Dr. ANNA IUSHCHENKO

NOTE: This is a 16-week course.

NOTE: This is an Online course.

COVID 19 Notice:

McLennan Community College is committed to providing you with every resource you need to reach your academic goals including your safety. We will continue to monitor the evolving situation with COVID 19 and adjust our safety guidelines to make sure we offer a safe environment for you and our faculty. Please make sure to consult your faculty and the MCC website at <https://www.mclennan.edu/crisis-management/coronavirus-updates/index.html> on any changes to these guidelines.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION II

ENGL 1302.C96

Course Description:

Intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasis is on effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

ENGL 1301 or its equivalent with a grade of C or better, or consent of Division Chair.

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

The best way to communicate with me is by e-mail. I usually respond to e-mails within 24 hours. Please feel comfortable to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about the course. When you send an e-mail, you should use your MCC e-mail account and include your name, last name, and section number.

The online format of instruction, in which 85-100% of content is delivered online, requires a great deal of personal responsibility and self-discipline. Students are expected to maintain a regular and reliable access to the Internet, check Brightspace and MCC e-mail frequently, and complete all course work on time.

Required Text & Materials:

Title: Writing Arguments: A Rhetoric with Readings

Author: John D. Ramage, John C. Bean, June Johnson

Edition: Eleventh Edition

Publisher: Pearson Education, Inc.

ISBN: 978-0-13-477057-4

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION II

ENGL 1302.C96

MCC Bookstore Website: <http://www.mclennan.edu/bookstore/>

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Courses in this category focus on developing ideas and expressing them clearly, considering the effect of the message, fostering understanding, and building the skills needed to communicate persuasively. Courses involve the command of oral, aural, written, and visual literacy skills that enable people to exchange messages appropriate to the subject, occasion, and audience.

- Critical Thinking (CT) -- to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Communications Skill (COM) -- to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
- Teamwork (TW) -- to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- Personal Responsibility (PR) -- to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.
2. Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.
3. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
4. Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
5. Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.).

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

All course materials are posted in Brightspace: course syllabus, lecture slides, videos, writing assignments, quizzes, discussion boards, and other instructional resources. In addition, I will post class announcements, course grades, and other helpful tips. Since most of the course content is delivered online asynchronously, it is students' responsibility to organize their own work, check Brightspace regularly, and complete all course assignments on time.

All English 1302 instructors will assign a research project with shared parameters that will be graded by a common rubric. The project will include both a written product and a presentation. To meet core objectives, students will accurately evaluate, compare, and integrate at least 5 primary and/or secondary sources; cite sources correctly and appropriately using MLA documentation style; and work together to improve the product through shared data collection, peer review, and self and team member analysis.

ENGL 1302 Essay Guidelines:

By the end of the semester, students will have written at least 5 research-based essays totaling approximately 4000 words and/or 20 pages. Essay assignments should demonstrate a student's ability to analyze argumentative rhetoric and to construct an argumentative essay with research documented in MLA format. The following guidelines serve as the ratio for determining final grades:

- 40-50% of the grade will come from 3 essays (that may include preparatory drafts), at least one of which will be written in class with little or no preparation, prior to and in addition to the in-class essay required as part of the final exam
- 20-30% of the grade will come from another essay, one that is research-based (and may include preparatory drafts), of between 5 and 10 pages, utilizing at least 5 sources
- 10-20% of the grade will come from the final exam, of which at least one-half will be an in-class essay written at final exam time
- 10-20% of the grade will come from daily work, such as homework, quizzes, tests, journals, and participation

*Revision to course outline may be made at the discretion of the instructor. Students will be notified in advance about any changes made (in class and in Brightspace).

Course Grading Information:

Course grades will be posted in Brightspace regularly and will be calculated based on the weighted / percentage grade method as follows. Keep in mind that the class average / final calculated grade is the weighted grade based on item or category weighting; it will not be final until the last grade is entered. Grades A-C receive credit; there is no multiplier with dual credit courses. Parents can discuss grades only if FERPA consent has been given by a student in WebAdvisor.

#	Category / Assignment	Weighted / Percentage Grade
1	Daily Work	10 %
2	Reading Quizzes	10 %
3	Major Essays: Classical Argument, Delayed-Thesis Argument, Rhetorical Analysis of a Visual Argument	45 %
4	Researched Argument	30 %
5	Visual Presentation	5 %
	Total	100 %

Daily work category includes evaluation of various writing assignments (exercises, outlines, rough drafts) and online discussion posts. Weekly writing assignments will receive completion grades based on the accuracy of their completion. Grading of discussion boards will be based on quality and quantity of posts: the initial discussion post will be worth 80 points (8-10 sent.), 70 points (6-7 sent.), 60 points (4-5 sent.), or 50 points (1-3 sent.); two replies to your group mates will be worth 20 points (10 points each). Evaluation of Peer Reviews Discussion Boards will be done differently and will be explained in the assignment instructions. Discussion boards have availability dates and will NOT be available after availability ends.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION II

Reading Quizzes consist of ten multiple-choice questions (10 points each), which are mostly based on course readings and lecture slides. All quizzes are timed (10 minutes each) and allow TWO attempts with the highest score recorded. Each quiz has availability dates and after the due date, will no longer be available for the users. Students with registered accommodations will be granted additional time as required by their accommodations.

Students will prepare three major essays (3-4 pages) and one research-based essay (5-6 pages) during the course. Detailed instructions for each essay assignments and a corresponding evaluation rubric are posted in Brightspace. Students are expected to participate in Peer Review Discussion Boards, where they will have an opportunity to swap their papers and receive feedback from their peers. Students who do not participate in peer reviews may expect to have FIVE points deducted off the essay grade.

