progress toward a studio performance during the semester and a jury performance at the end of the semester. The student will be expected to practice at least five hours per week outside of the lesson time.

Course Grading Information:

The grade will be based on lesson participation and preparation, as well as performance in the final jury. The instructor will judge how well the student prepares each week and provide a grade (out of 10 points) and feedback. Twelve lesson scores will count toward the final grade (up to two may be dropped). The grade for the final jury (30 points) will be based on preparation of the music, accuracy of execution, and musicality of the performance.

Lesson preparation and participation: 10 points/week	120 points	80%
Jury performance:	30 points	20%
Total grade:	150 points	100%

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

If it is necessary to reschedule a lesson, the instructor will work with the student to schedule a time. If a student does not show up to an assigned lesson time without contacting the instructor ahead of time, the lesson will not be rescheduled and the student will receive a 0 for that lesson.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to conduct themselves properly and respectfully during lessons.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to www.mclennan.edu/studentemail.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

You can find help on the McLennan website about connecting your McLennan email account to your mobile device:

- Email Setup for iPhones and iPads
- Email Setup for Androids

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

For more helpful information about technology at MCC, go to MCC's Tech Support Cheat Sheet or email helpdesk@mclennan.edu.
