Course Grading Information:

By the end of the semester, students will have written five essays totaling between 25 and 40 pages. The following guidelines serve as the ratio for determining final grades:

- 45% of the grade will come from the major essays, at least one of which may be written in class with little or no preparation;
- 25% of the grade will come from the research-based argument essay, between 5-10 pages long and utilizing at least 5 sources;
- 20% of the grade will come from the final exam, of which at least one half will be an essay written in class;
- 10% of the grade will come from daily work, such as homework, quizzes, in-class writing assignments, and workshop participation.

MCC Grading System

A	Excellent.....	100%-90%
B	Good	89%-80%
C	Fair.....	79%-70%
D	Poor	69%-60%
F	Failing.....	below 60%
W	Withdrew — This grade is given for an instructor- or student-initiated course withdrawal through the 9th week of a semester (fourth week, Summer day term; sixth week, Summer nine-week term).
I	Incomplete — This grade is given when a course is incomplete because of student's absence caused by illness or other reasons acceptable to the instructor. To be eligible for this grade, the student must have essentially completed the course. The work remaining should be of such a nature as to not require class attendance. If the work is not made up within the following long semester, the I will be changed to an F and the course must be repeated if credit is to be given.

The first time a student submits plagiarized work to the instructor, that assignment will receive a score of zero points. The second time a student submits plagiarized work to the instructor, that student will earn an F in the course. For further details, see Academic Integrity Statement below.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make-Up Work Policies:

All work is due at the time that it was assigned to be turned in. A deadline is a deadline. All late work will automatically lose 10 percent of its total value beginning at the moment the task is due, and will continue to lose 10 percent per day until the grade is a zero. After the assignment is three days late, it will not be accepted and will earn a score of zero points.

The following possible penalties will be enforced on all applicable assignments:

- Failure to submit a digital copy of an assignment results in a 100% deduction.
- Failure to double space an assignment results in a 15% deduction.

Unless arrangements are made in advance with the instructor, there will be no make-ups for missed daily work, quizzes, or exams.

For students who are retaking this course, you may not reuse essays written in a previous semester, in part or in whole. All writing that you submit must be new and original work.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to adhere to MCC's General Conduct Policy in terms of behavior in and out of the classroom. In addition to avoiding classroom disruptions and obeying state and federal laws, students are expected to avoid acts of dishonesty, such as cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty. Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity.

For face-to-face classes, any behavior that disrupts the learning process will be grounds for dismissal from the class for that day. Unacceptable behavior includes (but is not limited to) excessive lateness, walking out of class without the instructor's permission, talking in class, reading or doing outside work in class, listening to music, making and/or receiving phone calls and/or text messages, and eating in class. Students who are sleeping, who appear to be sleeping, or who refuse to participate in assigned class activities will be counted absent for the day. Student who use smartphones in class, or who appear to be using smartphones (as determined by the instructor), will be marked absent for the day. Additionally, two tardies will be counted as an absence.

Student use of electronic devices is prohibited in face-to-face classes, unless prior approval from the instructor is granted. The use of a non-approved device, or the appearance of use (as determined by the instructor), will result in a recorded absence for the student for that day.

ENGL 1301 Academic-Integrity Statement:

Students are expected to adhere to MCC's General Conduct Policy in terms of behavior in and out of the classroom. In addition to avoiding classroom disruptions and obeying state and federal laws, students are expected to avoid acts of dishonesty, such as cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty:

The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; or (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the MCC faculty or staff.

The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. Students who submit plagiarized work (in part or in whole) will receive a grade of zero on that work. Further, students who allow their work to be plagiarized will also receive a zero on the work in question. Students who submit plagiarized work (in part or in whole) a second time, or who allow their work to be plagiarized a second time, will receive a grade of F for the course.

Some plagiarism is determined very objectively, that is to say, the instructor finds matching sequences of text (phrases, sentences, paragraphs) published by another author. Other plagiarism is determined more subjectively, that is to say, the instructor will evaluate the text's authenticity and originality. One tool the instructor may apply to determine authenticity and originality is comparing and contrasting the text to other work the student has generated in the class. This includes, but is not limited to, discussion, homework, quizzes, in-class writings, essays, and exams. Additionally, a meeting with the student to discuss the paper may be another tool the instructor employs to assess a text's authenticity and originality.

All texts that contain plagiarism will be presented to MCC's Coordinator of Discipline. The Coordinator may determine additional penalties.

MCC Attendance Policy:

* Click Here for the MCC Attendance/Absences Policy
(<https://www.mclennan.edu/highlander-guide/policies.html>)

Click on the link above for the college policies on attendance and absences. Your instructor may have guidelines specific to this course.

ENGL 1301 Attendance Policy:

Regular and punctual attendance is expected of all students, and each instructor will maintain a complete record of attendance for the entire length of each course, including online and hybrid courses. Students will be counted absent from class meetings missed, beginning with the first official day of classes. Students, whether present or absent, are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades. Please refer to the Highlander Guide for the complete policy.

For online courses, a student earns an absence for each assignment that is not turned in.

Students with recorded absences that equal or exceed 25% of the semester's scheduled classes will be withdrawn from the course. For a 16-week semester, eight absences exceeds the 25% plateau. For a 16-week hybrid semester, four absences exceeds the 25% plateau. For a summer class, five absences exceeds the 25% plateau. For a minimester class, three absences exceeds the 25% plateau.

Students who fail to attend three consecutive classes (in a 16-week course) or two consecutive classes (in a hybrid, summer, or minimester course) without communicating valid reasons (as determined by the instructor) in writing for each absence will be withdrawn from the class.

McLennan Community College Guidelines for Avoiding Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the intentional—or unintentional—use of someone else’s work without adequate documentation. Whenever writers want to include another’s ideas, key terms, or copied text into their own papers, they must always use that borrowed information accurately and ethically.

Documentation, an agreed upon style of providing credit to others’ work, is necessary in order to avoid plagiarism. Plagiarism is a serious offense in college-level writing, for it is intellectually dishonest, robbing authors of their property.

All documentation styles include internal citations, a works cited list, and quotation marks around copied terms and information.

To consider: As we would never borrow one of our neighbor’s possessions without asking permission, we should never use someone’s words or ideas without permission. Correctly documenting someone else’s material permits us legal use of words and ideas not belonging to us.

It should be obvious that buying papers, using someone else’s papers, and similar activities are plagiarism at its worst.

Each instructor will determine penalties for plagiarized work.

Tip: As many documentation styles exist (MLA, APA, and Chicago are used in colleges and universities), be certain to ask your professor which type of documentation style is required for the class.

Document when

- You use someone’s ideas from any traditional or web source
- You copy sentences and phrases from a source
- You copy a key term from a source
- You use information from an interview or survey
- You copy pictures, charts, and diagrams from sources
- You use information you did not originate
