Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

The student will develop competency by comprehending and analyzing the positions of those who are regarded as experts and well studies on correctional issues. It is important to consider every variety of opinion in an attempt to determine the truth. Opinions from the mainstream of society will be examined. Also considered are opinions that may be radical, reactionary or minority as well as those stigmatized by some other uncomplimentary label.

LEGAL ASPECTS OF CORRECTIONS

CJCR 2325 F1

Students will approach this course with their own opinions on the issues. To have a good grasp of one's own viewpoint, it is necessary to understand the arguments of those with whom one disagrees. It can be said that those who do not completely understand their adversary's opinion do not fully understand their own. Through classroom debate students can develop critical thinking skills as a way to attain higher-level thinking and reading skills essential in a culture of diverse and contradictory opinions.
