APPLIED PIANO

MUAP 1169-02

Course Outline or Schedule:

The lesson materials and schedule will be determined on a student-by-student basis. Once the student and instructor meet, they will outline a plan and goals for the semester to help the student progress toward a jury performance at the end of the semester. The student will be expected to practice at least five hours per week outside of the lesson time.

There will be periodic studio classes (with all piano students) on Friday morning from 8:30–9:30. These are optional but can be very beneficial. Some of these will be held on campus (MTA 110), and some may be online. The instructor will post the specific schedule to Brightspace.

Students will also be required to attend two concerts or recitals during the semester. (Music majors are required 15, but those will be tracked by their primary instrument instructor.) Turn in programs (or a pictures of a programs) from recitals you attend throughout the semester to get credit for the attendance requirement. If attending recitals is not possible due to health concerns, students may watch live streams or recordings of concerts for credit.

Course Grading Information:

The grade will be based on lesson participation and preparation, as well as performance in the final jury. The instructor will judge how well the student prepares each week and provide a grade (out of 5 points) and feedback. Twelve lesson scores will count toward the final grade (up to two may be dropped). The grade for the final jury (20 points) will be based on preparation of the music, accuracy of execution, and musicality of the performance.

Lesson preparation and participation: 5 points/week	60 points	60%
Recital attendance: 5 points each	10 points	10%
Jury performance:	20 points	20%
Total grade:	100 points	100%

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

If it is necessary to reschedule a lesson, the instructor will work with the student to schedule a time. If a student does not show up to an assigned lesson time without contacting the instructor ahead of time, the lesson will not be rescheduled and the student will receive a 0 for that lesson. Since only 12 lesson scores count toward the final grade, a student may miss one or two lessons without affecting their grade, but additional missed lessons will have a negative impact on the final grade.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to conduct themselves properly and respectfully during lessons and in all communications.