Final research project will include both a written product (a researched-based essay) and a visual presentation. Students will have to design visual slides using computer software like Power Point or Google Slides to present their argument. A grading rubric for evaluating a visual presentation is posted in Brightspace.

Assignment Guidelines:

Please refer to the following guidelines to complete ALL course assignments:

- All course assignments should be submitted electronically in Brightspace BEFORE the due date. Assignments submitted by e-mail will not be accepted.
- All weekly assignments (quizzes, discussion boards, writing assignments) are due before 11:59 pm each Sunday.
- All assignments have availability dates. After availability ends, the assignments will NOT be available for the users. Writing assignments, including major essays, will be available for THREE more days after the due date; however, late work policy will be applied on all late submissions.
- All writing assignments should be submitted as attached files (preferably a Word or PDF document). Failure to submit the proper file format may result in having a zero for assignment.
- All writing assignments should follow MLA (8th edition) formatting standard (see Formatting Guidelines in Brightspace).
- All page limits refer ONLY to pages of written text and do not include Works Cited page. TEN points per page will be deducted for not meeting the essay length requirement.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION II

ENGL 1302.C96

- Turnitin, plagiarism detection software, will be enabled on all essay submissions. This software will show similarities to online sources and work submitted by other students. If you attempt to resubmit an essay you were writing for another class or submit somebody's paper, Turnitin will be able to detect that, and you will suffer serious academic consequences (see Academic Integrity Statement below).
- For each essay assignment, you are expected to select a brand new topic and develop it in accordance with assignment guidelines. You CANNOT write an essay on the same topic you were writing before for this class or any other classes. Failure to meet this requirement will result in having a zero.
- You may receive FIVE bonus points on an essay if you submit your rough draft to Smarthinking and write a paragraph (140-150 words), explaining the tutor's three main recommendations and reflecting on how they helped you improve your paper. You should turn in your writing and your Smarthinking draft (with tutor's comments) with the final draft in the same submission folder (see Smarthinking Guidelines in Brightspace).
- You may receive FIVE points back on the first two graded essay assignments if you identify five writing errors, write them out, and explain them. This assignment should be sent to me as an e-mail attachment and should be completed no later than TWO WEEKS after an essay grade was published (see Error Analysis Guidelines in Brightspace).

Late Work, Attendance, and Make-Up Work Policies:

In an online course, tracking attendance includes completion of online assignments. No online participation during a week or not a single submission of weekly assignments will equal TWO class absences. According to MCC attendance policy, 25% of absences (eight class sessions or four weeks of no online participation) may result in being withdrawn from the course with the grade of W or F, depending on whether a student is passing.

Each student should complete ALL weekly assignments in Brightspace BEFORE the due date. Patterns of late work will be reflected in lower grade for the course in fairness to others who have done their work on time and sometimes at a great sacrifice. If you need help in getting your course work done, please let me know as soon as possible.

All assignments have availability dates. After availability ends, the assignments will NOT be available for the users. Writing assignments, including major essays, will be available for THREE more days after the due date; however, late work policy will be applied on all late submissions.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION II

ENGL 1302.C96

Late writing assignments will receive only HALF credit (50 points). Major essays submitted after the due date will be marked down as follows: FIVE points will be deducted off submissions up to 12 hours late (TEN points off submissions up to 24 hours late or per one calendar day). If an essay is late beyond three days, it will NOT be accepted and receive a zero. Reading quizzes and discussion boards will NOT be available for the users after availability ends. Incomplete quizzes and discussion boards will receive a zero.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to:

- complete course assignments BEFORE the due date
- be open and ask questions
- communicate sufficiently with the instructor and peers
- be courteous and respectful
- respect differences of culture, nationality, values, opinions, styles

Academic Integrity Statement:

I take all cases of academic dishonesty seriously. I believe academic integrity is the fundamental virtue of any professional community. It is important that students adhere to high standards of professionalism and display academic integrity in their behavior. No cases of plagiarism or other forms of dishonest conduct will be tolerated. Anyone caught committing plagiarism on any assignment will be given a failing grade automatically without permission to make it up.

For further clarification, students will be given a zero for the assignment: 1) if they try to submit somebody else's paper; 2) if they try to submit a paper that was written for another course; 3) if they submit a paper written by someone else; 4) if they copy and paste from online sources with obvious intentions to deceive; 5) if they fail to paraphrase research sources properly and do not use quotation marks to indicate borrowed text ("patchwriting"); 6) if they fail to provide proper documentation for the sources they use; 7) if a paper is written on an unassigned or inappropriate topic.

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit www.mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

Title IX:

We care about your safety, and value an environment where students and instructors can successfully teach and learn together. If you or someone you know experiences unwelcomed behavior, we are here to help. Individuals who would like to report an incident of sexual misconduct are encouraged to immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator at titleix@mclennan.edu or by calling Dr. Drew Canham (Chief of Staff for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion/Title IX) at (254) 299-8645. Individuals also may contact the MCC Police Department at 299-8911 or the MCC Student Counseling Center at MCC at (254) 299-8210. The MCC Student Counseling Center is a confidential resource for students. Any student or employee may report sexual harassment anonymously by visiting <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/mclennan/>.

Go to McLennan's Title IX webpage at www.mclennan.edu/titleix/. It contains more information about definitions, reporting, confidentiality, resources, and what to do if you or someone you know is a victim of sexual misconduct, gender-based violence or the crimes of rape, acquaintance rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence.

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/Faculty-and-Staff-Commons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.
