Course Grading Information:

The grade for this course will come from the following components:

- Online Tests: 2 major tests (midterm and final), taken online via Brightspace, utilizing a webcam monitoring service to ensure academic integrity (Lockdown Browser with Monitor). Please note that due to the comprehensive nature of language learning, each module builds on prior learning. For that reason, it is extremely important to study regularly and to continuously review older material. If you try to wait until the last minute and cram for a test, the material is not likely to make it into long-term memory, which will make it very difficult to be successful as the semester progresses (and even more difficult to do well in Spanish II).
- Oral Exams: 2 one-on-one oral interviews with the instructor (one midterm and one final), lasting approximately 5-8 minutes each, conducted via Zoom. Students will be provided with all questions they might be asked in advance. Questions are designed for students to demonstrate mastery of vocabulary and grammar lessons studied, and students will be graded on comprehension, grammatical accuracy, use of complete sentences, fluency, and pronunciation. A detailed grading rubric will be posted in the “Oral Exam Materials” content folder in Brightspace.
- Discussion Board Video Posts: Students will respond orally via “videonote” to discussion questions related to the assigned vocabulary lists by posting a video, and then respond in writing to at least two classmates’ posts for each discussion assignment. There will be 3 discussion videos assigned throughout the semester.
- Online Study Plans & Quizzes: Students will watch video tutorials and complete a variety of listening, speaking, reading, and writing exercises in Brightspace and then take a quiz for each module. The study plan activities are graded based on completion (not accuracy) and are designed to help students learn prior to taking the quizzes; failure to complete them will result in a loss of points for both the Study Plan and the attendance/participation category. Each module is broken into 4 or 5 sections. As students complete the self-checks at the end of each section, they will see their grade for the Study Plan increase by 20-25%. YOU MUST COMPLETE THE “SELF CHECK” EXERCISES TO EARN CREDIT FOR EACH SECTION OF THE STUDY PLANS. The quizzes are graded for accuracy. Students will have two attempts per quiz, and the highest grade for each quiz will be recorded. I strongly encourage you to budget enough time in between attempts to be able to go back and study the concepts you miss on your first attempt before making your second attempt. You may refer back to the study plan, use your own notes, consult vocabulary lists, etc. while completing the study plans and quizzes; however, keep in mind no resources whatsoever may be used when it comes time for the midterm and final written and oral exams. Therefore, it is extremely important to ensure you have actually learned the material and are not dependent on those outside resources.

BEGINNING SPANISH I

- Attendance & Participation: To earn full attendance and participation points, students must log in and complete work at least 4 days per week, view all digital content assigned, meet all due dates for assignments and assessments, and respond to all discussion boards. Students are also strongly encouraged to take advantage of opportunities to receive formative feedback and to proactively communicate any questions or lack of understanding they might have. I am here to help! However, I can't answer your questions if I don't know what they are, so please don't hesitate to reach out any time.

Grades will be weighted as follows:

Major Tests (2)	25%
Oral Interviews (2)	30%
Discussion Board Video Posts and Responses (3)	20%
Lumen Study Plans & Quizzes (11 each)	15%
Attendance/Participation	10%

Detailed grading rubrics will be provided via Brightspace for oral interviews and discussion board videos. Major tests will be graded objectively for accurate use of Spanish vocabulary and grammar.

Final grades will be distributed according to the following scale:

A = 90 and above B = 80 to 89.99 C = 70 to 79.99 D = 60 to 69.99
F = Below 60

Late Work, Attendance, and Makeup Work Policies:

The instructor will follow the official MCC Attendance/Absence policy posted in the Highlander Guide. Students who are forced to miss a deadline or class meeting for reasons beyond their control are expected to communicate with the professor (in advance if possible, and no later than 24 hours after the missed class or deadline if advance notice is not possible) to discuss the consequences and/or possibility of makeup work. Students who fail to complete 25% of all assignments or who miss more than four assignment deadlines prior to the 60% point in the semester will be withdrawn from the class. After the 60% point, students who fail to submit at least 75% of all assigned work will receive a grade of F.

Note: It is imperative that students be proactive in communicating with me about their attendance and participation. Late work will not be accepted without a reasonable excuse and proactive communication.

Click on the link above for the college policies on attendance and absences. Your instructor may have additional guidelines specific to this course.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

- Students are expected to communicate with one another and with the instructor in a respectful manner appropriate for a college class.
- When e-mailing the instructor, please include a subject line, appropriate address (ex: Hi, Professor Bracken...), self-identification (ex: This is John Doe...), the class section you are in (ex: ...from your SPAN 1411.87 class...), and a clear message that includes proper capitalization, spelling, and punctuation. This is a skill that should be practiced for all scholarly and professional communication--not only for this class! (*Note: I will have approximately 75 students in 3 different sections this summer, so including your class section number will help me to be able to answer any questions you might have about your grades, due dates, progress in the class, etc. more efficiently.)
- If you have any questions about something that is unclear or any ideas or suggestions for ways that I can improve the course and/or help you to be successful, please don't be shy to let me know. I am happy to accept constructive feedback!
- Students should be aware that successful completion of this course will require a great deal of self-discipline and integrity. Academic dishonesty (cheating) will not be tolerated. NO RESOURCES (including, but not limited to, notes, textbooks, dictionaries, cell phones, or any form of translation service or assistance) may be used when taking tests, both written and oral. Beware that if a student is caught cheating on a test, the grade for that test will be a 0, the student will be reported to the Department of Student Conduct, and all prior and future test-taking video footage will be carefully reviewed. If a second offense is observed—whether it was committed before or after the first offense—the student will be dropped from the course with a grade of F.
