Methods of Teaching and Learning:

One-on-one weekly synchronous lessons, Lab exercises (voice warmups and vocalizes), research and critical thinking skills (Verbal Quizzes, and Self-Evaluation Reflections). Students will be asked to demonstrate vocalizes learned throughout the semester and “how to practice”.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

MUAP 1182 engages in the creative process and comprehend the physical and intellectual demands of the musical artist. A private “one-on-one” Voice Class and Group Class (Studio Class), synchronous and asynchronous performances for self-evaluation, participate in the constructive critiquing of oneself and colleagues to demonstrate improvement in the study of the singing voice.

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate through memorized live and recorded performances various types of Western Classical repertoire with an efficient, free vocal technique.
- Establish correct breath support and a “noble” posture to facilitate projection, resonance, and tone quality for the purpose of beautiful solo singing.
- Use excellent lyric diction to support vocal production.
- Interpret and express the meaning of the text in songs and arias.
- Develop musicianship and constructive criticism evaluation skills.
- Memorize and perform 4 songs per semester. Number of songs are determined at the Instructor’s discretion.
- Students performing Opera and/or Musical Theater Roles receive credit toward one repertoire item in both the Fall and Spring. Please discuss this with your Instructor.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

In studying and teaching voice, one needs to be aware that the body is the musical instrument. There is a certain amount of touching that must occur in the live Face to Face lesson. The teacher may ask permission to touch the student in the mid torso area, neck, face, arms. In turn, the student may be asked to touch the teacher as he/she demonstrates a technique. It is important to remember that this is part of the professional process of teaching/learning about the singing voice.
