US HISTORY I
HIST 1301-20

Course Description:

A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War/Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include: American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

Must have passed the reading portion of the TSI Assessment or have credit for INRW 0402. Semester Hours 3 (3 lec).

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

Exams

- 1) Read the textbook assignments and the relevant study questions / terms from Brightspace before class. The exam questions will be similar to the study questions.
- 2) Take notes. The sooner you learn, the easier your time in college will be. If you do not know how to take notes, there are guides on Brightspace to help you learn. The PowerPoint presentations are not notes, they are only a very basic outline.
- 3) After class, answer the study questions and define the terms using your notes and the textbook readings.
- 4) Start studying for exams at least three days before. Use the weekend before the exam to do the bulk of your studying so you do not have to cram at the last minute.
- 5) If something is not clear, if you are unsure of your preparation, ask for help.

Book Quizzes

- 1) Give yourself adequate time to read the book. Do not read too far ahead because you may forget some of the material. Do not plan to skim the book the night before.
- 2) Use the study questions from Brightspace as you read through the book and take notes
- 3) The quiz questions will be similar to the study questions, just like the exams.
- 4) If something is not clear, if you are unsure of your preparation, ask for help.

Class Participation

- 1) Pay attention in class and to the Podcasts, 10% of your course grade depends on it.
- 2) Take lecture notes and use the Study Guides, you may use them on the class participation quizzes.
- 3) Class participation quizzes will be administered online, in the latter half of the week and will be located in the section modules. The quizzes might also cover the online podcasts.

Tutorial Meetings:

To take maximum advantage of Brightspace and online testing, there will be tutorial class meetings for questions and clarifications over the course material prior to the major course exams. Tutorial meetings are optional, if you are comfortable with the material and have no questions or concerns, you are not required to attend.

Class Participation Standard:

Any student who does not have a minimum of 2 exam grades or 1 exam & 2 book quiz grades by week 15 of the course is subject to be dropped for not meeting the minimum participation requirement, regardless of attendance. Simply being present in class and not participating in assessments (exams & quizzes) is not an option in this course.

Face to Face Class Meeting Cancellation:

Be sure to check the Brightspace Announcements section each day you meet are scheduled to meet face to face to see if has been necessary to cancel class that day because of a public health (i.e. COVID-19) related event. If, to mitigate personal health risks that would endanger continuity of instruction, or, because of unnecessary public health risk to the students or the instructor, the instructor reserves the right to cancel scheduled face-to-face class meetings via a timely Announcement on Brightspace. If there is no Announcement, then class will meet as scheduled.

Course Force Majeure:

If (1) the instructor cannot hold pass the MCC Daily Health Assessment (2) because of one or more involuntary quarantines of the instructor, or (3) under mandate by an administrative authority other than the instructor, then the recorded podcasts will stand as a good faith substitute for face to face class meetings. Continued enrollment in this class will constitute acceptance of this contingency and that the instructor and MCC will be held harmless in the occurrence without remedy. Withdrawal from the course will constitute acceptance of the same.

- I reserve the right to use Zoom for communication purposes this semester, though I have no plans to utilize that technology at this time. I will NOT be using Zoom for instructional purposes.

Other Instruction Information: Most of my classes are off-campus this semester, so I will only be my office on Monday and Wednesday mornings. I far prefer that you email me rather than call me because I will get the message much faster.

Course Notices & Communications:

All correspondence between the instructor and the students will be through the MCC email system, via Brightspace, using only the student email addresses assigned by MCC. All students should check their MCC email accounts at least a couple times a week. All emails to me should be sent from your MCC student email address as the school servers often quarantine non-MCC email as spam. I check my email regularly and it is the best means to reach me if I am off campus.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

communication, social responsibility and personal responsibility. A departmental rubric may be used to assess different aspects of the course objectives.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Critical Thinking: Through lecture and a variety of objective strategies, students will be assessed on critical thinking ability. Objective examinations will specifically be used to assess critical thinking. Other assessment vehicles may include essays, portfolios, primary source objective exams, and presentations.

Communication: Measures such as objective tests, written assignments, discussions, portfolios and presentations may be used to measure the student's ability to communicate.

