during the semester. Students must be in class on time with materials ready for that day's work. Students will be required to do a number of out of class drawings which will be explained by the instructor at certain times during the semester. A minimum of 4 - 6 hours work per week is required outside of class. Of these hours, a minimum of one hour per week should be spent working in the sketchbook and a minimum of 3 - 5 hours per week should be spent working on the out of class assignments.

Course Grading Information:

Students will work in class on a number of assignments during the semester. Students must be in class on time with materials ready for that day's work. A sketchbook must be used by each student. This sketchbook must be completed by the end of the semester. There needs to be a minimum of 100 pages drawn on for the sketchbook to be considered complete.

ARTS 1317 01

There will be class critiques of out of class assignments and sketchbooks. Critiques are mandatory. Completed works are presented by all students for the purpose of receiving formal criticism. It is a unique opportunity to heighten one's ability to perceive strengths and weaknesses, in addition to developing one's ability to communicate information to others.

Grades will be broken down as follows:

80 %---In class drawings

10 %---out of class work

10 %---Class and Critique participation, absences.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

If a student misses 25% of the total class days they will be dropped from the class. For this class that is 7 days. These are the total number of absences allowed: excused and/or unexcused. If a student has 4 unexcused or excused absences their grade will drop 1 letter grade. If they have 5 absences it will drop 2 letter grades. If a student has 6 absences their grade will drop 3 letter grades. Leaving early/arriving late at least 30 minutes will equal one absence.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

"Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity."

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit www.mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

Room 319, Student Services Center

Title IX:

We care about your safety, and value an environment where students and instructors can successfully teach and learn together. If you or someone you know experiences unwelcomed behavior, we are here to help. Individuals who would like to report an incident of sexual misconduct are encouraged to immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator at titleix@mclennan.edu or by calling Dr. Drew Canham (Chief of Staff for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion/Title IX) at (254) 299-8645. Individuals also may contact the MCC Police Department at 299-8911 or the MCC Student Counseling Center at MCC at (254) 299-8210. The MCC Student Counseling Center is a confidential resource for students. Any student or employee may report sexual harassment anonymously by visiting <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/mclennan/>.

Go to McLennan's Title IX webpage at www.mclennan.edu/titleix/. It contains more information about definitions, reporting, confidentiality, resources, and what to do if you or someone you know is a victim of sexual misconduct, gender-based violence or the crimes of rape, acquaintance rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence.

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/Faculty-and-Staff-Commons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.
