Course Description:

A study of the a) research and theory in the psychology of learning, cognition, and motivation; b) factors that impact learning; and c), application of learning strategies. Theoretical models of strategic learning, cognition, and motivation serve as the conceptual basis for the introduction of college-level student academic strategies. Students use assessment instruments (e.g., learning inventories) to help them identify their own strengths and weaknesses as strategic learners.

Students are ultimately expected to integrate and apply the learning skills discussed across their own academic programs and become effective and efficient learners. Students developing these skills should be able to continually draw from the theoretical models they have learned.

Course Mission Statement:

Learning Framework provides students with confidence in transition to higher education, as well as providing empowerment in areas that will lead to success as a lifelong learner.

Objectives and/or Competencies:

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will:

1. Increase the student's level of knowledge and use of motivational, behavioral, and cognitive factors that impact learning.
2. Improve the student's abilities and actions in learning and study strategies.
3. Provide student preparation for the rigors of a college education.
4. Provide students with an overview of the emotional intelligence skills they will need to be successful in the college environment.

Methods of Teaching and Learning:

- Online/video lectures
- Reading assignments
- Online discussion boards
- Individual assignments
- Self-reflection
- Use of digital media and/or recording of student performance

Students are expected to complete the weekly reading, participate in Discussion Board (Db) as assigned, and complete any activities and papers as assigned. Additional information will be provided through Brightspace.

Graded Assignments:

Core Assignments: There are seven assignments designated as core activities. These are common to students in all sections of Learning Framework. Instructions will be provided on Brightspace and/or explained in video lectures.

Reading Quizzes: As you read the e-textbook provided through D2L/Brightspace, there will be questions that pop-up throughout the chapter to check for understanding. To earn all of the points for this assignment, you must complete the chapter and answer the questions that appear.

Module Activities: In most modules, you will complete an assignment related to the weekly topic/chapter reading.

Discussion Board Posts: You will complete weekly discussion board posts in this class. You will be asked to respond to a prompt provided by the instructor. To receive full credit, you must submit an initial response that is well thought out, relevant to the prompt, and substantial (at least 3-6 sentences). You must then respond to two classmates with substantial posts. Responses like “I agree” or “Good point” will not receive full credit. Your responses should be at least 3 sentences long. Please do not use text-speak, such as “LOL” or “BFF” as these will not count either. Avoid posting in ALL CAPS as this looks like YOU ARE YELLING at the other student.

Final Project: To summarize your learning in this course, you will choose 2 strategies you learned about in this course and present them to an audience of incoming freshman students. How you present this is up to you. Some suggestions are a formal paper, a PowerPoint, a Prezi, a video, a blog, or a podcast. More details, including rubrics for different types of presentations, will be available on Brightspace.

Course Outline/Schedule:

The following is a TENTATIVE schedule of these chapters and the primary topic for each week. Circumstances may cause the schedule to be changed. If changes are necessary, they will be announced in Brightspace.

Units are open from Tuesday until Monday each week. Each unit contains THREE modules. All assignments for each unit are due by Monday evening at 11:59 PM, except for initial discussion posts which are due by Friday evening at 11:59 PM so that you have time to respond to your classmates.

Course Grading Information:

Your grades are weighted by assignment categories. A weighted score is the average of a set of grades, where each set carries a different amount of importance. For example, your core assignments are worth 30% where the weekly activities are worth less, 20%. The final project by itself is worth 20%, meaning that if you do not complete that assignment, the highest possible grade you could earn for the course would be 80%.

Assignment Category	%
Core Assignments	30
Weekly Activities	20
Weekly Reading Quizzes (CONNECT)	15
Discussion Boards	15
Final Project	20
Total	100

Grading Scale:

Letter Grade	A	B	C	D	F
Total Points	100 – 90	89 – 80	79 – 70	69 – 60	59 or Below

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Late work will be subject to a deduction of 5% per day it is late. For example, if it is 2 days late and you would have earned a 100, you will now get a 90. Please keep in mind that there are some instances where late work will not be accepted:

- Discussion boards
- Weekly reading quizzes

Under certain, documented circumstances (example: documented serious illness/injury of self or immediate relative), late work may be excused. Communication is very important – if you are experiencing extenuating circumstances, please reach out to me so we can develop a plan for you to be successful despite your circumstances.

Attendance:

As this is an online course, attendance will be assessed via active and regular participation in discussion boards and engagement with course content/modules. A student who goes more than a week without logging into the course will be counted “absent” for that week and students who are absent from more than 25% of course modules will be withdrawn from the course. Since this is a shortened summer semester, this means if you do not log in for 2 weeks, you can be withdrawn. Reinstatement into the course is only possible if the professor is satisfied that the student will resume regular participation and complete the course.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

In both the face-to-face and online environments, students are expected to maintain classroom decorum that includes respect for other students and the instructor, prompt and regular attendance, and an attitude that seeks to take full advantage of the education opportunity.

While honest discussion and debate of topics is expected and encouraged, such interactions should not involve aggressive, derogatory, or involve hostile behaviors (verbal or otherwise). The instructor reserves the right to act to protect the decorum of the learning environment and the image of MCC.

If you are using Zoom to meet with the professor and/or other students, please ensure that you are dressed appropriately and are in a location where you can focus on your responsibilities as a student. Example: It is not appropriate to attend a Zoom class while laying in bed and/or half dressed. Please be respectful of others and mute yourself if background noise will be a problem.

Academic Integrity/Cheating/Plagiarism:

In this course, cheating will not be tolerated. Any student found cheating will be subject to grade reduction, receiving a zero on assignments that involve cheating/plagiarism, and/or dismissal from the course.

Examples of cheating include but are not limited to:

- Copying the work of another student
- Seeking excused absences/tardiness under false pretenses
- Plagiarism (claiming as your own work the work of another)

Click Here for the MCC Academic Integrity Statement

(www.mclennan.edu/academic-integrity)

The link above will provide you with information about academic integrity, dishonesty, and cheating.

This course will teach you to think critically. Critical thinking is essential for success in college and life. Please maintain your integrity and do your own work – there is no reason to cheat in this, or any other course.