Social Responsibility: Because the teaching of history involves evoking examples of successes and failures in social responsibility, and the continual importance of this issue politically and personally today, social responsibility naturally is emphasized. Assessment measures may include readings, primary document exams, discussions, projects and essays.

Personal Responsibility: Because the teaching of history also involves evoking examples of successes and failures in personal responsibility, and the consequences that personal choices can have, personal responsibility is also naturally emphasized. Assessment measures may include participation, readings, primary document exams, discussions, projects and essays.

Course Outline or Schedule:

This is a general overview of the course. A semester-specific, date-specific detailed schedule will appear on Brightspace in the Course Policies / Helpful Links section under the Content tab.

Extra Credit Work: There will be opportunities to earn extra credit. The assignments and due dates are posted on Brightspace. Extra credit only applies to exams and book quizzes, not Class Participation.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Makeup exams and quizzes will be available for students who have missing grades on the dates posted in the course schedule. Missed Class Participation Quizzes cannot be made up as they are directly tied to class attendance that day.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

1. This is a College Class. You will receive the grade you earn—and this grade will be a permanent entry on your college transcript.
2. Attitude and conduct are part of your grade. If you cannot pay attention, stay awake and make an effort to absorb the class material, your chances of succeeding in this course are poor. Nothing on Facebook, Twitter or Youtube will be on the exams.
3. Ask for help if you need it. You can understand anything if it is explained to you properly.
4. Attendance is required. MCC policy requires you be removed from the class if you have more than seven (7) unexcused absences. There is also a participation threshold to meet regardless of attendance. Being late to class twice will count as an absence.
5. You will use your MCC email account. You are responsible for the contents of all class emails, announcements and all the content on the course Brightspace website.
6. In Class Absences: if students cannot disengage from Social Media or remain awake for the duration of class, the instructor reserves the right to count them absent for the day. This also applies to doing work for other classes. This will apply to the 8-absence limit allowed by MCC and could lead to being dropped from the course.
7. Cheating in any form will result in a zero (0) for that grade item; additional disciplinary action may be taken according to the policy outlined in the student handbook. Zeros (0) resulting from cheating offenses cannot be dropped.
8. Students are prohibited from eating in the classroom; this is division policy.

Course Academic Integrity Statement:

All students who enroll in this course are subject to a zero-tolerance standard for cheating and plagiarism. Remaining in the course implies consent to this policy. Consult the policy (see link above) to see what MCC defines as cheating and plagiarism —it is your responsibility to know and ignorance is not a defense. Cheating and/or plagiarism will result in a grade of zero (0) for the grade item and all additional penalties listed in MCC's guidelines will be implemented as detailed on the website. Cheating includes giving or receiving help on in-class exams or quizzes and turning in work that is significantly similar to that of another student. Plagiarism is defined as using specific information or material taken from published works and claiming it as one's own. This includes not citing sources or quotations. It does not apply to general facts; for example, that the Battle of Chancellorsville took place in 1863. Any instances of suspected plagiarism will be referred, on appeal, electronically to the Turnitin website for final adjudication—the findings in that instance will be final and the matter will be closed sine die. Zeros (0) resulting from cheating or plagiarism violations cannot be dropped from the grade calculations. Also, a FERPA release does not give others the ability to intervene or advocate on your behalf—you as the student must answer for and defend your actions alone. Finally, the instructor reserves the right, if the nature of the offense is egregious, to give the student or students involved a cumulative course grade of F. For Dual Credit Students, that will constitute a cumulative numerical grade of 10.

Course Attendance Policy

This course will adhere to the MCC Attendance Policy as stated, with the following additions:

1. If you have to quarantine, you will still be expected to keep up with your class work using the podcasts and PowerPoint PDFs. Allowances will be made for Class Participation Quizzes as needed. You will also be expected to complete exams and quizzes online by the dates posted in the schedule.
2. If you are actually ill and unable to do your course work, allowances will be made for you to finish the course, even if that is after the end of the semester. The instructor and student will work out a plan based on the student's individual situation and the time remaining in the semester.
