Also, the instructor has the prerogative of determining whether a student may make up work missed due to absences for other reasons. It is the student’s responsibility to inform the instructor of the reason for an absence and to do so in a timely fashion. If the student misses an exam, he/she will be allowed to make up the missed exam ONLY IF the absence is caused by one of the 4 causes listed above. Personal illnesses will require a doctor’s note before you can make up any missed exams or work.

LARGE ANIMAL ASSISTING TECHNIQUES

This course MUST be passed with a “C” or better as part of eligibility to graduate. A “C” is defined according to the syllabi, depending on whether the student is a veterinary assistant or veterinary technician.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

- Students will be ON TIME and attend all lectures, arrive prepared for class-having read/studied the assigned the material
- Exams will be as scheduled (unless otherwise announced in Brightspace under course “Announcements”). Failure to complete the exam by the due date will result in a zero (0) for that exam, unless the absence is considered excused, as defined by MCC’s policy.
- There will be NO retakes of failed exams
- All worksheet assignments are due when noted. Failure to complete assignments by the due date will result in a loss of a minimum of (5) points for that assignment. A grade of (0) will be assigned for failure to complete an assignment at all.
- Turn off/silence all cell phones and pagers while in the classroom-you are here to LEARN, not visit on your phone during class time. If you have a special need to be available for medical calls, sick family member, etc., you need to make prior arrangements for approval to answer it during class. You will leave the room to do so.
- Students are to use the restroom/tend to personal needs before or after class. Leaving the class during class time (lecture) is disrespectful and disruptive to both the instructor and fellow students. IF you must leave the room, you will do so quietly, exiting around the back of the room and entering as you left.
- Limited food/drink will be allowed in lecture. It will not be allowed in lab unless the instructor allows for it. No food or drink are allowed in Rooms 119 or 107 during labs.

Lecture Attire-scrub top, jeans with no holes, stains, tears, etc. or scrubs are allowed. Closed toed shoes are to be worn to all classes. Only one piercing per ear lobe is allowed while in class-no other piercings (with jewelry) during class. Earrings must be designed to be worn “close” to the ear. No large hoops, etc. as they can present a hazard when working around large animals or large animal equipment.

Lab Attire-jeans or scrubs, (as noted above), proper shoes-NO open toes/sandals will be allowed. Boots or similar footwear is recommended. Steel toed shoes or boots are not recommended. Tennis shoes or any “soft” shoe is not ideal when working on or around large animals.

LARGE ANIMAL ASSISTING TECHNIQUES

You MUST wear a scrub top. Coveralls are optional. Rubber boots may be desired as well.

NO loose clothing (scarfs, etc.) or jewelry (long necklaces, bracelets, earrings that hang down) should be worn as this may pose a safety risk given the animals and/or equipment involved. Only one earring is allowed in each ear lobe-NO other piercings with jewelry are allowed.

Large animal work generally involves being outside regardless of the weather. You are expected to be dressed appropriately for the conditions-forgetting a coat, etc. will not excuse you from lab. If you are not in compliance with the required dress, you will be marked absent for that day from lab but will not be excused.

Field trips-attire to be determined by instructor PRN, when and if field trips take place.

MCC Veterinary Technology/Assistant Dress Code:

You must wear closed-toe non-slip shoes at all times for lecture and/or lab. Students may wear the following to;

Lecture Dress Code:

- Jeans (clean with no holes) scrub pants, or casual dress slacks
- Scrub top, Polo shirt, button down shirt or blouse

Lab Dress Code:

- Closed toed, non-slip shoes
- Scrub top and jeans or a full scrub set

The following dress is prohibited:

- Open toed shoes, slippers/house shoes, leggings, shorts, capri pants, short skirts or kilts
- Tank tops/spaghetti strap tops
- No clothing with inappropriate messages or symbols (that may be considered rude or offensive) will be allowed.

Students are expected to show up to class in the required dress. Failure to do so will result in the student being marked as absent for that class.

This course is taught on the basis of mutual respect. I respect your desire to learn the material and will do my best to present it in a way to facilitate learning. You need to respect the classroom environment, your fellow students, and the instructor.

The Veterinary Technician's Oath

"I solemnly dedicate myself to aiding animals and society by providing excellent care and services for animals, by alleviating animal suffering, and promoting public health. I accept my obligations to practice my profession conscientiously and with sensitivity, adhering to the profession's Code of Ethics, and furthering my knowledge and competence through a commitment to lifelong learning."

NEW TARDY POLICY EFFECTIVE SP 2020

In order to ensure students arrive on time for class, please note that effective for Spring 2020, the classroom instructor will be locking the classroom door 10 minutes after class begins. If a student arrives late and the door is locked, please know that the student will NOT be allowed in the classroom and will be counted absent for that class period. If a student leaves the classroom during the class (for anything other than an emergency)-such as becoming ill, or specific phone calls-for example a sick child, doctor's office, etc.-they will NOT be allowed to return to the classroom. Personal needs need to be taken care of between classes.

For classes (either lecture or labs), that last more than the approximate 50 minute period, a tardy student may be allowed into that class when the class takes a scheduled break or at the instructors discretion if scheduled breaks are not practical.

This policy is to help diminish disruption of the class, and to help ensure student safety while in the classroom.
