Methods of Teaching and Learning:

By the end of the semester, students will have written at least 5 essays totaling approximately 4000 words and/or 20 pages. The following guidelines serve as the ratio for determining final grades:

- 20-30% of the grade will come from a research-based essay of between 5 and 10 pages long, utilizing at least 5 sources. To meet core objectives, students will accurately evaluate, compare, and integrate these sources; cite sources correctly and appropriately using MLA documentation style; and work together to improve the product through shared data collection, peer review, and self and team-member analysis. The essay will be graded by a common rubric
- 10-20% of the grade will come from the final exam, of which at least one-half will be an essay written in class

COMPOSITION I

Note: To pass the course, students must complete all major essay assignments.

Final grades will correspond to the following scale:

A = 90-100 B = 80-89 C = 70-79 D = 60-69 F = 0-59

Course grades will be based on the following approximate percentages:

Assignment	Percentage

Grammar Quiz	10%
Essay 3	20%

(Note: I reserve the right to adjust these percentages as necessary)

I am more than happy to discuss any questions students may have concerning the grades they receive. However, I ask that students review their grades and determine what question(s) to ask prior to contacting me.

Course Requirements:

Assignments: All assignments for this course will be posted in the "Content" section on Brightspace. Students should access assignments via the "Content" section of Brightspace and are responsible for all the work listed there.

Discussion Boards: At least once in each unit, students will be required to participate in discussions on Brightspace that are relevant to the material being discussed in that unit.

COMPOSITION I

ENGL 1301; SECTIONS 284, 285, 286, 288 & 289

Your discussion board posts must be substantive. In other words, posts that say things like “I like that idea” or “I don’t know” will not receive credit.

Discussion Board Rubric: All discussion boards are worth 10 points. The following rubric will be used to determine discussion board grades:

- 8-10 points – substantive posts that contribute to the class’s overall understanding of the material. Minimum of three posts.
- 7 points - thoughtful post that attempts to develop the class’s overall understanding of the material. Minimum of three posts.
- 6 points – posts that demonstrate a basic level of understanding of the material. Minimum of two posts.
- 1 to 5 points – only one post for the unit
- 0 points – no posts for the unit

Daily Work: Daily work consists of any work students do for this course that is not a final draft of an discussion board post, grammar quiz, or a final draft of an essay. All daily work must be created with an approved word processing software (such as MS Word) should be typed in 12 pt. Times New Roman black font, double-spaced, have 1-inch margins on all sides, and include the student’s name, course number, and date in the upper left hand corner of the page. Daily work will count as 20% of the course grade.

Essays: In addition to daily work, students will complete three major essay assignments. Again, all written assignments must be typed and conform to the MLA format (12 pt. Times New Roman black font, 1-inch margins, double spaced).

Grammar Quiz: The grammar unit contains one grammar quiz that tests your understanding of the assigned readings and concepts covered in that unit. It is worth 10% of your course grade.

Submitting Work: Only work that is submitted to Brightspace will be accepted for credit.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Late work: Work may only be submitted after the published deadline in the event of an excused absence (i.e. personal illness or illness in the family; death in the family; observance of a religious holiday). Students are asked to contact the instructor via email as soon as they believe they may miss a course deadline due to an excused absence. An extension on the late work will be granted via email, so students need to look for an instructor response in their MCC email account after informing the instructor about their situation.

*COVID-19 Note: If you or someone you care for contracts COVID-19, please be sure to fill out MCC’s self-reporting form. In addition to confirming to your instructors that you have an excused absence, this form ensures that MCC can take adequate measures to contact trace and inform close contacts of their exposure (following all HIPAA and FERPA requirements). Attendance: To remain in good standing in this course, all students must submit one graded assignment each week of the semester. Attendance will be recorded at weekly intervals, and students who do not participate regularly by submitting an assignment each week may be contacted by the instructor or a Success Coach. Excessive absences will result in a course withdrawal, per MCC's attendance policy.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to improve their own reading, thinking, and writing skills and to assist their fellow classmates to do the same. To create comfortable learning environment for all present, students are asked to respect their colleagues. Disrespectful comments on discussion boards will not be tolerated. Repeat offenders will be dropped from the course, and they will be reported to MCC's Discipline Coordinator.
