INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 1301 36

Writing Assignments (Mid-term and Final): For the mid-term and final you will be required to compose an “academic encyclopedia” entry. The student will write an academic encyclopedia article over one of the philosophers or topics that we have over the course of the class. Using the examples provides, the textbook for the class, research databases and reputable academic online sources, the student will provide a concise but thorough article on the selected philosopher or philosophical topic. The article should be approximately 500 words. It should be grammatically correct. It should cite any sources used in either print or internet material (lack of citation will result in an incomplete grade for the assignment). DO NOT copy/paste a wikipedia article (or other similar online source) into the assignment box. This should constitute original work and failure to comply in this regard will result in an F for the assignment. Each of these assignments will be worth 75 points. The total value of the writing assignments is 150 points.

Discussion Participation: I will keep a daily log of your participation on days that we cover Plato’s Republic. We will have ten class meetings where we discuss the Republic and you will be eligible for 10 points on each of those days. If you are absent on one of those days you may make up for discussion by turning in a 500 word response to the readings for that day. You may turn in a maximum of two make up responses for the entire semester.

Grade Scale:

Letter Grade	Point Range
A	700-630
B	629-560
C	559-490
D	489-420
F	419-0

Note Well: This is strictly a points system. You must get to a particular point total to receive the grade you desire. DO NOT get caught up with percentages, decimals and rounding up. If you want an “A” then you need at least 540 points or above. If you get 539 it is a “B” and is non-negotiable.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make-Up Work Policies:

Late work will not be accepted for any reason. If you anticipate missing a class when an assignment is due, please turn the assignment in prior to that class meeting. Since all assignments other than exams are given in advance, students should be able to complete assignments ahead of time if necessary.

Make up exams will only be allowed in the case of excused (MCC approved) absences and are highly discouraged. The make-up exam will be a different exam from the exam given to the rest of the class. Please make every effort to take exams at the times scheduled.

No incomplete grades will be issued. Please complete all assignments and exams by the assigned time. Any incomplete work will be calculated into the final grade as a “0” and submitted as such.
