BRITISH LITERATURE
ENGL_2321_M1

Course Description:

A survey of the development of British literature from the Anglo-Saxon period to the present. Students will study works of prose, poetry, drama, and fiction in relation to their historical, linguistic, and cultural contexts. Texts will be selected from a diverse group of authors and traditions.

Prerequisites and/or Corequisites:

ENGL 1301 or ENGL 2311. Semester Hours 3 (3 lec)

Course Notes and Instructor Recommendations:

Welcome to ENGL 2321, a survey of the development of British literature from the Anglo-Saxon period to the present. As a student in this class, you will read extensively and intensively; however, the journey should prove rewarding. Upon completion of this class, you should exhibit an essential knowledge of the breadth and depth of the history of British literature. You should also possess a greater comprehension of literary genres.

Instructor Information:

Instructor Name: Preston Lynn Waller

MCC E-mail: pwaller@mclennan.edu

Office Phone Number: 254-299-8950

Office Location: FOB 108

Office/Teacher Conference Hours: 2:00-3:00 MWF and 10:00-11:00 TTH online

Required Text & Materials:

All required texts and materials for this course will be accessed online.

MCC Bookstore Website: <http://www.mclennan.edu/bookstore/>

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

Selected readings from the eight major eras of British literature, quizzes over each of the eight major eras of British literature, essays responding to the readings and authors, and discussion groups

Course Objectives and/or Competencies for Language, Philosophy, & Culture:

This course offers a broad survey overview and a foundational basis for general education within the liberal arts. It also prepares students for further study within the academic area of literature.

- Critical Thinking (CT): Requires creative innovation in interpretation, inquiry, and analyses of a wide variety of texts and a synthesis of texts with secondary sources.

- Communication Skills (COM): Require effective development, interpretation, and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Social Responsibility (SR): Requires consideration of other cultures and other time periods, which in turn leads to knowledge of civic responsibility in regional, national and global communities. This knowledge prepares students for an understanding of the effects of good social responsibility, as well as the consequences of the lack thereof in communities, nations, and the world.
- Personal Responsibility (PR): Includes skills in connecting choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making, as demonstrated in the wide variety of texts covered in these classes.

Course Outline or Schedule:

All class work is due on the date specified by 11:59 p.m. Central time.

- May 11--Read materials on Brightspace (especially the syllabus) and submit discussion entry introducing yourself to your instructor and classmates
- May 12--Anglo-Saxon, Quiz 1
- May 15--14th and 15th Centuries, Quiz 2

- May 23--The Victorians, Quiz 7
- May 24--The 20th Century, Quiz 8
- May 25--Submit final exam

LATE CLASS WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. The course will close to students at 11:59 p.m. Central time on the last due date.

Course Grading Information:

Your grade for the course will be based on the following percentages:

- Eight quizzes over the eight periods of British Literature (5% each)--40%
- Mid-term exam--30%
- Final exam--30%

Students must do their own work. PLAGIARIZED DOCUMENTS WILL RECEIVE A GRADE OF ZERO.

The instructor will use the following grading scheme:

100-90 = A

89-80 = B
79-70 = C
69-60 = D
59-0 = F

Quizzes and exams will be submitted through Brightspace. Quizzes will consist of multiple choice questions. Students will adhere to time limits on quizzes. Quizzes contain ten questions. Students are given one minute per question. Students will not receive credit on quizzes that exceed time limits.

Major Grammatical Errors:

Students will be expected to submit work that is free of major errors in usage, punctuation, and spelling. The following errors have been deemed serious enough to merit special attention:

1. Fragment (e.g., "Since this is so." "Having a strong nylon rope between us." "Thus having no evaporation to make new clouds for rain.")
2. Subject-verb agreement; pronoun-antecedent agreement (e.g., "He wear the same jeans every day." "Ordinarily a purse is an accessory in which one keep her valuables." "His hypocrisy show through the false exterior.")
3. Errors in verb form (e.g., "If he would of done that, I had been alright." "I would have liked to lived in Shakespeare's time.")
4. Comma splices (e.g., "I arrived in class 10 minutes late, Larry came five minutes after I did." "This is the way in, that is the way out.")
5. Fused sentences (e.g., "But water had different meanings for different people for instance to the Texas farmer it's his bread and butter." "The literary techniques used are precipitative devices this is where one event triggers another.")
6. Faulty or unclear reference (e.g., "This story referred to James, but Henry misapplied it to himself. This is true in real life." "The car apparently needed a gasket; it leaked all over the garage floor.")
7. Faulty diction or word choice (e.g., "In this case apostrophe is death and no one can kill death." "She is a biggatrish and she hates Jews." "His death is an escape goat for his fears." "He was much to heavy.")
8. Sentences in which introductory phrases and clauses have no logical connection with the main clause (e.g., "After staying up most of Friday night talking and making preparations for the big climb, the sun finally rose." "As one travels through Vermont, the poem perplexes the reader." "At seventeen, her class graduated.")

9. Sentences containing unwarranted shifts in tense, mood, or voice (e.g., "She strolled up to me in study-hall and tries to start an argument." "If one wants to win, you must try very hard.")

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

All class work is due by 11:59 p.m. Central time on the date specified in the course schedule.

LATE CLASS WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. The course will close to students at 11:59 p.m. Central time on the last due date.

Attendance records in Brightspace are based on the submission of the last graded classwork for the designated attendance dates. Attendance will be labeled either Present or Absent (P or A) and cannot be made up.

Students may be withdrawn from the class when they have missed 25% of the classwork before the last day for student-initiated withdrawals. Students who reach the 25% limit after the last day for student-initiated withdrawals may receive a grade of F.

Extra credit work is not offered in the class.

Only one submission is allowed for each assignment in Brightspace. Therefore, the draft of the exam being posted in Brightspace must be the final draft. The final draft will be a text submission. THE FINAL DRAFT IS THE FINAL DRAFT. No re-writes will be accepted after the date on which the final draft is due.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity.

For classes which meet on campus, the use of cell phones to send or receive messages within the classroom will not be tolerated except in extreme emergencies.

Students having technical support problems with this course should call Information Systems and Services at 254-299-8077 from 7:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Academic Support and Tutoring exists to help students develop stronger writing skills and provides assistance with specific writing assignments and reviews student documents either on a walk-in or appointment basis. Academic Support and Tutoring may be reached by calling 254-299-8500.

Both the Completion Center and Paulanne's Pantry are located on the second floor of the Student Services Center (SSC).

MCC Foundation Emergency Grant Fund:

Unanticipated expenses, such as car repairs, medical bills, housing, or job loss can affect us all. Should an unexpected expense arise, the MCC Foundation has an emergency grant fund that may be able to assist you. Please go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/scholarships-and-resources/emergencygrant.html> to find out more about the emergency grant. The application can be found at https://www.mclennan.edu/foundation/docs/Emergency_Grant_Application.pdf.

MCC Academic Integrity Statement:

Go to www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity for information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

Minimum System Requirements to Utilize MCC's D2L|Brightspace:

Go to <https://www.mclennan.edu/center-for-teaching-and-learning/FacultyandStaffCommons/requirements.html> for information on the minimum system requirements needed to reliably access your courses in MCC's D2L|Brightspace learning management system.

Minimum Technical Skills:

Students should have basic computer skills, knowledge of word processing software, and a basic understanding of how to use search engines and common web browsers.

Backup Plan for Technology:

In the event MCC's technology systems are down, you will be notified via your MCC student email address. Please note that all assignments and activities will be due on the date specified in the Instructor Plan, unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Email Policy:

McLennan Community College would like to remind you of the policy (<http://www.mclennan.edu/employees/policy-manual/docs/E-XXXI-B.pdf>) regarding college email. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to use their McLennan email addresses when conducting college business.

A student's McLennan email address is the preferred email address that college employees should use for official college information or business. Students are expected to read and, if needed, respond in a timely manner to college emails. For more information about your student email account, go to www.mclennan.edu/studentemail.

Instructional Uses of Email:

Faculty members can determine classroom use of email or electronic communications. Faculty should expect and encourage students to check the college email on a regular basis. Faculty should inform students in the course syllabus if another communication method is to be used and of any special or unusual expectations for electronic communications.

If a faculty member prefers not to communicate by email with their students, it should be reflected in the course syllabus and information should be provided for the preferred form of communication.

Email on Mobile Devices:

The College recommends that you set up your mobile device to receive McLennan emails. If you need assistance with set-up, you may email Helpdesk@mclennan.edu for help.

You can find help on the McLennan website about connecting your McLennan email account to your mobile device:

- Email Setup for iPhones and iPads
- Email Setup for Androids

Forwarding Emails:

You may forward emails that come to your McLennan address to alternate email addresses; however, the College will not be held responsible for emails forwarded to an alternate address that may be lost or placed in junk or spam filters.

For more helpful information about technology at MCC, go to MCC's Tech Support Cheat Sheet or email helpdesk@mclennan.edu.
