Course Grading Information:

Grades in the course will be based on a sum of the weighted average of the grades the student earns for each course requirement. Please refer to the course requirements for the instructor's expectations of students.

Final grades will correspond to the following scale:
A = 90-100   B = 80-89   C = 70-79   D = 60-69   F = 0-59

Course grades will be based on the following percentages:

Course Requirement	Percentage	Competencies	Learning Outcomes
Reading Quizzes	10%	CT, PR	1, 2, 3
Discussion Board Participation	10%	CT, COM, SR	1, 2, 3, 4
Journal Entries	10%	CT, COM, SR	1, 2, 3, 4
Critical Review	15%	CT, COM, PR	2, 3, 4

Compare/Contrast Essay	20%	CT, COM, SR	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
Midterm	20%	CT, COM, PR	1, 2, 3, 4
Presentation	15%	COM, SR	1, 2, 3, 4

*Note: I reserve the right to adjust these percentages as necessary.

I am more than happy to discuss any questions students may have concerning the grades they receive. However, I ask that students take plenty of time to review the grade and determine what question(s) to ask before contacting me to discuss the assignment grade.

Course Requirements:

Reading Quizzes: Students can expect quizzes over assigned readings during the term. Each quiz will consist of fill in the blank, multiple choice, or essay questions that will test the student's critical thinking over the reading assignment. Students wishing to earn high marks on these quizzes must complete all assigned readings, actively engage with the material they are reading, and consider the overall meaning of the text within its historical and social context.

Discussion Board Participation: For each unit of coursework with an assigned discussion board, you will be required to make three posts on that discussion board. For your first post, you need to respond to one of the questions your instructor will post to get the discussion started. Additionally, you need to provide two responses to posts made by different classmates. Your discussion board posts need to be substantive, meaning you need to say more than "That's interesting" or "I agree."

> Discussion Board Rubric: All discussion boards are worth 10 points. The following rubric will be used to determine discussion board grades:
> - 8-10 points – substantive posts that contribute to the class's overall understanding of the text; minimum of three posts.
> - 7 points – posts that demonstrate a basic level of understanding of the reading; minimum of three posts.
> - 6 points – posts that demonstrate that you have completed the reading; minimum of three posts.
> - 0-5 points – two posts or fewer.

Journal Entries: In some units, you will also be required to complete a journal entry over assigned readings. Instructions for each journal entry will be posted on Brightspace. Students wishing to earn high marks on this assignment should complete all reading assignments, follow the instructions carefully, and use correct grammar and mechanics in their journal entries.

Critical Review: Each student must complete a critical review over one of the assigned readings. A critical review is a summary of an academic article over an assigned reading. Academic articles make a claim about the content of a reading; they do not provide simple summaries of readings. To complete the assignment, locate and read an academic article, write a 500 to 750 word summary of the contents of that article and description of how the article has enhanced your understanding of the course text. Then, submit the essay to Brightspace for grading. Students who submit effective, well written summaries that identify the argument of the article, the author's main supporting points, and what they learned from the article will earn the highest marks on this assignment.

Midterm: The midterm will be available under Unit 3. It may include any reading that has been reviewed prior to the midterm assignment. Students can expect to encounter questions that ask them to compare and/or contrast texts by two or more authors, along with multiple choice, short answer, true/false, and fill-in-the-blanks questions. Students wishing to earn high marks on their midterm should complete all assigned readings, keep good notes, and participate in discussion boards. Additionally, students should pay close attention to prompts for short answer and essay questons.

Compare/Contrast Essay: Each student must complete a compare/contrast essay. In this essay, students will compare AND contrast a theme or literary device used in two pieces of assigned literature from different periods. To create this essay, students must use a minimum of 2 outside sources. Also, the essay must be 750 to 1,500 words in length and conform to MLA format. Appropriate parenthetical references in the essay and a correctly formatted Works Cited page must be included in the document. The best outside sources to use are The Oxford English Dictionary and the Gale Literary Databases, and the MLA Bibliography (all are available through MCC's library web page). Students wishing to earn high marks on their compare/contrast essay must offer a clear thesis of the purpose of comparing the two texts. Also, this thesis must be supported via appropriate references to an assigned reading and two outside sources. The Compare/Contrast Essay will be submitted in Unit 6.

Presentation: Each student will also be required to submit a short, 2 to 3-minute video presentation. Topics vary from semester to semester. Students wishing to earn high marks on their presentation must follow the directions for the assignment carefully and include all the required information in their presentation. Presentations are to be submitted under Unit 6.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:
Late work: Work may only be submitted after the published deadline in the event of an excused absence (i.e. personal illness or illness in the family; death in the family). Students are asked to contact the instructor via email as soon as they believe they may miss a course deadline due to an excused absence. An extension on the late work will be granted via email, so students need to look for an instructor response in their MCC email account after informing the instructor about their situation.

Attendance: To remain in good standing in this course, all students must submit one graded assignment each week of the semester. Attendance will be recorded at weekly intervals, and students who do not participate regularly by submitting an assignment each week may be contacted by the instructor or a Success Coach.

Students who fail to submit graded assignments for two consecutive weeks will be dropped from the course if the attendance violation occurs before the withdrawal deadline. If the attendance violation occurs after the withdrawal deadline, the student will earn a grade of F at the end of the term. Please check the calendar posted on the McLennan Community College website for withdrawal deadlines.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:
Students are expected to improve their own reading, thinking, and writing skills and to assist their fellow classmates to do the same. To create comfortable learning environment for all present, students are asked to respect their colleagues. Disrespectful comments on discussion boards will not be tolerated. Repeat offenders will be reported to MCC's Discipline Coordinator and, in extreme cases, dropped from the course.

Additionally, students are asked to carefully consider the content of their communications to their instructor and classmates. Is it clear? Does it communicate its main idea well? Has it been edited and proofread? Make sure you can answer yes to all these questions before you submit your discussion board posts and emails.

Course Policy on Academic Dishonesty
Students found to be guilty of acts of academic dishonesty (including but not limited to sharing coursework with a classmate, presenting the work of another's as their own, copying from sources without documentation, purchasing papers, copying another's work, and gaining access to quiz and/or test answers prior to taking the quiz/test) are subject to college policy as found in the Highlander Guide. In addition, in this class, students are subject to the following discipline:

- First Offense: Warning & report to MCC's Discipline Coordinator
- Second Offense: failing grade on the assignment & report to MCC's Discipline Coordinator
- Third Offense: failing grade in the course & report to MCC's Discipline Coordinator
