BRITISH LITERATURE

ENGL 2321.89

Course grades will be based on the following percentages:

Course Requirement	Percentage
Reading Quizzes	10%
Discussion Board Participation	10%
Journal Entries	10%
Midterm Exam	20%
Critical Review	15%
Major Essay	20%
Presentation	15%

*Note: I reserve the right to adjust these percentages as necessary

I am more than happy to discuss any questions students may have concerning the grades they receive. However, I ask that students take plenty of time to review the grade and determine what question(s) to ask before contacting me to discuss the assignment grade.

Course Requirements:

Reading Quizzes: Students can expect quizzes over assigned readings during the semester. Each quiz will consist of at least three short answer, essay, multiple choice, or fill in the blank questions that will test the student's critical thinking over the reading assignment. Students wishing to earn high marks on these quizzes must complete all assigned readings, actively engage with the material they are reading, and consider the overall meaning of the text within its historical and social context.

Discussion Board: Regular participation is required of all students, regardless of whether the class meets face to face or is completed online. In online courses, the discussion board is one of the main places a student participates in the course.

Discussion Board Participation: In most units, you will be required to make three posts on a discussion board. For your first post, you need to create a thread in response to at least one of the questions your instructor will post to get the discussion started. Additionally, you need to provide two additional replies to two of the posts made by two different classmates. Your discussion board posts need to be substantive, meaning you need to say more than "That's interesting" or "I agree." Also, if you reference outside sources on the discussion board, you must cite them in your post to remain compliant with the course's Academic Honesty policy.

Discussion Board Rubric: All discussion boards are worth 10 points. The following rubric will be used to determine discussion board grades:

- 8-10 points – substantive posts that contribute to the class’s overall understanding of the text; minimum of three posts.
- 7 points – posts that demonstrate a basic level of understanding of the reading; minimum of three posts.
- 6 points – posts that demonstrate that you have completed the reading; minimum of three posts.
- 0-5 points – two posts or fewer.

Journal Entries: You will also be required to complete a journal entry over one of the assigned readings in most units. Instructions for each journal entry will be posted on Brightspace. Students wishing to earn high marks on this assignment should complete all reading assignments, follow the instructions carefully, and use correct grammar and mechanics in their journal entries.

Midterm: The midterm will be available under Unit 4. It is an exam that may include any reading that has been reviewed prior to the date of the midterm. Question types include multiple choice, short answer, fill in the blank, and essay questions. Students can expect to encounter questions that ask them to compare and/or contrast texts by two or more authors. Students wishing to earn high marks on their midterm must complete all assigned readings and participate in discussion boards.

Critical Review: Each student must complete a critical review over one of the assigned readings. A critical review is a summary of an academic article over one of the assigned readings. Simply read the article, write a two-page summary of the contents of that article, describe how the article has enhanced your understanding of the course text, and submit the essay for grading. Students who submit effective, well written summaries that identify the argument of the article, the author’s main supporting points, and what they learned from the article will earn the highest marks on this assignment. The Critical Review must be submitted under Unit 3.

Major Essay - Literary Devices Essay: Each student must complete a literary devices essay. In this essay, students will define a literary device and use one of the assigned course readings to illustrate how this literary device is used in that text. To create this essay, students must use a minimum of 2 outside sources. Also, the essay must be 750 to 1,000 words in length and conform to MLA format. Appropriate parenthetical references in the essay and a correctly formatted Works Cited page must be included in the document. The best outside sources to use are The Oxford English Dictionary and the MLA Bibliography (all are available through MCC’s library web page). Students wishing to earn high marks on their literary devices essay must offer a clear definition of their topic that is well-illustrated via appropriate references to an assigned reading and two outside sources. The Literary Devices Essay must be submitted under Unit 6.

Presentation: Each student will also be required to submit a short, 2 to 3-minute video presentation. Topics vary from semester to semester. Students wishing to earn high marks on their presentation must follow the directions for the assignment carefully and include all the required information in their presentation. The Presentation must be submitted under Module 6.

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Late work: Work may only be submitted after the published deadline in the event of an excused absence (i.e. personal illness or illness in the family; death in the family). Students are asked to contact the instructor via email as soon as they believe they may miss a course deadline due to an excused absence. An extension on the late work will be granted via email, so students need to look for an instructor response in their MCC email account after informing the instructor about their situation.

Attendance: To remain in good standing in this course, all students must submit one graded assignment each week of the semester. Attendance will be recorded at weekly intervals, and students who do not participate regularly by submitting an assignment each week may be contacted by the instructor or a Success Coach.

Students who fail to submit graded assignments for two consecutive weeks will be dropped from the course if the attendance violation occurs before the withdrawal deadline. If the attendance violation occurs after the withdrawal deadline, the student will earn a grade of F at the end of the term. Please check the calendar posted on the McLennan Community College website for withdrawal deadlines.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students found to be guilty of acts of academic dishonesty (including but not limited to sharing coursework with a classmate, presenting the work of another's as their own, copying from sources without documentation, purchasing papers, utilizing AI to create portions or full drafts of written assignments, copying another's work, and gaining illegitimate access to quiz/exam passwords and/or quiz/exam questions or answers prior to taking the assessment) are subject to college policy as found in the Highlander Guide. In addition, in this class, students are subject to the following discipline:
