Methods of Teaching and Learning:

This course uses video tutorials, video and written discussion board entries, online reading, writing, listening, and speaking activities, online quizzes, online module tests, one cultural research project, and two one-on-one oral interviews with the instructor via Zoom.

Course Objectives and/or Competencies:

This course will focus on how ideas, values, beliefs, and other aspects of culture express and affect human experience. This course involves the exploration of ideas that foster aesthetic and intellectual creation in order to understand the human condition across cultures.

This course aims to develop all four aspects of communication in the Spanish language: listening, speaking, reading and writing. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to do the following:

1. Engage in conversations using level-appropriate grammatical structures including narrating events that take place in the past.
2. Demonstrate understanding of level-appropriate spoken Spanish produced by Spanish speakers of diverse origins.
3. Write simple to moderately complex sentences using level-appropriate grammatical structures and organize them into cohesive paragraphs.

4. Read and comprehend level-appropriate authentic texts.
5. Identify and discuss traditions, customs and values of the Hispanic world.
6. Compare and contrast the traditions, customs and values of the Hispanic world with characteristics of their own culture.

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board requires that all courses in the Foundational Component area of Language, Philosophy, and Culture teach these Core Objectives:

- Critical Thinking Skills (CT): “to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.”
- Communication Skills (COMM): “to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.”
- Social Responsibility (SR): “to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.”
- Personal Responsibility (PR): “to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.”

Course Attendance/Participation Guidelines:

If a student is not in attendance in accordance with the policies/guidelines of the class as outlined in the course syllabus as of the course census date, faculty are required to drop students from their class roster prior to certifying the respective class roster. A student’s financial aid will be re-evaluated accordingly and the student will only receive funding for those courses attended as of the course census date.

Before the 60% point of the semester, a student who is absent for 25% or more of a face-to-face or blended course or who misses 25% or more of assigned work for an online course can be withdrawn from the course with a grade of W. A student may also request to be withdrawn with a grade of W before the 60% point of the semester. After the 60% point of the semester, the student may request to be withdrawn if the student is passing, or be assigned the final grade earned at the end of the semester after grades have been updated to reflect missing work.

Attendance is measured through regular participation in this course, which is expected of all students. In a blended class this means you must actively participate in class every Tuesday and Thursday from 9:35-10:55am as well as virtually in all assignments/activities, utilize all resources posted such as teaching materials and study plans, complete your work on time, and not miss any deadlines or tasks. An absence is constituted by missing any class, discussion board, study plan, tutorial, homework assignment, oral exam, test, or presentation. Students are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course from the first official day of classes and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades. If you are not participating (not doing your work) for any reason, you cannot earn participation points. It is MCC policy that once you miss 25% of the class, regardless of the reason for the absence, you can be withdrawn by the professor.

Course Grading Information:

The grade for this course will come from the following components: cultural presentation, online tests, oral interviews, discussion board posts and replies in Brightspace, Lumen/Waymaker study plans and quizzes, and attendance and participation. Every week you will receive oral and/or written feedback from the professor on Brightspace and through Lumen/Waymaker. The grades will be kept in a grade book on Brightspace and will be weighted as follows:

Online Tests (3)	22%
Oral Exams (2)	24%
Discussion Board Posts and Responses (4)	14%
Lumen Study Plans & Quizzes (12 plans and quizzes)	20%
Attendance/Participation	10%
Cultural Project/Presentation	10%

Details on the following grade components:

- Online Tests: 3 tests will be taken online via Brightspace, utilizing a webcam monitoring program to ensure academic integrity (Lockdown Browser with Monitor). Please note that due to the comprehensive nature of language learning, each module builds on prior learning. For that reason, it is extremely important to study regularly and to continuously review older material. If you try to wait until the last minute and cram for a test, the material is not likely to make it into long-term memory, which will make it very difficult to do well as the semester progresses.
- Oral Exams: 2 one-on-one oral evaluations with the instructor (one midterm and one final), lasting approximately 5-10 minutes each, conducted via Zoom. Students will be provided with all of the questions they might be asked in advance. Questions are designed for students to demonstrate mastery of vocabulary and grammar lessons studied, and students will be graded on comprehension, grammatical accuracy, use of complete sentences, fluency, and pronunciation. A detailed grading rubric will be posted in the oral exams content folder in Brightspace.
- Discussion Board Video/Written Posts: Students will respond orally via “videonote” or in writing by creating a new thread to discussion topics related to the unit vocabulary by posting a video or written response. Post early so you can review all posts and respond.
- Online Study Plans & Quizzes: (12 each) Students will watch video tutorials and complete a variety of listening, speaking, reading, and writing exercises in Brightspace for each module, and then take a module quiz before taking the module test. The study plan activities are graded based on completion (not accuracy) and are designed to help students learn prior to taking the quizzes; failure to complete them will result in a loss of points for both the Study Plan and the attendance/participation category. Each module is broken into 4 or 5 sections. As students complete the self-checks at the end of each section, they will see their grade for the Study Plan increase by 20-25%. YOU MUST COMPLETE THE “SELF CHECK” EXERCISES TO EARN CREDIT FOR EACH SECTION OF THE STUDY PLANS. The quizzes are graded for accuracy. Students will have two attempts per quiz, and the highest grade for each quiz will be recorded. I strongly encourage you to budget enough time in between attempts to be able to go back and study the concepts you miss on your first attempt before making your second attempt.

- Cultural Presentation: Students will conduct a semester-long research project and give an oral presentation in which they will demonstrate the ability to speak fluently in the target language for 3 minutes. Requirements and grading criteria (rubric) are on Brightspace in the “presentación” module. The video I posted includes an example of how to create the presentation.
- Attendance & Participation: To earn full attendance and participation points, students must attend class for the entire class period, log into Brightspace and complete work at least two days per week, view all digital content assigned, meet all due dates for assignments and assessments, read and respond to all discussion boards, and take advantage of opportunities to receive formative feedback and to learn from summative feedback (e.g., viewing all feedback and results from assignments, tests, and quizzes).

Final grades will be distributed according to the following scale:

A = 90 and above      B = 80 to 89.99      C = 70 to 79.99      D = 60 to 69.99

F = Below 60

Late Work and Make Up Work Policies:

Students will be permitted to make up class work and assignments missed as outlined in the course syllabus due to absences caused by (1) authorized participation in official College functions, (2) personal illness, (3) an illness or a death in the immediate family, (4) Pregnant or Parenting Protections under Title IX and/or Texas State Education Code Chapter 51, Subchapter Z, Section 51.982 or (5) any excused absences as outlined in Section IV of this policy. It is the student’s responsibility to inform the professor of the reason for a missed assignment/assessment due to absence and to do so within 24 hours of the missed work. Be prepared to send the professor documentation (such as a doctor's note or letter from a college official etc.) in order to be permitted to make up work. The student is expressly responsible for any work missed regardless of the cause of the absence. Communication between the student and instructor is important and it is the student's responsibility to initiate such communication. Students, whether present or absent, are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

- When e-mailing me, please include an appropriate address (ex: Hi, Dr. Grassmann...), clearly identify yourself (ex: This is John Doe...), the class section you are in (ex: ...from your SPAN 1412. ____ class...), and a clear message that includes proper capitalization, spelling, and punctuation. This is a skill that should be practiced for all scholarly and professional communication--not only for this class! (*Note: Typically, I have multiple sections of SPAN 1412, so including your class section number helps me to be able to answer any questions you might have about your grades, due dates, progress in the class, etc. more efficiently.)
- If you have any questions about something that is unclear or any ideas or suggestions for ways that I can improve the course and/or help you to be successful, please don't be shy to let me know. I am happy to accept constructive feedback, and I'm here to help you!
- My goal is to create a friendly, encouraging, and productive atmosphere in which students feel safe to participate. Therefore, I expect students to receive and provide feedback to and from the instructor and one another with a positive attitude in the interest of learning.
- Students should be aware that successful completion of this course will require a great deal of self-discipline and integrity. Academic dishonesty (cheating) will not be tolerated. While you may use notes/vocab lists/etc. while completing the study plans and quizzes, NO RESOURCES (including, but not limited to, other people, notes, textbooks, dictionaries, cell phones, artificial intelligence, or any form of translation service) may be used when taking tests or oral exams. Beware that if a student is caught cheating on a test or oral exam, the grade for that test will be a 0, the student will be reported to the Department of Student Conduct, and all prior and future test-taking video footage will be carefully reviewed. If a second offense is observed—whether it was committed before or after the first offense—the student will be withdrawn from the course.
