Course Grading Information:

You will be graded on orientation activities due the first day of class 5%, class participation via Brightspace discussion boards, all of the types of VHL work, and the use of instructional materials and tutorials 10%, Brightspace discussion boards 13%, homework via VHL assignment calendar 23%, one oral evaluation over lessons 1-6 25%, mid-term exam 12 %, and a final exam 12%. The final average of these grades will be the final grade for the class. There is no extra credit. Students should check the online gradebook in Brightspace regularly for feedback on assignments and for grades.

Each chapter will contain instructional materials on Brightspace and VHL that you must access at the beginning of the chapter. It is important to use the instructional materials from the professor and the tutorials in order to respond to the assignments in the Brightspace discussion board, to complete all tasks in VHL's assignment calendar/dashboard, and to complete the assessments for the chapter.

All VHL homework is due by 11:59pm CST on the assigned due dates, all Brightspace discussion posts and replies are due by 9pm CST on the assigned due dates, the mid-term exam is due by 11:59pm CST on the assigned due date, and the final exam is due by 11:59pm CST on the assigned due date. Violations of academic integrity such as plagiarism and cheating will result in a 0 on the assignment/assessment and the incident will be reported to the MCC administration.

Final grades will be distributed according to the following scale:

A = 90 and above B = 80 to 89.99 C= 70 to 79.99 D = 60 to 69.99 F = Below 60

Late Work, Attendance, and Make Up Work Policies:

Attendance is measured through regular participation in this course, which is expected of all students. In an online class this means you must actively participate in all assignments/activities, utilize all resources posted such as teaching materials and study plans, complete your work on time, and not miss any deadlines or tasks online. An absence is constituted by missing any discussion board, tutorial, homework assignment, oral exam, test, quiz, or presentation. Students are responsible for all material presented or assigned for a course from the first official day of classes and will be held accountable for such materials in the determination of course grades. If you are not participating (not doing your work) for any reason, you cannot earn participation points. It is MCC policy that once you miss 25% of the class, regardless of the reason for the absence, you can be dropped by the professor.

Students will be permitted to make up work missed due to absences caused by (1) authorized participation in official college functions, (2) personal illness, (3) an illness or a death in the immediate family, or (4) the observance of a religious holy day. It is the student's responsibility to inform the professor of the reason for a missed assignment/assessment due to absence and to do so within 24 hours of the missed work. Be prepared to send the professor documentation (such as a doctor's note or letter from a college official etc.) in order to be permitted to make up work.

Student Behavioral Expectations or Conduct Policy:

Students are expected to maintain proper online classroom decorum. This includes active participation on a regular basis, respect for other students and the professor, meeting all course deadlines, and using Spanish at all times. Unless the professor gives you explicit instructions to use English, assume every task is in Spanish. Students are to do their own work and should not have other people or electronic resources completing it on their behalf.
