Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Though the course is largely oriented around lectures on various topics, the instructor seeks to incorporate class discussion into the context of the lectures. At various times in the semester, the class will focus on a particular document, text or film. At these points, the focus will largely be on student participation/discussion with relevant faculty direction.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

Courses in this category focus on how ideas, values, beliefs, and other aspects of culture express and affect human experience. Courses involve the exploration of ideas that foster aesthetic and

Learning Unit 10: Bacon & Hobbes
Learning Unit 11: Descartes
Learning Unit 12: Locke
Learning Unit 13: Kant
Learning Unit 14: Marx
Learning Unit 15: Nietzsche

Course Grading Information:

Quizzes: Will consist of multiple choice, True/False and fill in the blank questions.

Writing Assignments (Mid-term and Final): For the mid-term and final you will be required to compose an “academic encyclopedia” entry. The student will write an academic encyclopedia article over one of the philosophers or topics that we have over the course of the class. Using the examples provides, the textbook for the class, research databases and reputable academic online sources, the student will provide a concise but thorough article on the selected philosopher or philosophical topic. The article should be approximately 500 words. It should be grammatically correct. It should cite any sources used in either print or internet material (lack of citation will result in an incomplete grade for the assignment). DO NOT copy/paste a wikipedia article (or other similar online source) into the assignment box. This should constitute original work and failure to comply in this regard will result in an F for the assignment. Each of these assignments will be worth 75 points. The total value of the writing assignments is 150 points.

Discussion Participation: At the end of each Learning Unit you will be required to view a "Prezi" presentation (or other material). You will then be prompted to launch a discussion board for that particular unit related to the "Prezi." There will be a starter thread there with instructions on how to proceed. For each discussion board you will be required to post your own response to the thread. The clarity of your post, the grammatical correctness of your post and the accuracy of the information present in the post will all contribute to your overall grade. There will be a total of 10 points a week for Discussion Board participation. The total value of Discussion Board participation is 150 points.

PHIL 1301.F81

Letter Grade	Point Range
A	600 - 540
B	539 - 480
C	479 - 420
D	419 - 360
F	359 - 0

Note Well: This is strictly a points system. You must get to a particular point total to receive the grade you desire. DO NOT get caught up with percentages, decimals and rounding up. If you want an “A” then you need at least 540 points or above. If you get 539 it is a “B” and is non-negotiable.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Late work will not be accepted for any reason. If you anticipate missing a class when an assignment is due, please turn the assignment in prior to that class meeting. Since all assignments other than exams are given in advance, students should be able to complete assignments ahead of time if necessary.

Make up exams will only be allowed in the case of excused (MCC approved) absences and are highly discouraged. The make-up exam will be a different exam from the exam given to the rest of the class. Please make every effort to take exams at the times scheduled.

No incomplete grades will be issued. Please complete all assignments and exams by the assigned time. Any incomplete work will be calculated into the final grade as a “0” and submitted as such.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner conducive to a proper learning environment. Not only is disruptive conduct not tolerated, but full participation is expected by all students in attendance.

Students of the College, while on campus and/or participating in any function or activity of the College, are expected to meet acceptable standards of dress and personal hygiene. A student’s dress or personal hygiene shall be considered unacceptable if it inhibits or interferes with the educational responsibility of the college community or if it disrupts the administrative functions of the College, including social-educational activities.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES/POLICIES

Accommodations/ADA Statement:

Any student who is a qualified individual with a disability may request reasonable accommodations to assist with providing equal access to educational opportunities. Students should contact the Accommodations Coordinator as soon as possible to provide documentation and make necessary arrangements. Once that process is completed, appropriate verification will be provided to the student and instructor. Please note that instructors are not required to provide classroom accommodations to students until appropriate verification has been provided by the Accommodations Coordinator. For additional information, please visit www.mclennan.edu/disability.

Students with questions or who require assistance with disabilities involving physical, classroom, or testing accommodations should contact:

disabilities@mclennan.edu

Room 319, Student Services Center

Title IX:

We care about your safety, and value an environment where students and instructors can successfully teach and learn together. If you or someone you know experiences unwelcomed behavior, we are here to help. Individuals who would like to report an incident of sexual misconduct are encouraged to immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator at titleix@mclennan.edu or by calling Dr. Drew Canham (Chief of Staff for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion/Title IX) at (254) 299-8645. Individuals also may contact the MCC Police Department at 299-8911 or the MCC Student Counseling Center at MCC at (254) 299-8210. The MCC Student Counseling Center is a confidential resource for students. Any student or employee may report sexual harassment anonymously by visiting <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/mclennan/>.

Go to McLennan's Title IX webpage at www.mclennan.edu/titleix/. It contains more information about definitions, reporting, confidentiality, resources, and what to do if you or someone you know is a victim of sexual misconduct, gender-based violence or the crimes of rape, acquaintance rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, dating violence, or domestic violence.

Student Support/Resources:

MCC provides a variety of services to support student success in the classroom and in your academic pursuits to include counseling, tutors, technology help desk, advising, financial aid, etc. A listing of these and the many other services available to our students is available at <http://www.mclennan.edu/campus-resource-guide/>

College personnel recognize that food, housing, and transportation are essential for student success. If you are having trouble securing these resources or want to explore strategies for balancing life and school, we encourage you to contact a Success Coach by calling (254) 299-8226 or emailing SuccessCoach@mclennan.edu. Students may visit the Completion Center Monday-Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. to schedule a meeting with a Success Coach and receive additional resources and support to help reach academic and personal goals. Paulanne's Pantry (MCC's food pantry) provides free food by appointment to students, faculty and staff based on household size. Text (254) 870-7573 to schedule a pantry appointment. The Completion Center and pantry are located on the Second Floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/Faculty-and-Staff-Commons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

Disclaimer:

The resources and policies listed above are merely for informational purposes and are subject to change without notice or obligation. The College reserves the right to change policies and other requirements in compliance with State and Federal laws. The provisions of this document do not constitute a contract.
