SALON DEVELOPMENT

CSME 2443.01

Course Description:

CSME 2443 – Salon Development:

Procedures necessary for salon development. Topics include professional ethics and goal setting, salon operation, and record keeping.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

Successful completion of CSME 1354, CSME 1405, CSME 1410, & CSME 2401.

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

- Most lab assignments require hands-on participation. The assignments can vary depending on the course. Students who register for Cosmetology courses should be prepared to physically engage in all practical assignments.
- Ability to perform all practical skill requirements while gaining state mandated clock hours.
- Performing cosmetology services requires good hygiene habits and hair pulled back (if long) for pedicures.
- Theory workbooks are due prior to each chapter test. Student will receive a grade of 100 if workbook is 100% complete and a zero will be given if in-complete. If workbook is not turned in prior to test, a grade of 50 will be given if 100% complete and turned in prior to next theory class.
- When servicing clients, student's appearance must be professional.
- Students are expected to participate in lecture/theory class. Working on homework, workbooks, or other assignments during theory is unacceptable. Points will be deducted from the student's professionalism grade.
- All students are responsible for their own actions. A reflection of student's professionalism will be evaluated on the department approved Performance Standard Form. This is 15% of student's overall grade. A copy of the Performance Standard Form will be issued to each student on the first class day.
- Students are not allowed to have ear pods or ear buds at any time except at lunch time.
- Students are Not Allowed to charge their cellphones. It will be allowed on break and lunch.
- No cell phones or talking allowed during any test. If Student has a phone out or talking for ANY REASON, the student will receive a grade of 0% on the test. This applies to the entire test taking time frame. Suggestion: Leave phone in locker or place on instructor's desk.
- Only 8 or 16 Oz Water Bottle allowed in classroom etc.
- As a courtesy please send a Remind, Text, or Phone call if you will be absent.

Course Grading Information:

EVALUATION/GRADING

Student learning outcomes will be measured by the instructor. The final course grade will be determined on the following grading percentages:

1	Theory		25	Percent
2	Skills		10	Percent
3	Mock State Exam	25% for Written, 25% for Practical	50	Percent
4	Professionalism		15	Percent
Total Points			100	Percent

Grade Scale

Letter Grade	A	B	C	F
Total Points	100 – 90	89 – 80	79 – 70	69 or Below

W-----WITHDREW- This grade is given for an instructor or student-initiated course withdrawal through the 60 percent point in the semester or term. After the 60 percent point, an instructor may authorize a course withdrawal and assign a W if passing work was being accomplished or an F (NC-Non-completion for a student enrolled in a developmental class) if the student was failing work. In extenuating circumstances, the instructor may assign a W to a student who is not passing through the last regular class day of a semester or term.

No credit for the course will be given.

I-----INCOMPLETE- This grade is given when a course is incomplete because of student's absences caused by illness or other reasons acceptable to the Instructor. To be eligible for this grade, the student must have essentially completed the course. The work remaining should be of such a nature as to not require class attendance. If the work is not made up within the following long semester, then it will be changed to an F and the course must be repeated if credit is to be given.

SALON DEVELOPMENT

CSME 2443.01

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Students will be permitted to make up class work and assignments missed with documentation due to absences caused by

- (a) Authorized participation in official college functions.
- (b) Personal illness
- (c) Illness or a death in the immediate family (d) Observance of a religious holy day

Student, whether present or absent, is responsible for all assignments presented or assigned. All students are accountable for all assignments in the determination of course grade.

The instructor has the prerogative of determining whether a student may make up work missed due to absences for other reasons.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

In general, students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity. The Highlander Guide describes the rights, privileges, and obligations of students affiliated with MCC.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit www.mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

disabilities@mclennan.edu

254-299-8122

Room 319, Student Services Center

Title IX:

We care about your safety, and value an environment where students and instructors can successfully teach and learn together. If you or someone you know experiences unwelcomed behavior, we are here to help. Individuals who would like to report an incident of sexual misconduct are encouraged to immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator at titleix@mclennan.edu or by calling Dr. Drew Canham (Chief of Staff for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion/Title IX) at (254) 299-8645. Individuals also may contact the MCC Police Department at 299-8911 or the MCC Student Counseling Center at MCC at (254) 299-8210. The MCC Student Counseling Center is a confidential resource for students. Any student or employee may report sexual harassment anonymously by visiting <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/mclennan/>.

Go to McLennan's Title IX webpage at www.mclennan.edu/titleix/. It contains more information about definitions, reporting, confidentiality, resources, and what to do if you or someone you know is a victim of sexual misconduct, gender-based violence or the crimes of rape, acquaintance rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence.

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/Faculty-and-Staff-Commons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Disclaimer:

The resources and policies listed above are merely for informational purposes and are subject to change without notice or obligation. The College reserves the right to change policies and other requirements in compliance with State and Federal laws. The provisions of this document do not constitute a contract.
